Elias Garding of the Norwegian-Danish church followed. Several other speeches were made and communications read from various reform committees of the city. Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

THE GOVERNOR WILL NAME PORT BOARD

THE NAMES GIVEN BY PORTLAND OREGONIAN ARE PROBABLY CORRECT BUT OTHER FACTS ARE ERRONEOUS.

The bill creating the Port of Columbia with its attendant benefits to Portland, will, if the desires of Portland are to be gratified, go into effect on the 24th of May. That is next Friday. And on that day the Governor will appoint five commissioners, whose names follow: Dr. Andrew C. Smith, R. D. Inman and J. C. Alasworth, of Portland, for Multnomah County; W. D. Plue of Columbia City, and Sam H. Elmore of Astoria, for Clatsop County. The Oregonian states that Frank J. Taylor, of Astoria, will file a suit to test the constitutionality of the act creating the port of Columbia, and that he will appear as plaintiff for the people of Clatsop County and will be represented by the firm of Dolph, Mal-lory, Simon & Gearin, of Portland. This, of course, is entirely erroneous and, as a matter of fact, the firm of which Mr. Taylor is a member—i. e., Taylor, Fulton & Hamilton—are instructed to act for Clatsop County in the matter, entirely independently of Multnomah County, or any law firm in Portland. And furthermore the constitutionality of the act will be tested to the utmost and no rein whatever will be given to Multnomah County or the firm representing it.
