COLOR LINE DRAWN BY DRAFTSMEN

PRESENCE OF A SOUTH CAROLINA NEGRO IN DRAFTING BUREAU MAY CAUSE WALK OUT OF WHITE EMPLOYEES.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—William Cook, the South Carolina negro whose presence in the office of the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department has kicked up a hallabaloo in the Drafting Room of that Bureau, is a highly educated person. He was trained in mechanics and drawing in a dozen or so institutions of learning, but boasts of the fact that he is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Cook is a draftsman of marked ability, has a good deal of culture, having spent much of his time in Boston, and is full of ambition to get along in his chosen profession. But his going from the office of the Supervising Architect is very much desired, inasmuch as if he elects to remain and fight a transfer the work there will be plunged into a state of demoralization.

At the first session of the fifty-ninth Congress millions of dollars were made available for the construction of numerous public buildings throughout the United States. The Supervising Architect thereupon made arrangements to enlarge his corps of draftsmen. This was no easy matter, for the reason that building operations are, and have been for a long time, very active in all the large cities, and competent draftsmen are very much in demand. Eligibles were called for from the Civil Service Commission, and despite the comparatively small salaries paid by the government the Supervising Architect was supplied with 75 or 80 skilled members of the craft. In one of the requisitions thus made for help the Supervising Architect drew William Cook, whose color was not known until he presented himself for duty.

When Cook showed up and announced he was ready for work there was a loud protest from the 75 or more white draftsmen employed by the Supervising Architect that must have been heard on Capitol Hill a mile mile away. Supervising Architect Taylor recognized the seriousness of the situation, and although he advised his subordinates to move slowly and give the matter a second thought, they prepared and forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury a petition praying for the immediate removal of Cook, and giving notice that if the negro was not removed or transferred they would walk out in a body. Treasury officials declare that if no publicity had been given the affair the negro would have been transferred to some other sphere of activity immediately upon the discovery that his presence in the Drafting Room was resented by his white co-workers. The Treasury officials are up against it. They fear that if something is not done to allay the bitterness of the employees in the Drafting Room the better part of the force will quit, thus tying up the extensive building operations planned by the government in accordance with an act of Congress. Cook is a coffee-colored negro. As far as is known, he is agreeable in manner, minds his own business, and is apparently painfully conscious of the excitement of his appointment as a draftsman has caused.

Pass Resolution Regretting President's Moyer-Heywood Stand.
DENVER, April 29.—The Denver Trades and Labor Assembly yesterday adopted resolutions regretting the attitude taken by the President against Moyer and Heywood, now awaiting trial at Boise, Idaho, on the charges of complicity in the assassination if public expression to his views at this time by the President was censured. A communication suggesting that the body form itself into a Moyer Heywood protest committee was ordered placed on file.

PROMISES OF FRUIT IN OREGON

IMPORTANT SESSION OF OREGON DEVELOPMENT LEAGUE IN JUNE—OTHER STATE MATTERS OF INTEREST.

PORTLAND, Or., April 29 (Special Correspondence).—The newspapers of no other state in the Union give more space without cost to advertising the state at large, and especially their local community, than do the newspapers of Oregon. A striking instance has been the keeping before the people all the time in local and editorial notice, the colonist rates, giving all the state an opportunity to write the facts to their friends, and this of itself added very considerably to the number of new citizens who are now in Oregon to stay.

The fruit crop of Oregon during the coming season promises to be especially large, and as a result of the freezing weather in the middle west, the market will be active and prices high, bringing Oregon's fruit growing capabilities to the front in a most forceful way.

Portland, during the month of April, will exceed by more than $5,000,000, the building record of any other month in the history of the city.

Oregon has again been honored through the appointment of Mr. Isaac A. Manning, who has been active in the work of the Portland Commercial Club and Oregon Development League in advertising Oregon. Mr. Manning goes to Cartagena, Columbia, South America, and he will not overlook an opportunity to extend the trade of this state.

The Portland Business Men's Excursion, which will be most thoroughly representative of the best business interests of the metropolis, will make stops at 33 Oregon and five Idaho cities and towns, and consume six days. They leave Monday, May 6, at 8:30 a. m., and return the following Sunday morning.

A general meeting of the Oregon Development League is being discussed for some time in June, the exact date not yet decided upon, at which a plan will be discussed and decided upon that will give to the State of Oregon, every possible advantage than can accrue through the colonist rates which will begin September 1 and close October 31. These rates are the same as those which ruled during March and April and resulted in bringing so many thousands of people to the state.

One of the Important Duties of Physicians and the Well-Informed of the World is to learn as to the relative standing and reliability of the leading manufacturers of medicinal agents, as the most eminent physicians are the most careful as to the uniform quality and perfect purity of remedies prescribed by them, and it is well known to physicians and the Well-Informed generally that the California Fig Syrup Co., by reason of its correct methods and perfect equipment and the ethical character of its product has attained to the high standing in scientific and commercial circles which is accorded to successful and reliable houses only, and, therefore, that the name of the Company has become a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy.

TRUTH AND QUALITY

appeal to the Well-Informed in every walk of life and are essential to permanent success and creditable standing, therefore we wish to call the attention of all who would enjoy good health, with its blessings, to the fact that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and the use of medicines dispensed with generally to great advantage, but as in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time, the California Fig Syrup Co. feels that it is alike important to present truthfully the subject and to supply the one perfect laxative remedy which has won the approval of physicians and the world-wide acceptance of the Well-Informed because of the excellence of the combination, known to all, and the original method of manufacture, which is known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs—and to get its beneficial effects always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. and the same heretofore known by the name—Syrup of Figs—which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., that the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

REV. J. H. LEIPER

For about 15 years I had been afflicted with Eczema and had tried many remedies to very little purpose, and no cure. Somewhat in desperation, I tried D. D. D. I was soon convinced before the bottle was half empty that I had at last found medicine that was not a deception. I persevered. Now I have a little left of a third bottle and am entirely cured of the Eczema, and for seven months have had no symptoms of its return.

The annoyance was so great and long-continued, and the cure so complete that I feel it my duty to make known the above facts to the public that others similarly afflicted may make trial of this remedy.

DIED AT DAWN.

Spirit of Miss Ruby Crohn Takes Flight As She Sleeps.

Yesterday morning just after day-break, and, apparently, without disturbing her placid sleep, the spirit of Miss Ruby Crohn, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Crohn, of this city, departed from the frail body of the young girl who has battled bravely for the past year against the encroachments of the dread malady of tuberculosis. The news was received all over the city with genuine sorrow, for she was widely and most happily known as one of the clever and charming children of the city; and the hope was abroad that her recent stay in California might have contributed to her ultimate escape from the mortal grasp of the disease.

She had but lately returned from the South, in company with her father, and while not as well as all hoped for, was cheerful and contented and glad to be back among those who prized her and whom she loved. Her devoted parents had left nothing undone to prolong the life that was so precious to them, and they have the profound sympathy of a host of friends in the sad outcome of the grave disorder.

The remains were taken to the metropolis on last evening's express, and will be buried there today under the ritual of the Hebrew faith and interment will be had in the cemetery of that faith there.

The friends and schoolmates of the young girl left nothing undone yesterday to mark the love and esteem in which they held Ruby, and the floral tributes of sympathy were very numerous and beautiful, and were intensely appreciated by the family. The young decedent was but 17 years of age on the 4th of March last, and was unusually bright and possessed many notable and lovely traits of character that might have embellished the womanhood that was denied her and which will but serve now to enrich the memory that all who knew her will cherish through the years.

OLD RECORD UNEARTHED.

Dr. Owens-Adair Brings In An Interesting Record of Ancient Date.

Dr. Owens-Adair has always an eager eye for the signs and signals of the olden time in Clatsop and treasures each as she comes across it for the memories it invokes of the stalwart and gracious people who did the pioneer work upon which the county and city is so well founded. Her latest contribution to the early evidences of this sort, is the record of a meeting called on Clatsop Plains back in 1851, which reads as follows, and may bring to the minds of some of the patriarchal few, the cause and occasion of the record:

"Pursuant to public notice, the citizens of Clatsop Plains met at the dwelling house of Thomas Owens, on the 25th February, 1851, for the purpose of organizing two school districts, from the center of Tibbett's claim to the mill at the lower end of the Plains, inclusive.

"On motion John Robinson was called to the chair.

"And on motion T. P. Powers was called to act as secretary.

"Mr. Motley moved that the northern line of the south district be upon the south line of Mr. McDonald's claim.

"Above motion so amended as to make the center of John Jewett's claim the north boundary and the south line of the Mull claim the south boundary of the south school district, the lines running east and west.

"The vote being taken on the motion as amended, was decided in the affirmative.

"On motion the meeting adjourned.

"(Signed), JOHN ROBINSON, Chairman.

"(Signed), T. P. POWERS, Secretary."
