PRESIDENT ELLIOTT COMES THURSDAY

TO DISCUSS WITH CHAMBER MATTERS OF IMPORTANCE AND HIS VISIT MAY PROVE AN IMPORTANT EVENT.

Perhaps the most important piece of news to Astoria and all of her interests of whatever kind that has recently developed, is the announcement which comes from the Chamber of Commerce may confer with President Howard Elliott of the Northern Pacific in his private car here in Astoria next Thursday morning.

A number of matters will be taken up directly with Mr. Elliott and threshed out with him first-handed. From Mr. Elliott there can be no appeal and inasmuch as he is interested enough in Astoria to come here and personally grant a considerable portion of his valuable time to the interests of Astoria, it means probably that Astoria and the Northern Pacific Railroad, the Hill interests, may get together close enough to work out some mighty problems greatly to the interest and advantage of both Astoria and the Northern Pacific.

It is a well known fact that the Harriman Railroad interests have recently been getting a very large part of the wheat and our tonnage of the Northwest into Portland. Mr. Hill is nothing if not alert and Mr. Elliott is just as alert and just as active as his great chief. Hence his visit to Astoria at this time most likely means that Astoria may look forward to such important improvement as the best of terminal and belt railroad facilities; wheat elevators and freight warehouses; common point wheat and grain rates; and co-operation in her great undertaking to build a seawall along the river front and to level down the hills so as to fill in the piled part of the city to a ground level. It is not probable that this undertaking can be done in any other manner than through a bond issue but it is not yet opportune, perhaps to discuss this big proposition too much in detail.

Traveling Freight and Passenger Agent Springer of the Hill Roads was in Astoria last Friday and talked over a number of the details preparatory to the visit of President Elliott. A telegram was received last night by Manager Whyte from President Elliott saying that he would be in Astoria Thursday morning at which time he would grant the interview and give time and attention sufficient to discuss a number of important details.

While it is of course impossible to say what the results of this meeting may be, yet it seems that nothing but good can come of it and that it may prove the most important event in recent years so far as the commercial interests of Astoria are concerned.

A NEW REGULATION FOR CHINESE

IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT RECEIVES NOTICE OF NEW REGULATION WHICH MODIFIES LAW OF CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

The immigration department in Astoria yesterday received a circular letter from the head office which gives notice of a new regulation to be put in force, in the immigration department and which affects the Chinese immigrants into this country and to a certain extent modifies the present regulations in force with regard to the Chinese exclusion act. The letter notifies the inspector that in the future at the examination of Chinese immigrants, counsel for the immigrant and an interpreter approved by counsel shall be allowed to be present. Neither counsel nor interpreter will be allowed to take any part in the proceedings; they will merely hold a watching brief so to speak. But if at any time there shall be any dispute as to the correct construction on the part of the court interpreter of Chinese phrases and idioms at the examination, the Chinaman's interpreter may, on an appeal being taken, give his interpretation of the phrases or idioms in dispute, and a third interpreter approved by the court shall be arbiter of the matter. This gives Chinese immigrants a right they never had before.

Jennings' Brothers Arrive.— Luke and Andy Jennings, the two brothers of the man who was shot on board the Alliance Friday morning, were in town Sunday. They viewed the remains of their brother and after finding that it was too late for them to be of any use they returned by the night train home. Both brothers expressed the opinion that Cleve Jennings had been a very quiet, peaceable man, and that they had never expected him to get into any sort of trouble. They were anxious to attend the funeral at North Bend, but owing to the uncertainty as to time when this would take place they had no choice but to go home, as they had left their business at Gold Hill without anyone to take charge.

TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Bunker Hill Anniversary.— Yesterday was the anniversary of the Battle of Bunker Hill a few of the citizens remembered the date and displayed flags in front of their homes.

Naturalization.— Victor Lonberg gave notice to the country court officials yesterday that he would apply for naturalization papers on September 17. Victor Lonberg is a native of Finland.

Train Delayed.— Because of an accident to the engine of a Northern Pacific freight, which blocked the line, the Sunday night O. R. & N. train did not arrive till four hours after its schedule time yesterday morning.

A Bad Road.— Several people are complaining of the terrible condition of the road over the hill from the reservoir to Williamsport. Since the recent rains this road has become very nearly impassible—and it should certainly have immediate attention.

Fire.— A fire broke out yesterday afternoon at 1680 Grand avenue which did about $100 worth of damage. The fire is supposed to have started from a spark from the flue and it raged fiercely for a time in the attic and roof, but was eventually subdued with the hose from hose company No. 3. The house is the property of Fred Sherman and was in the occupation of J. D. Oleson. At first the conflagration was supposed to have originated in a wooden chimney, but upon examination it was found that the wooden erection was merely ornamental and terminated at its base on the roof.

To Housewives.— On Wednesday a portion of the edition of the new Cook Book to be issued by the Ladies' Guild of the Grace Episcopal Church will be ready for sale, and it will be as well for those who want a copy of a really useful and carefully arranged book to place their orders early. On looking over the pages of the Book again, it is really an exceptional treat to see what a very excellent and finished job the ladies have made of this work, and a large measure of praise is due to them. The Book should undoubtedly be in every Astorian household.

An Accident.— Mr. Mitchell of the Callender dock, sustained what might have been a very serious accident on Saturday by the breaking of the slip chain. As it is Mr. Mitchell has to limp round with the help of a stick, his ankle being very severely wrenched, and his whole body being bodily bruised. When the chain broke Mr. Mitchell was standing on the slip and was thrown on the back of his head, at the same time his left foot was caught between the side of the dock and the slip.

Baseball.— West Astoria beat Seaside on Sunday by 4 to 3. As the score shows the game was exciting from start to finish and the spectators were kept guessing all the time. It was a thoroughly good game of ball.

Diphtheria.— Another case of diphtheria has been reported to City Physician Mohn. This time it is the son of Albert Paldanus of 1293 Franklin avenue. Dr. Mohn took prompt action and the house and family are in strict quarantine.

More Baseball.— The Bohemians and St. Johns had a great game Sunday which St. Johns won by 3 to 0. The Bohemians were handicapped by the non arrival of three of their team and had to make up with substitutes. A fine return game is expected in Astoria next Sunday.

The Potter's Field.— The man's body which was found on the tide flats at Knappa Island on Saturday was given burial on Sunday. As at the time he had no identity, and no friends to claim him, all that could be done was to bury the body in the potter's field. It is possible however that now that his probable identity has been established he may be accorded a decent funeral.

Police Court.— Judge Anderson had 14 cases come up before him in Police Court yesterday, nine of whom had forfeited bail before the court opened and so only five plain drunks were the ones in the dock. They were each fined $5 or 2 days in jail and sentence was suspended owing to the fact that they had been in jail the two days.

Body Identified.— As was reported in the Morning Astorian of Saturday, May 25, a man named Lewis Henry, a Frenchman, employed by the Farrell Seining Company, was drowned the day before while attempting to pass a tow line from his row boat to a sail boat which had offered to take him in tow. The body recovered at Knappa Island on Saturday last is almost certainly identified as that of Lewis Henry. The height (5 feet 10 inches) and the description tally with that of the man found. Lewis Henry had only been working a couple of days. A reward of $20 was offered at the time by G. I. Martin, foreman of the seining grounds, for the recovery of the body.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Thomas A. Allison was over from Cathlamet yesterday.
 Frank Scott of Seaside was in town yesterday on business.
 Charles Wickstrom of Portland was a visitor in Astoria yesterday.
 District Attorney Hedges is in town attending the session of the Circuit Court.
 Mrs. James Welch has as a visitor at present, her sister, Mrs. John Clark of Island City.
 Mrs. Smith the proprietress of the Merwyn was taken to St. Marys Hospital yesterday.
 W. J. White arrived in the city yesterday. Mr. White represents the Pacific Paper Company and is here on business.
 Miss Jennie Kilman, niece of Mr. McGregor of the Alaska Packers' Association and also employed by him as his stenographer sailed by the Columbia on a San Francisco trip for a month. Her place has been taken in the interim by Miss Leahy.
Buying Launches.— It is a noteworthy fact that a great number of ranchers who have their holdings near the river are buying motor launches. Almost every day another name is added to the list of those who are possessors of these useful little craft. Many farmers are thus enabled to bring their own produce to town and at the same time to give their neighbors a lift. In this connection it is a fair question to ask why the city does not maintain a public slip, at the foot of some one street, in sufficiently deep water for the craft to ride in safety. As it is many of such craft coming in to town have to tie up where they may, and frequently at places where, at low tide they go aground and are liable to sustain damage. A public slip of this kind, would soon pay for itself and maintain a man to look after the boats, to prevent robbery, and fouling of the craft at change of tide, were but a small dockage charge made.

Fairbank's Banquet.
 All citizens desiring to attend the banquet to be given in honor of Vice-President Fairbanks at the Hotel Moore on Monday evening, July 15, under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce, are requested to signify their intention by calling upon Manager John H. Whyte in the Odd Fellows' building and signing the list. The number of places at the banquet is limited and it is urged that those who intend to be present should sign up at once.
