

SKIN TORTURES AFFLICT CHILDREN

Obstinate Case of Eczema Covered Little Girl's Limbs with Running Sores—Poison Oak Made Boy's Hands and Arms a Mass of Torturing Sores—Sufferers Soon Relieved and Completely Cured—Grateful Mother Says:

"CUTICURA REMEDIES A HOUSEHOLD STANDBY"

"Last year, after having my little girl treated by a very prominent physician for an obstinate case of eczema, I resorted to the Cuticura Remedies, and was so well pleased with the almost instantaneous relief afforded that we discarded the physician's prescription and relied entirely on the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Pills. When we commenced with the Cuticura Remedies her feet and limbs were covered with running sores. In about six weeks we had her completely well, and there has been no recurrence of the trouble. "In July of this year a little boy in our family poisoned his hands and arms with poison oak, and in twenty-four hours his hands and arms were a mass of torturing sores. We used only the Cuticura Remedies, washing his hands and arms with the Cuticura Soap, and anointing them with the Cuticura Ointment, and then gave him the Cuticura Resolvent. In about three weeks his hands and arms healed up. So we have lots of cause for feeling grateful for the Cuticura Remedies. We find that the Cuticura Remedies are a valuable household standby, living as we do twelve miles from a doctor. Mrs. Lizzie Vincent Thomas, Fairmount, Walden's Ridge, Tenn., Oct. 13, 1905."

A FATAL QUARREL

Proprietor Kills Cook in Restrained Brawl.

AFTER FATALLY WOUNDED

Cook Plunged Butcher Knife Through Proprietor's Body—The Latter Secured Revolver and Shot the Cook—The Cook Died in the Hospital.

CHICAGO, May 2.—J. E. Burgeson, owner of a restaurant, killed his cook, Alfred Beaumont, yesterday, when the place was filled with patrons. Beaumont who is said to have been in the kitchen and after Burgeson turned to leave Beaumont thrust a knife into his back. Burgeson ran from the kitchen with the big butcher knife sticking entirely through his body. Beaumont stopped to pick up another knife and then ran after Burgeson, who had reached his counter and got his revolver. A waiter pulled the knife from Burgeson's body as he ran past him. As Beaumont resumed the attack Burgeson fired four shots at him, three bullets taking effect. Both men dropped to the floor. Beaumont was taken to the County hospital, where he died two hours later. Burgeson was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, where physicians said he probably would die. Both men were married.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. For sale by Frank Hart, and Leading Druggists.

This position is a new one. Mr. Kouns in his new position will continue at the head of the transportation department.

CHILL IS SULKING

Wants More Dignified Representation at Washington.

EQUAL TO THAT OF BRAZIL

Caused Upheaval in South American Affairs and Request Was Turned Down by the Government—Meant Promotions in Diplomatic Corps Too.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—In spite of Secretary Root's recent visit, in spite of Andrew Carnegie's gift of several hundreds of thousands of dollars for the building of a great peace palace for the Bureau of American Republics, all is not in harmony between the Latin-American republics and the United States. Scarcely had Secretary Root returned with words of praise for all he saw below the equator, before Nicaragua and Honduras fell out over a lowly mule and resorted to fistcuts, Uncle Sam is preparing to spank them. Now it is Chili that has caused the rift in the lute. Chili is sulky. The long-drawn-out republic that takes up so much of the space on the western coast of South America, believes it is entitled to more of a dignified representation here in Washington than it has enjoyed in the past. Grateful under the ovation given him at Valparaiso and Santiago, Secretary Root lent a willing ear to the Chilian appeal, and prospects seemed bright that the little republic would gain its ends. Then there was trouble. Brazil is the only South American nation that has been deemed of sufficient importance in the past to entitle it to the honors of an embassy here. When Chili strove to get into the Brazilian class there was an uproar in South America that rocked the Andes and made the mighty Amazon run backward in its channel. Cries of "Caramba!" rang from peak to peak and protests piled up in Washington. Then negotiations took a sudden drop. Secretary Root shook off the enervating effects of his southern trip and intimated politely and diplomatically to Chili that its requests, much as he regretted, scarcely could be complied with at this time, whereupon Chili, who had withdrawn its minister, Senor Waller Martinez, to take part in the Pan-American Conclave by falling either to permit him to return or to appoint a successor, a result of the disappointment Chili is maintaining merely a hollow show of representation, and Alberto Yocham, secretary of the legation, is twiddling his thumbs over a featureless job and wondering how long the position will last. The disappointment, however, was not entirely confined to Chili and its representatives. It was believed in diplomatic circles that the raising of the Chilian legation to an embassy and the sending of an ambassador to the Chilian capital would mean a general shake-up in the United States diplomatic service, and consequently a number of promotions. It was generally conceded that the post of Chilian ambassador would have gone to Herbert G. Squiers, the present minister to Panama, for his record practically entitled him to the new berth, had it been created. Minister Squires, who left the army in 1891 to enter the diplomatic service, has had a stirring career. He first served in the embassy at Berlin and in 1898 was assigned to the legation on at Pekin. During the siege of that city by the Boxers he was made chief of staff to Sir Claude MacDonald, and for his services in protecting the foreign legations he was warmly thanked by the British government. From 1902 to 1905 he was minister to Cuba. But all this does not console those who are disappointed by the hoped-for promotions in the diplomatic service. Calle is not the only one that is sulking.

NEAR BANKRUPTCY.

Stories of Pauperism Used as Plea for Clemency.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Tales of near bankruptcy and corporate pauperism were unfolded before Judge Landis in the Federal Court yesterday by Representatives of the School Desk and Church Pew Company, which recently entered pleas of not contendere to indictments of violating the anti-trust laws. The companies sought clemency at the hands of the court and their stories of the lean years may have an effect in reducing punishment. Judge Landis reserved decision for several days. According to these stories there is little or no money in the manufacturing of school desks or church pews. The combination was formed a year ago, but before the government stepped in and killed the giant forces of competition on the one hand and the high price of raw material on the other hand, all but choked the life from the struggling infant trust.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over two months." For sale by Frank Hart and Leading Druggists.

RELIEVE CONGESTION.

Chicago Commercial Club Will Endeavor to Solve the Problem.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Effective work on the plans for relieving the congestion and improving the physical appearance of downtown Chicago was undertaken by the Commercial Club's railroad terminal committee, of which Joy Morton is chairman. The committee discussed the transportation problem of the loop district with the city's traction experts, and representatives of the city railroads. The traction men and the leaders of the movement for a greater Chicago reached an agreement to work out a downtown transportation system that will induce the railroads to retire their terminals to the outskirts of the business quarter.

KILLED BY ROBBERS.

Chicago Highwaymen Do Murder After Robbing Victim.

CHICAGO, May 2.—The first murder of the prolonged holdup season was reported early today from South Chicago. Highwaymen shot and killed Charles Lindley, a machinist 23 years old. Lindley was on his way home when he was stopped by two men who were seen running away after the shooting. It is supposed they were robbers, as Lindley's coat pockets were turned inside out. When the police reached him he was unconscious, and died in the patrol wagon on the way to the hospital.
