3500 CHILDREN MADE HAPPY

New York and Chicago Motorist Contributed Cars To Carry Little Ones To Pleasure Resorts—Have a Good Time Despite Inclement Weather.

NEW YORK, June 13.—More than 2500 orphans of Manhattan and Brooklyn were made happy yesterday by a trip to Coney Island and the guests of the New York Motor Club, and the Long Island Auto Association. Three hundred motor cars loaned by the various companies and private individuals were used, to export the young visitors to and from the island. Mrs. John Jacob Astor, John W. Gates and many other wealthy persons contributed cars.

CHICAGO, June 13.—For the first time in their lives 1000 or more orphan children went automobile yesterday. The weather was cold and rainy, but it did not chill the enthusiasm of the charges of a score of charitable institutions who have been invited out for a spin by 100 members of the Auto club and the dealers association. The autos called for the children at their residence—various orphan homes—and whisked them down to Park Row, where the parade formed two cars abreast and proceeded in an imposing column to a South side amusement resort. There the little guests frolicked for an hour or more and were whisked home again.

NEW RATE MEANS LOSS.

Sunset Logging Company Asks That Old Rate Be Restored.

SALEM, Or., June 13.—A petition has been received from the Sunset Logging Company by the Railroad Commission asking that the old rate upon shipments of logs and lumber, recently reduced by the commission upon complaint of the Keystone Lumber Company from $15 and $12 and $12 and $10, respectively, be restored, because the latter rate is ruinous to the company's business, since it will not pay operating expenses. The company says it has shut down its own lumbering and logging business and it will lose in freight to the amount of $25,000,000 feet per year if the new rate is insisted upon. The Keystone Lumber Company is given five days' time by the commission to answer the petition.

ORCHARD SHEDS TEARS

After having occupied it for a total of 32 1/2 hours. Just before he was excused and remanded he went back into the hands of the prosecution and identified the casing of the bomb, he planted at the gate of Judge Goldard's house in Denver. Orchard is to return to the witness chair later because the defense must lay formal lines for impeaching him and the state must still have its re-direct examination.

When Orchard left the stand the state began the corroboration of the Bradley poisoning story. Mrs. Sadie Swan, who was Miss Sadie Bell, was the maid in the Bradley family. Oliver Crook, the milkman, who sold the milk that was poisoned and P. L. McCreary, the chemist who analyzed the poisoned milk, carried the revolting tale through to the analysis, that showed from 40 to 60 grains of strychnine in a quart of it. Mrs. Swan identified Orchard and connected him with the house, they all confirmed the date as within three or four days of the explosion and Mrs. Swan swore she opened the front door to get the morning paper a few minutes before the explosion and saw nothing on the steps. There will be no further testimony as to the Bradley incident tomorrow.

Immediately after the noon recess, former Governor Peabody met Orchard in the office of the counsel for the prosecution. The meeting was unexpected as far as Orchard was concerned and when he saw Peabody advancing toward him, with outstretched hand he blanched and began to tremble. "I am ashamed to speak to you Governor; I am ashamed to look at you," faltered Orchard. "That's all right," said Peabody, laughing. "You need not be ashamed to speak to me now." Orchard began crying and when Peabody had succeeded in quieting him said: "I am glad I did not kill you, I am spared the thought of that crime at least." Orchard and Peabody spent 15 or 20 minutes together and parted in a friendly way.

S. S. OHIO STRIKES ON THE ICE

TERRIFIC PANIC ENSUES AND THREE ARE DROWNED—THE VESSEL IS SINKING RAPIDLY IN THE HARBOR.

SEATTLE, June 13.—A special to the Times from Nome says:

The steamship Ohio, owned by the White Star Steamship Company, struck on the ice at Port Safety at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, with loss of life to two white men and one Chinaman, and great damage to the ship. A huge hole was stove in the Ohio's bow and she began to fill rapidly. A terrific panic ensued, during which the davit lines were cut and the lifeboats dropped and a number of occupants thrown into the sea. In all, 75 persons jumped from the ship or were precipitated from lifeboats onto the ice and in the water. Of the two white men drowned, the name of only one, Otto Anderson, has been learned.

The ship's officers were cool, but worked rather slowly. Only for the efforts of Captain Brown, First Mate Frank Mills, Chief Engineer E. L. Raymond and Purser Allen, a disastrous loss of life might have resulted. Passengers and crew became greatly excited, and a mad rush for the boats followed the grounding of the ship. By closing the bulkheads of compartments 1 and 2, the officers of the ship did much toward saving the craft and the lives of her passengers.

When order had been restored, the Ohio was backed off the ice and returned to Nome, badly damaged. At a late hour last night she was sinking rapidly in the roadstead, her position being a most precarious one. A committee has been appointed by Captain Brown to survey the ship.

Captain Peter Jordan of this city received a telegram this morning from his son, Chester, from Nome, dated Wednesday. It read as follows:

"Shipwrecked—Landed at Nome safe and well."

He had sailed from Seattle a couple of weeks ago on the steamship Ohio for Nome, and his telegram was the first intimation reaching this city that the vessel had been wrecked. The telegram was evidently to allay alarm as to his safety.
