WEST-SIDE NOTES JUST IN

Happenings of a Day in the Busy Town of Warrenton--Automobiles, Baseball, Etc.

Last evening between 8 and 9 o'clock a top-rigged automobile came speeding up Main street. The occupants, two ladies and two gentlemen, were set serenely in their seats, when the turn of the road appeared just ahead. In endeavoring to steer round the curve the gentlemen at the wheel misjudged his ability, anyway his attempt proved a failure, for the car lurched to the side of the road and then turned into the ditch, tossing the quartet towards mother earth.

The mishap occurred close to the business premises of Mr. Jacob Boss-hart, practically the most convenient place in town for an accident of the kind.

Mr. Bosshart's duties consist mainly of serving "spirit reviver" to fainting souls, "pick-me-ups" to people who are down, "refreshers" to those who feel stale, etc., etc., but, in addition, he is an efficient blacksmith, horse-shoer and cycle repairer and is now turning his attention to motor cars.

In due time everything was rectified, and the tourists started for Astoria, none the worse for their little experience.

The editorial headed "Astoria and the West Side" in your issue of the 18th inst., has been read with thorough approval by your subscribers here, everyone is unanimous in giving their verbal support to your suggestions.

Dr. George Banker, dentist of Roseburg, is spending a few days at his parent's home in Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. George Oman and a number of friends came up from Hammond to take in the sights of this city.

A splendid black team came trotting into town with Mr. Fred Hill, of Astoria, in charge of the ribbons.

Mr. George Warren is having the old slaughterhouse at the ranch repaired. When the job is completed butchering will once more be done therein.

A general cleaning up has occurred at Robert Abbott's store. All dust is removed from the varied stock of patent medicines and to be brief, everything has a fresh spring-like appearance.

Miss L. Brallier and Miss A. Deane are home for the week end.

Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Brallier, Mrs. P. C. Warren, Mrs. E. S. McElroy and Miss M. Brallier went over to Astoria on business bent.

Don't forget the baseball game in Warrenton Sunday. Visitors are welcome.
