The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed. People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

NEW YORK, July 16.-What appears to be a remarkable psychological experience has just been undergone by the Rev. Henry Rollings, now taking a special course in the New York Homeopathic Medical College, in that he saw as in a vision the death of his father, although 3000 miles separated the father and son at the time. Moreover the death bed scene as the young clergyman saw it in his mind's eye was corroborated in every detail in a letter two weeks later. Rev. Mr. Rollings received his theological education in England and was ordained in the established church. He came to America and for a time was curate of St. Andrews Parish of Rochester, N. Y., of which the Rev. Algernon S. Crapsy was then rector. Rev. Mr. Rollings' father was Geoffrey Rollings of Bedfordshire, England. They were much attached to each other and kept in close touch with each other by letter. Rev. Mr. Rollings, describing his experience, says that after a particularly arduous day he threw himself on his bed exhausted and fell into a sleep from which he was awakened, by a vivid picture. He saw his father as distinctly as he ever saw him in his life and heard him call, "My boy, my boy, I am dying!" His father, he says, was lying in bed, in a room which he did not recognize, but knew the furnishings to be English. He saw all of his relatives there except his sister and he wondered in his vision why she was absent. He saw his father sink back on the bed and he knew for a certainty, he said, although it was not an act of sensibility, he was performing, that his father was dead. The letter from England a fortnight afterward said that the elder Rollings died the exact day and at the exact hour that the younger Rollings had his death pictured to him. Not only that, the letter said that the elder Rollings said just before he passed away, that he could see his son standing by the bedside. The strange room in the vision was explained by the statement that the family had moved from the old homestead to another house in Bedfordshire and in the absence of the sister from the room which was explained by the statement that at the time she was ill.
