

SALT LAKE CARMEN WIN

Demands of the Men Granted.

GOVERNMENT STEPS IN

Post Office Officials Guard Cars Carrying United States Mail on Thirteen Round Trips.

SYMPATHIZERS EGGED CARS

Strikers Were Orderly—The Damage Done Was Work of Their Friends—End of Strike Was Accomplished Through Aid of the Citizens.

SALT LAKE, April 29.—It was announced at 12:30 this morning that through the intervention of citizens, the street car strike was settled. The demand of the men were granted.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 29.—All negotiations between the Utah Light & Railway Company and its striking motormen and conductors have been broken off, and what promises to be a bitter contest is now on. Attempts of the company to run a few cars on Main street this morning caused a repetition of the disorderly scenes of yesterday, but no one was seriously injured. The company expects to bring a carload of strike-breakers from Ogden tonight.

The Post Office Department at Washington took a hand in the strike situation today in the form of an order to the local post office officials that special deputy marshals be placed as guards on all cars carrying mail. These mail cars run over four lines, reaching Fort Douglas, Calders Park, Murray and Sugar House.

United States Marshal Spry at once swore in deputies enough to guard the cars. Assistant Postmaster A. P. Kessler arranged a plan, whereby a total of 13 round trips would be made each day by the mail cars, and he gave assurance that all passengers on these cars would receive complete protection. This solved the difficulty for suburban residents who were thus enabled to use the cars both in coming to and returning from their places of business in the city.

The strikers themselves did not take any part in the disorders. The leaders in the disturbances were idlers, many of them half-grown boys, and, as on yesterday, they threw eggs, cut trolley ropes and, taking hold of horses' bridles, forced teams attached to heavy wagons to draw them across the tracks in such a way as to render further progress of the cars impossible.

The cars today were manned by superintendents and inspectors who still remain loyal to the company. The only demonstration made by the strikers was a parade, in which more than 500 men—conductors, motormen and barmen—too kpart.

The electrical workers, who are also employed by the Utah Light & Railway Company, will submit an ultimatum to the company this afternoon. They not only demand adjustment of their own grievances, but will inform the company that unless a settlement is reached with the street car men the electrical workers will go out in sympathy. If they strike the city's source of light and electric power will be cut off.

Hopes for end of the street car strike within the next 24 hours were expressed today by those who for seven hours had been in conference on the situation. The parties to the conference were the arbitrator, O. Pratt, chairman of the executive committee of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America and President of the Utah Light & Power Company. Nothing was given out at the conference except that the conference had paved the way for reaching the end of the strike. Another conference will be held tomorrow.

ROBBERY INCREASES

Big Bond Theft Grows as Investigation Progresses.

IT NOW TOTALS $300,000

Original Amount Taken Supposed To Have Been But $50,000—Douglass and Dennett Suspected of Having Pile Stowed Away.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The big bond robbery, in which the Trust Company of America was the victim continues an absorbing subject in the financial districts where every development is eagerly scrutinized. The robbery at first put down as a $50,000 affair, has steadily grown until today it appears that securities aggregating $800,000 in value had been taken by William O. Douglass, the bond clerk now under arrest. These figures are reached as the result of an interview given by a member of the executive committee of the trust company who said that it took $165,000 to redeem the securities hypothecated by the brokers for loans by O. M. Dennett, who is under arrest in connection with the robbery, and that the securities were pledged for less than one-third of their value. He also said that it was $300,000 and not $200,000 worth of securities that were hidden in Broker Dennett's bed at the Manhattan Club.

Taken at the executive committee man's own figures that Douglass and Dennett realized only a part—less than a third on the average—it can be seen that $165,000 that the trust company has lost on the outstanding securities represents a value of nearly $500,000. Adding the $300,000 found in the bed of Broker Dennett makes $800,000. What has become of the money Douglass and Dennett raised is unexplained. The trust man who talked yesterday said, that while he was of the opinion that much of this had been lost in speculation he felt sure that the pair had a snug sum tucked away somewhere.

The total market value of the securities abstracted from the Trust Company of America by W. O. Douglass, assistant loan clerk was $570,000 according to a formal statement issued by the company. The company's net loss will be $140,000.

"I am in the midst of important work in assisting the prosecution of Moyer, Heywood and others charged with complicity in the murder of Governor Steunenberg," said Senator Borah to the Associated Press. "And I think it would not be my place to discuss such affairs at the present time. It is my wish to go into this great case unhampered by an utterance concerning the action of the grand jury. If that body has taken any action, I am content to leave my good name in the hands of the people of my state and of the government. It was accomplished after the couple had barricaded the door against them with every movable piece of furniture at hand. Five men were arrested. They are said to be members of the "Sholto-street gang." They are Michael O'Shea, Jerry Sullivan and William Sheehan, who have been identified by Mrs. Morris and George Reed and James Nansen, friends of the others who are held pending a coroner's inquest.
