ASTORIA BOHEMIANS LOSE GAME

LOCALS SHOW GOOD MATERIAL BUT LACK OF PRACTICE AND NUMEROUS FUMBLES BRING DEFEAT.

In the opening game of the Tri-City League series Sunday afternoon the Astoria Bohemians went down in defeat to the North Pacific Brewing Company's aggregation of stick twirlers from Portland. At the end of the game the score stood 10 to 2 with the visitors at the big end. The game was uneventful and was particularly marked by the bad playing on both sides. Astoria picked up two scores early in the game and gave indications of making a warm contest but a few bad fumbles gave the Portland bunch scores at various points in the game. Lack of practice was evidenced by both teams and fumbling of the ball made the exhibition a good deal on the ragged order.

In the last inning the locals ran in another score just to keep the final record from showing up too badly.

While the opening game was somewhat to the bad in the way of an exhibition of fine diamond work it was not so surprising to the wise ones who understood the inmost workings of the game. Few teams start out as well as could perhaps be expected. Lack of interest has something to do in the matter as well as many other things. The players are not yet warmed up to their work and it is regular and interested practice that make the games all they should be. The Bohemians are resolved to make the strongest kind of a race for the championship and will work to this end from now on. They will be on the diamond for practice regularly three times a week and hope to attain a degree of proficiency that will make victory sure. They have the true idea of sportsmanship which laughs at defeat and hails disaster with the ever-victorious slogan of "better luck next time." With the training of a few more tryouts the boys will grasp their war clubs and sally forth to wreak vengeance for their first defeat on the next corners of the league series. With the exception of the anticipated victory everything went off by schedule. The Portland players came down with colors flying and accompanied by a large bunch of enthusiastic rooters. They were welcomed with open arms at the train by local fans and members and representatives of the Bohemian team. They were taken to the Occident hotel for dinner, from which point the parade started before the game. The procession proceeded in state through the main streets, after which the entire crowd adjourned to the grounds.

The next game of the Bohemians will be played on the local grounds Sunday, May 13th, against the Brainerd baseball artists. Here's hoping the visitors come off second best.

FOR SERVICE AND CONVENIENC

The prime essential of a business establishment is to have it open for the purposes of business when it is needed; not closed by custom nor any rule of hours. This essential attaches to the drug store of Dr. C. E. Linton at 185 Eleventh street, which is open every one of the 24 hours in the day; and with a stock that meets every requirement likely to arise in that time. It is one of the exceptions and is thoroughly endorsed.

Save Your Slips

Whether you buy 10 cents or a dollar's worth in Wise's clothing store, save your slips, and when you have $5 worth you get a Piano number free. Be sure and ask for your number for the next dance and piano contest for Wise's customers.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

It makes all the difference in the world to the convivial man where, and what, he drinks. Most men desire beauty and cleanliness, and handsome appointments in the saloon they patronize regularly, as well as the essential pre-requisite of genuine wines and liquors that are served to them. And these things are so particularly and properly conspicuous at Otto Sund's elegant resort, the Commercial, at No. 509 on the street of that name that they account thoroughly for the fixed and splendid custom he enjoys. There is nothing allowed to pass his counter but the best and choicest in every department of indulgence, and the service behind it all, is the most pleasing and satisfying in the city.
