MEETING OF GRAND LODGE I. O. O. F.

MEETING HELD AT LA GRANDE—DELEGATES TREATED ROYALLY BY THE CITIZENS—IMPORTANT AMENDMENTS WERE ADOPTED.

City Auditor Anderson has returned from attending the grand lodge of the I. O. O. F., of Oregon, at La Grande, where he was appointed chairman of the committee on finance for the session. The city auditor brings the news that the meeting just held was the most successful and enjoyable of any during the past nine years that he has attended the grand lodge as a delegate. The gain of the order during the past year is the largest in the history of the lodge. Several important amendments to the constitution were adopted among which was the reduction of representation, hereafter there will be allowed one delegate for the chapter and one for every full fifty members, eliminating the fractions as allowed before. An amendment was also passed prohibiting any public dances being given under the auspices of the Odd Fellows. The next meeting of the grand lodge will be at Salem.

Mr. Anderson had many pleasant things to say of the treatment received and of the City of La Grande. Among the things he noticed was the character of the buildings. La Grande has a fire limit and within this limit no wooden buildings are permitted to be erected, consequently the city has many fine substantial brick and stone buildings. Also that La Grande was becoming the center of a great Mormon colony who are buying up available land and are developing the beet sugar industry establishing sawmills and other industries.

James W. Welch, Astoria's other delegate, did not return with the city auditor, the Grande Ronde Valley being Mrs. Welch's old home, they decided to remain for a day or two and will probably return on Tuesday.

THEODORE TILTON DIES.

PARIS, May 25.—Theodore Tilton died in this city this afternoon. He was unconscious for hours before he passed away. Tilton's last illness was very brief, last Wednesday he took his customary walk, and when he returned, mounted five flights of stairs to the apartment of Miss Fuller, where he resides, he then complained of fatigue and went to bed. A physician diagnosed his illness as pneumonia.

No definite arrangements, regarding the funeral have as yet been made except the service to be held Monday in the American church. Tilton's children are in America and will decide whether his body will be shipped to the United States or not.

Two Schooners Out and Two in Together With a Couple of Steamers Help to Liven Up Matters On the Waterfront Other Marine Notes.

It is reported by Captain Johnson of the Lillebonne which arrived in the river yesterday that the gasoline schooner Anita, which used to ply in Astorian waters four years ago, is now engaged in the coastwise trade in the Philippines.

The little three-masted schooner Lillebonne arrived in the river yesterday morning. She has been expected for some time and was awaited rather anxiously. The schooner left Manila on March 7th, so consequently was 79 days making the passage which is to say the least a good deal more than the average. Captain Johnson says that although no startling incidents of any kind occurred on the voyage, still there were a lot of little things constantly happening which contributed to delay. The ship encountered typhoons in the China Sea and in her condition she was in no case to take them as they came, and make the best of them, but, in the expressive language of the captain, "She had to be nursed through them like a sick child." Four years in the coastwise trade of the Philippines is not conducive to the best up-keep and condition of any vessel, and, like the rest, the Lillebonne suffered from lack of proper attention, proper repairs and so forth. There are no skilled ship carpenters or caulkers or repair men of any kind in the Islands. Then an entirely native crew, none of whom had made an ocean voyage, was not helpful to the best results. However, the little schooner weathered everything and all that she lost was a goat. Her jibboom went in one storm, but that did not phase Captain Johnson. What troubled him most was that he was the only man who could speak English on the ship, and that he ran short of tobacco except Manila cigars! The captain reports great activity in Manila, business is brisk, and there is lots of work—notably on the government dock construction. The Lillebonne is owned by F. M. Harrison & Company, of Portland. She is the only boat they own and is reported to be for sale. She brought no cargo, except one writing desk, billed to the Pacific Lumber Exporting Company of Portland; the rest was ballast.

The whole business is clever fresh and up-to-date, and, remember, it costs only 5 cents.

WALDORF CONCERT HALL.

There is an excellent Cinematograph exhibition at the Waldorf Concert Hall just now. The first series of pictures show some very interesting features of Japanese life—depicting amongst other things the curious methods the Japs have of doing their hair, some quaint skirt dancing, and many other effects. The next series shows the difficulties and amusing incidents which beset a couple who desirous of changing their lodgings set out in search of a new habitation. The scenes are most laughable and the many mishaps which befall the couple are excruciatingly funny until the pair resolve to return to their old home. This exhibition is well worth seeing.

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE.

It makes all the difference in the world to the convivial man where, and what, he drinks. Most men desire beauty and cleanliness, and handsome appointments in the saloon they patronize regularly, as well as the essential pre-requisite of genuine wines and liquors that are served to them. And these things are so particularly and properly conspicuous at Otto Sund's elegant resort, the Commercial, at No. 509 on the street of that name that they account thoroughly for the fixed and splendid custom he enjoys. There is nothing allowed to pass his counter but the best and choicest in every department of indulgence, and the service behind it all, is the most pleasing and satisfying in the city.

Scuffer" and are the very epitome of good wear and real comfort. They are going like wild-fire and the kids themselves are after them because they look so "comfy."

If a man knows anything of his own anatomy he must be aware that his stomach is a magnificent organ and entitled to the utmost consideration: knowing that he will eat at the Palace when he can conserve its safety and comfort, by eating only the best cooked, best served and most compensating meal in the city of Astoria. day, or night, it is always the same, and the Palace habit is one that pays to acquire.
