TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Delayed Train—
The 6:10 train last night was delayed about 15 minutes on account of a broken draw bar.

Marriage License—
A marriage license was issued to Mel Kerola and Hilma Wesman yesterday.

At the Hospital—
J. Uhrenhart is a new arrival at St. Mary's hospital. Mr. Uhrenhart is not ill, but simply resting.

Dead at Gray's River—
Geoy Miller, a pioneer of this section at Gray's River yesterday. Funeral director Pohl will have charge of the interment.

Farrants Paid—
There were $5016.92 paid out on warrants in the city treasurer's office yesterday being principal and interest on general fund.

As a Toothache—
Superintendent of Streets Kearney is suffering from a swollen jaw the result of a bad tooth. It's now time for Doc Logan to come home.

Home to Goldfield—
"Nace" Grant and Chas. Ferry left on the 6:10 train last night. These gentlemen will spend a few days in Portland after which they will proceed to Goldfield, Nev.

Open Later—
Commencing Monday evening, August 6, and continuing for one week, the retail stores will remain open until 8 o'clock, with the exception of Saturday when they will remain open until the usual hour.

Hear Billy Arlington—
Billy Arlington, of minstrel fame, who is in the city to give a lecture for the Astoria Library Association, will give a free reading at the Baptist Church, Sunday evening, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Arlington is a Christian and says that if he had his life to begin over he would want to be a minister. He will read "The Two Glasses." Every one is invited to come and enjoy this rare treat. Conrad L. Owen, pastor.

Theatrical Man Here—
John F. Cordray, one of the leading theatrical men on the Pacific Coast and a member of the Sullivan and Conside combination, was a pleasant visitor in Astoria yesterday. Mr. Cordray has recently finished constructing two new playhouses in Spokane and has been superintending the same style of work in other cities. He received his first start in Astoria many years ago and later went to Portland, where he built the Baker Theater. He will spend a few days resting up at Seaside.

Had An Eastern Trip—
Jas. E. Meehan, well known on the Columbia and proprietor of Meehan's Sands, was in Astoria yesterday and left on the 6:10 last night for Portland where his home is. "Jimmy," as he is familiarly known, has just returned from a trip east where he has been on a visit to his old home which he had not seen for 30 years. He remained in Boston for about a month before proceeding to St. Johns, N. B., his objective point. It was decidedly a pleasure trip for Mr. Meehan as he met many of his relatives and old friends and—well anyone knows how that is—can't get away. At St. Johns, his old home, he spent a few weeks and comes back to Oregon with the feeling that Oregon is a good enough place after all and that his interests in Astoria are safe. He no doubt will be here for the Regatta as "Jimmy" is a loyal Astorian.

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.
Wedding at Svenson That Was Unique and Pretty—Wedded in Woods.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at Svenson yesterday when Samuel J. McIntyre, of St. Helens, and Miss Stella Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher were united in wedlock. At high noon the bridal party proceeded to the woods adjacent to the home of the bride's parents where a beautiful bower was created by the interlapping of the boughs of a beautiful maple tree, the wedding bell being suspended over the center of the bower. Rev. C. C. Rarick officiated and the ceremony was not only pretty, but impressive. About 70 guests, after witnessing the joining of the happy couple, sat down to a wedding dinner in the woods and all felt that it was near nature as could be. Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre will take a honeymoon trip and will then take up their residence at St. Helens with the best wishes and blessings of their many friends.

"Everybody Should Know" says C. G. Hays, a prominent business man of Bluff, Mo., that Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the quickest and surest healing salve ever applied to a sore, burn or wound, or to a case of piles. I've used it and know what I'm talking about." Charles Rogers, druggist, 25c.

"High Art"
Clothes

Fall styles are here.

We do not like
To make remarks
On other dealers' styles.
But, lord! we see
Such rigs sometimes!
We can't repress our smiles.

We don't think that most men dress badly. Sometimes they make mistakes, that's all. Every man wants to dress correctly; a great many do.

We don't make the styles. It's our business to select the best from the designs that are offered each season. If "Best" were a comparative term, we would say that we select the very best clothing from the very best manufacturing tailors.

"The Best Clothes that are made." That was the first stone in the foundation of our business. Then we made the price of our clothing—the Best Clothing—the same as that of the ordinary kind. Most men know our policy. If you haven't learned it, we would like to meet you the next time you need a suit or a hat or a negligee shirt, or anything that the best kind of a clothing store should carry.

GLOOMY END TO THE SEASON

BUT ONE OF ASTORIA'S PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN IS CONFIDENT OF SALMON INDUSTRY—

Although the fishing season seems to be ending in a dark and gloomy manner, the older men in Astoria, who have long been connected with the business do not take the same sable view of the situation. Although they admit that the season has been poor they do not believe that it is an indication that the very last salmon has been taken out of the river and attribute the cause to the fact that it is merely an "off season." Mr. S. Elmore is not concerned much over the small run of salmon and says that there have been other poor seasons.

"There is nothing to be alarmed about concerning the present season," said Mr. Elmore yesterday. "We have had such seasons before and it is no more than to be expected that we have an occasional poor season."

"Why I can remember in the seventies when R. D. Hume was a partner of mine here we had just such another season. It was just as poor, if not poorer than this one. For that reason I say with all emphasis that the salmon industry is just as solid and will continue to be as solid as any other commercial business in the country."

Hay Fever and Summer Colds.
Victims of hay fever will experience great benefit by taking Foleys Honey and Tar, as it stops difficult breathing immediately and heals the inflamed air passages, and even if it should fail to cure you it will give instant relief. The genuine is in a yellow package. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

What One Enjoys.

At Otto Sund's pretty and cozy resort "The Commercial," one finds all that the inner man desires in the refreshment line and of the best quality too. To pass a little time in such a neat place and spend it in pleasant conversation with genial friends, probably a little business talk, is, to say the least, enlivening. Courteous treatment is another thing that is appreciated and one receives it from Otto himself who takes charge during the day and from his pleasant night manager both of whom dispense the best to be had. "The Commercial," 509 Commercial street, is well known and widely patronized.
