J. J. HILL IS COY

He Does Not Care for Limelight Anymore.

BLAMES THE NEWSPAPERS

Refused To Express His Views On the Country Generally and Insisted On Walking To Station-Officials Hold Train Till He Arrives.

CHICAGO, June 12.-The Herald Record today says: James J. Hill is cultivating a shrinkage disposition.

He arrived in Chicago from St. Paul had his private car switched over to the Erie and departed for New York shortly afterward.

When asked to give his views on the condition of the country generally, he shied like a green filly at a piece of paper in the road.

"No, No," he said hastily, "I want to keep out of the papers entirely. I do not want to be in the limelight anymore."

"This is so sudden," was suggested. Mr. Hill shot a suspicious glance at the reporter and retorted:

"The fool, the fool newspapers are to blame." "What have they been doing now?" was asked.

They go and print something which they know to be true and in favor of the railroads and then some darn fool editorial writer puts a piece in the paper poking fun at the railroad man who said it. I suppose they think that's smart.

"What do you think of the threatened crop shortage?" "Didn't know there was one. It's a long time between wheat two inches out of the ground and the half bushel measure."

"Are we going to have a panic?" "I don't know, but I do know of railroads which are paying six percent dividends and are only earning five percent."

"What do you think of railroad regulation?" "Havent read it. Havent read anything. Been too busy trying to get enough business to offset the government plans."

It was ten minutes of train time when Mr. Hill left the Burlington general offices at Franklin and Adams streets. He is democratic and wanted to walk to the Polk Street Depot.

"Havent got time," suggested Vice president Miller.

"We'll take time," was the rejoinder. Second vice-president Willard phoned the Erie superintendent instructed him to hold the train until Mr. Hill could take his morning walk.

Russell Hopkins is the wealthy young banker of Atlanta, who caused a sensation last fall by his elopement with Miss Vera Siegrist of this city.

The Magic No. 3

Number three, is a wonderful mascot for George H. Parris, of Cedar Grove, Me., according to a letter which reads: "After suffering much with liver and kidney trouble, and becoming greatly discouraged by the failure to find relief, I tried Electric Bitters, and as a result I am a well man today. The first bottle relieved and three bottles completed the cure." Guaranteed best on earth for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Charles Rogers, druggist, 50c.

JAMES R. KEENE'S WINNINGS.

NEW YORK, June 12.-The gross winnings of the racing stables of James R. Keene for the season of 1907 so far elapsed, has passed the $100,000 mark. The Keene horses in the time since the New York racing year opened at the Aqueduct on April 15, on a total of $101,046.25. The total is a record for the season on the American turf and with so large a sum already to the credit of the Keene horses and most of the stakes still to be run for, it is well within the probabilities that the Keene stable may establish a new record for the turf in America.

Peter Pan, Colin and Superman, sons of Mr. Keene's dead stallion, Command, are the largest individual winners for Mr. Keene.
