Steamer Wand the Only Vessel to Cross the Bar.

COLUMBIA FOR SAN FRANCISCO

Steamship Hornelin Leaves Out For Puget Sound, All Repairs Made—Lumber Rates to the Bay City—

Putting the daily demand of San Francisco for lumber at 3,000,000 feet, the Oregonian says: "Lumber rates coastwise are on the decline and sail tonnage to San Francisco is now $7.25 a thousand feet from the Columbia river. Steam tonnage stands $3. For Redondo and San Diego sail tonnage has been chartered for $8.25 a thousand. The lowest quotations available in Portland are for $9 for steamers for the outside port or option of San Pedro or San Diego."

Captain C. Swanson and Chief Officer A. Paulsen, of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Sonoma, were suspended yesterday in San Francisco, by United States Inspectors Bolles and J. H. Bulger for negligence in boat and fire drills, the captain for 15 days and the mate for 30 days.

The steamer Telegraph is due out of Portland on her initial run to this port on Sunday next, using her old schedule and maintaining it through the whole season. She is said to be in fine shape and has been completely overhauled for the service.

The steamer L. Wand, from San Francisco, was pretty nearly the only vessel to cross in over the Columbia river bar yesterday. Not in a long while has there been such a dearth of marine matters in this port.

The Norwegian steamship Hornelin, fully repaired after her recent mishap up the river, sailed yesterday morning for Puget Sound, where she will finish loading for the Orient.

The steamer Washington finished taking on a cargo of lumber at the Reed mill at Rainier last evening and will arrive down this morning and get to sea this afternoon after taking on oil here. She carries a cargo of 600,000 feet of lumber. The Washington will be a steady visitor in this port hereafter as she is under charter to the Reed mill.

The steamship Columbia is due down from the metropolis this afternoon and will sail for San Francisco immediately, with good business.

Don't Put Off.
For to-morrow what you can do today. If you put off buying a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, when that pain comes you won't have any, buy a bottle today. A positive cure for Rheumatism, Burns, Cuts, Sprains, Contracted Muscles, etc. T. S. Graham, Prairie Grove, Ark., writes: "I wish to thank you for the good results I received from Snow Liniment. It positively cured me of Rheumatism after others had failed." Sold by Hart's Drug Store.

PEARY'S PREPARATION.

The Sack of Funds Has Seriously Hampered Explorer's Progress.

NEW YORK, April 25.—Robert E. Peary is very hopeful of reaching the pole, is rushing his preparations to take the Roosevelt again. He hopes to leave New York by the end of June or in the first week in July. After wintering on the north coast of Grant land, he will make his dash for the coveted prize in February and hopes to return triumphant about 14 months after steaming from New York. Only the lack of absolute certainty that enough money will be forthcoming to finance the expedition is troubling him.

"It is incredible with so many men in New York who could spare $100,000 without missing it, that the expedition should have to be abandoned for lack of funds," said Mr. Peary yesterday. "Honestly, I have no doubt that the money will come from somewhere, though I have no absolute assurance of it as yet."

Mr. Peary regrets that a statement was recently made that he had $200,000 in hand to finance his expedition. "Forty thousand is the absolute limit of my resources so far," he said, "and the expedition cannot start until the amount is increased to $100,000."

The delayed Boys' Spring Suits just came in at Herman Wise's.

ACROSS YOUNG'S BAY YESTERDAY

NARROW ESCAPE OF MILL HAND AT THE OLD OREGON MILLS—BASEBALL GAME AT SEASIDE NEXT SUNDAY—OTHER ITEMS.

WARRENTON, April 25.—Yesterday morning an employe at the Old Oregon Mills, named Hendrickson, met with an accident which might have proved fatal, though fortunately he only sustained a severe shock and a few ugly bruises. The man was working on the log deck and got between two logs (scaling something like 4000 feet each) at the same moment another man started turning the foremost log forward with the use of the canting gear. As the log began to move it was noticed that the second log had been partly supported by the other for it also commenced to roll forward. It was then too late for Hendrickson to get clear of the oncoming log and also disastrous to stop the front one. In a moment Hendrickson was wedged between the two rolling logs. Those who saw the accident rushed to the man's assistance, all fearing he was about to be killed or at least have his back broken. While some were extracting him, others procured an improvised stretcher. On being freed the man gradually regained his vitality and was soon able to walk with the assistance of two other men, to his room close by the mill. Dr. Judd was sent for and when he arrived shortly afterwards the man was feeling considerably better. On examination it was found that there were no bones broken or any injury of a serious nature sustained as far as could be discerned.

The Warrenton baseball club have arranged to play the Seaside team at Seaside next Sunday. After their excellent game against Fort Columbia last Sunday, it is feasible to presume that Seaside will require a first rate nine if they intend being victorious over our boys.

FOR SERVICE AND CONVENIENCE

The prime essential of a business establishment is to have it open for the purposes of business when it is needed; not closed by custom nor any rule of hours. This essential attaches to the drug store of Dr. C. E. Linton at 185 Eleventh street, which is open every one of the 24 hours in the day; and with a stock that meets every requirement likely to arise in that time. It is one of the exceptions and is thoroughly endorsed.

MILLINERY.

Mrs. R. Ingleton will have a reduction sale on all hats every Saturday night from 5 to 11 o'clock. Mrs. R. Ingleton, Welch block, opposite office.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

It makes all the difference in the world to the convivial man where, and what, he drinks. Most men desire beauty and cleanliness, and handsome appointments in the saloon they patronize regularly, as well as the essential pre-requisite of genuine wines and liquors that are served to them. And these things are so particularly and properly conspicuous at Otto Sund's elegant resort, the Commercial, at No. 509 on the street of that name that they account thoroughly for the fixed and splendid custom he enjoys. There is nothing allowed to pass his counter but the best and choicest in every department of indulgence, and the service behind it all, is the most pleasing and satisfying in the city.

For The Little People.

Every parent in this city should investigate, at once, the new and appreciable shoe for the youngsters, at Charles V. Brown's Commercial street house. They are called the "E. C. Scuffer" and are the very epitome of good wear and real comfort. They are going like wild-fire and the kids themselves are after them because they look so "comfy."

A Guaranteed Presentment.

The moving-picture presentation of the Burns-O'Brien ring fight at Los Angeles in November last, as put on at the Waldorf in this city last night and now occupying the boards there this week, and which is heavily advertised in this issue, is a guaranteed exhibit for exact and truthful detail in every particular of the full number of rounds.

If a man knows anything of his own anatomy he must be aware that his stomach is a magnificent organ and entitled to the utmost consideration; knowing that he will eat at the Palace when he can conserve its safety and comfort, by eating only the best cooked, best served and most compensating meal in the city of Astoria, day, or night, it is always the same, and the Palace habit is one that pays to acquire.
