MAKES A SUCCESS AT IT TOO.

Tells a Woman Customer Many Nice Things About Herself, and She Compliments Him Highly-No Poorhouse For Hans Just Yet.

[Copyright, 1907, by M. M. Cunningham.] Dot leetle German tailor comes into my shop der odder day vhen I don't haf much to do und looks around und says to me:

"Hans, gif her oop."

"Vhat vhas it?" I says. "Gif oop der cobbler peesness und go back to Germany. You don't understands der American peoples und can neffer get along here."

"But can I make a man come to my shop if he don't want to?"

"Of course you can. Dot vhas der secret of sooccess. Dot vhas der way I make all my money und vhas now a "Cobbler, dose shoes need fixing oop, und I brings 'em to you. Vhat foolishness vhas dis about palmistry?"

"It vhas no foolishness at all,"

"Do you mean dot you can tell me somet'ings by my palm?"

"Certainly!' Let me haf your band Ah! Your wife vhas dead und you vhas thinking of marrying again."

"Come, now," he says as he gets red in der face. "Some one around here tells you dot my wife dies two years Bgo."

"Not at all I see it in your hand. You shall marry again before six months. She vhas an awful nice woman. She makes you very happy. Dot whos all."

"It vhas foolishness, of course," he says mit a laugh. But when he gie out he says dot be whill putronize in: shop right along after dis."

I don't belief be whas around'der con ner vien a womans mit two pairs of shoes comes in. She runs so fast dot she can hardly speak.

"Oh, cobbler, but you don't mean it? she says.

"She vhas all right, ma'am."

"Vhere you learn it?"

"In der Black forest, in Germany." "Oh! I never see dot kind before. Here vhas my hand. Tell me how she vhas."

"Madam," I says after looking at her band about a minute, "you vhas admired by many men."

"How foolish! Ha, ha, ha!" she

"Your husband vhas a good mans, but he vhas too slow. He don't half appreciate you." "Tush! Tush!"

"You should haf been der wife of a gentleman und a rich mans. You should hat diamonds und a big house und go to Europe. You should be out in society, where all can see und admire. I belief dot more ash one hoopdered men in dis city admire you."

"You must not talk such things," she says, mit a laugh und a blush. "Vheil. I shall bring in more shoes. I see it vhas true dot you vhas a good mans und a Christian."

She goes out mit a goodby, but in a minute she comes back und says: "By der vhay, don't speak to somebody about me.' "Of course not." Calls Palmistry a Fake.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rbeumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over two months." ### DOYOURCHILDREN QUESTIONS

Of course they do. It is their way of learning and it is your duty to answer. You may need a dictionary to aid you. It won't answer every question, but there are thousands to which it will give you true, clear and definite answers, not about words only, but about things, the sun, men, machinery, places, stories and the like. Then, too, the children can find their own answers. Some of our greatest men have ascribed their power to study of the dictionary.

Of course you want the best dic tionary. The most critical prefer the New and Enlarged Edition of

WEBSTER'S NTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY THE GRAND PRIZE (HIGHEST AWARD) for which was given at the World's Fair, St. Louis. If you have any question about it write us.
