The Steamer Kalibia Goes Up to Humes Mill.

TWO RECORD LOADS DOWN

Hume's Mill Now Busy On Kalibia—Longshoremen Came From Portland To Load Her—All Astoria Men Busy Engaged On Tellus Across the River.

Two record-breaking lumber cargoes have cleared for China from the Clark & Wilson Lumber Company at Llanon within the month and they have, combined, taken to the Orient 7,236,500 feet of lumber, which makes a large hole in the Oregon forest. The largest deckload ever clearing from the Columbia river will be cleared today by the British ship Strathgrye. Under deck she has 2,334,673 feet, and on deck 1,084,590 feet. The Strathgrye tonnage is 2841, and although the ships appeared loaded to the guards, she did not exceed her capacity. A few days ago the Strathgryde, a sister ship belonging to the same company, held the record for the biggest deckload from this port. The Strathgryde carried under deck 3,397,000 feet, and on deck 980,554. The combined cargoes are valued approximately at $100,000.

Rock for use at the Government jetty, at the mouth of the Columbia River, will be supplied by the Columbia Contract Company, whose bid was the lowest received by Colonel S. W. Roessler yesterday. The successful bidder agreed to furnish 200,000 tons of small rock at $1.10 a ton, and 1,000,000 tons of other rock required at $1.12 a ton. The Puget Sound Bridge & Dredging Company asked $1.30 a ton for the entire lot. Work at the jetty has been resumed.

The Oregon Patrol which was receiving her finishing touches yesterday will take her preliminary center in the fish warden's service up to the Willamette. The fishing season on that river closed June the 15th and the Patrol will keep watch that the strict letter of the law is observed.

The British steamer Kalibia came in at 5:30 yesterday morning. She has gone to Hume's Mill to load lumber. Four gangs of men are hard at work on her. Captain Walker of the Kalibia says he was in Astoria 15 years ago on a sailing vessel.

The old Manzanita has become the Daniel Kern and she signalled her new baptism by running into the old Can Company's wharf. She stove a hole in her own side and did considerable damage to the wharf as well.

The steamship Roanoke which came in at 8:45 on Monday night will be down again on Friday. The captain of the vessel was sick in bed on the way up and did not show at Astoria.

This afternoon the work of loading the British ship Jordanhill. Captain Kenally, will be completed. She is still short a crew, and may not sail for Callao for several days.

The steamship Alliance will be down on Friday but Captain Oleson is coming to Astoria today to give his testimony in the Jennings' shooting case.

The Sue H. Elmore came in yesterday at 2 o'clock and the F. A. Kilburn tied up at the cannery wharf at 4 p. m.
