UNITING CENTRAL AMERICA. Consul General of Costa Rica Does Not Believe It Feasible.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Dr. Juan J. Ulloa, consul general of Costa Rica in this city, has made public a statement regarding Central America, wherein he points out the impracticability of the proposed confederation of the six republics, Guatemala, Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and Panama. He says: "If we were all well adapted to the change of political existence, it would undoubtedly be a blessing to the six states, whose small size is the strong argument used nowadays to declare that they are always in the wrong. I do not care to enter into the discussion of several political topics, which would give a clear insight into the question, but I do not wish to wound the susceptibility of someone who does not understand my true intentions, but suffice it to say that we are not prepared yet to form a sole republic in Central America and that this task has to be accomplished by properly directed education, by an assimilation of laws and currency and by a well established system of interstate railroads and telegraphs."

Dr. Ulloa expresses the opinion that as things stand today the experiment of uniting these countries would be an unfortunate one and well thinking Central Americans would not look favorably on the subject.

MADRID, May 23.—King Alfonso is negotiating for an island in Northern Spain where he proposes to build a summer residence, lay out a farm and breed thoroughbred cattle. The Queen is taking a keen interest in the project and anticipates with pleasure summer holidays under the conditions she was familiar with in England.

SILVER FIREMEN

Fought Fire in House Where Sick Boy Lay.

CARRIED BOY TO SAFETY

Wrapped Him in Blankets and Carried Him to Another Part of House and Extinguished Fire Without Noise or Disturbing Him.

CHICAGO, May 23.—No shouting, no clanging of gongs, no clamor that is usually attached to a fire, attended the fighting of a blaze in the home of Mrs. George L. Bradbury yesterday, for a little boy lay near to death there. Firemen fought the flames in silence. Orders were issued in a whisper. The heavy booted man crept about the house on tip toe. Although smoke filled the residence and hasty action was compulsory in the short struggle with the fire, there was little more noise in the structure than there would have been had nothing happened.

The stricken boy is George L. Bradbury. He is the seven-year-old son of the late George L. Bradbury, for many years president of the Lake Erie & Western Railway.

When the fire broke out the child lay in a room not far away from danger. A woman in the residence sent in a still alarm by telephone, requesting that the firemen be as quiet as possible. The clang of gongs ceased as soon as the trucks neared the residence. The firemen entered the structure quietly.

They wrapped the boy in warm blankets and carried him to a safe portion of the residence so quickly and quietly that he was not disturbed. The work of quenching the flames was done in short order.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over two months." For sale by Frank Hart and Leading Druggists.
