CHACAGO, June 27 .- A binding agree. Big Miner Contradicts Orchard's Story on Stand. CROSS---EXAMINES The Fourth is Almost Here--Defense Put Davis On Stand To Testify That He Was Not At Wardner When Bunker Hill and Columbia Mine Was Blown Up. The 127.50.0 prices are not every day prices. BOISE, Ida., June 27 .- W. F. Davis, carriers. The negotiations have thus far been carried on by railroad repre-sentatives and members of the board of he witness for the defense in the case against Wm. D. Haywood takes the hair again this morning, and Senator Borah continued the cross-examination ommenced yesterday afternoon. Orchard commenced his story of blood The new bill will hold the initial road urdling crime with the blowing up of season-all must go. the concentrator at Wardney by a mob of 1000 union men. . The mill was at that time being operated by non-union men. Orchard told with the utmost detail the story of the trip to Wardner when the miners captured a train and compelled the engineer to run it to Wardner. He said he, W. F. Davis, was one of the leaders of the mob and under cross-examination of the severest kind by the defense stuck Suits for the Boys to the story, insisting that he saw Davis on the ground and on the train. The defense put Davis, a big handsome miner and an effective witness upon the stand to contradict Orchard and tell the jury that Davis, instead of being at Wardner on that day was in fact at the town of Gem. In the direct examination yesterday Davis made an impressive statement. He told of his movements on the day of the explosion NEW YORK, June 27 .- Irving T. at Wardner, said that he did not know 1.70 Bushing, president of the Bush Termi- Orchard, did not belong to the union and nal Company, has received a black hand was not at Warner. Under Senator Borah's cross-examination the witness stuck to the story that Mr. Bushing, a reputed millionaire he was not at Wardner. He admitted that he saw the train go by with some said he believed the letter was the work 300 men on board, all wearing masks, but said he did not know any of the men that he took no interest in the fact that the train was going through under such peculiar circumstances, he could not give the name of any union man on the train. He did not know whether the men carried arms, he did not ask where they were going and when CHAS. LARSEN, Prop. the train returned in the evening he did not inquire where they had been. He heard it stated he said, that the concentrator of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan "PERSONAL WORK." mill was blown up, but he did not know how he got the information and did not New Era In Religion Sermons And Disearn until the following day that anycourses Out Of Date. one had been killed. ### BETTER RAILS MORE MONEY.

NEW YORK, June 27 .- A conference of steel rail manufacturers and the presidents of some of the most important railroads in the county will be held in the office of Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation, today for the purpose of discussing the causes of the alarming breakage of rails | death for him and his wife. recently and the serious accidents due to imperfect rails.

Steel rails now sold at $28 per ton. It is said at the meeting today the man- of a crank. ufacturers will offer to produce a much superior rail if the railroads will agree to pay $33 a ton.

It goes to the root of disease, invigorates, strengthens, exhilerates. Its lifeproducing properties are not contained Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. Frank Hart.

Shippers and Railroads To Get Together and Reach An Agreement.

UNIFORM BILL OF LADING.

ment between shippers and the railroads, dream of American commerce, in the form of a uniform bill of lading. practically has been agreed upon. Representatives of commercial interests and all the trunk lines of the country have settled upon the form of the new bill BORAH and the Interstate Commerce Commission has concurred. It will be submitted for the ratification of the railroad and commercial interests of the country early in July. The effect of the ratification will be to make the new bill of lading a part of the Interstate Commerce law. shippers then will have the thing for which they have clamored for the last decade-a railroad receipt binding on the

and its connections liable for a shipment from the time it is delivered to the company until it is delivered to the consignees at its destination. The Illinois Manufacturers Association and the American Shippers Association have pressed the matter before the Interstate Commerce Commission for three years. The conditions were agreed upon at a conference May 24 and 25 in Chicago. The conditions were placed before the Interstate Commerce Commission with the view of having them incorporated in a law that could be mutually protective and it was agreed that a draft of the bill of lading and conditions would be submitted to the railroads and the commercial interests of the country early in July.
