PUSH OREGON TO THE FRONT

AN EASY WAY TO ADVERTISE THE Up. When the editor of the Woman's Home

And Tell Our Eastern Friends All About the Superior Opportunities We Possess.

On April 29th last the Oregonian devoted exclusively to the exploitation iarly useful and valuable to the home- home life remains intact." seeker, because it gives the latest and most reliable information about so many different subjects that the homeseeker is and both descriptive and statistical information of a highly valuable character

Residents of Oregon who knows its advantages as compared with the congested and depleted East, and who still her predecessor, a young man?" have friends back there whom they would like to see here enjoying the good things of this favored state, can aid in a splendid work now without cost and very little effort. If you think your friend would be interested in knowing more about Oregon and might eventually become a valuable citizen, send ihs name and address to the general passenger agent of the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company, and a copy of this special edition, with a complete summary of the several subjects treated, carefully indexed, will be mailed to him promptly. In this manner you may be the means not only of doing your friend good turn, but of helping to stimulate the growth and prosperity of Oregon.

Don't forget that commencing September I and continuing daily for two months, tickets will be on sale at almost every railroad station in the East to all points in Oregon and the Northwest at what has come to be popularly known as "colonist rates." These rates are the cheapest general long distance rates ever established, and enables one to reach Oregon from any part of the United States at but a trifle more than one cent a mile. They are the greatest incentive to colonization and progressive home building of any known agency, and if the restless, dissatisfied resident of the East is made to know before-hand the advantages he can enjoy here, the problem is solved, and the star of empire will continue to move steadily westward.

Now is the time to spread the gospel of Oregon, so that it may be heard and heeded by the time the rates go into effect. Send one name or two, or a dozen, and you will be exerting a worthy influence toward the upbuilding of our state. Send them to your nearest Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company agent, or to Wm. McMurray, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

The Woman Wage Earner. The woman wage earner is today the nation's most serious scilogical probthe ranks of these women, future states men, law makers and law breakers will spring, and millions of future mothers are being trained for the pitless warfare of wage earners rather than for the gentler but more potent art of home mak-

Companion commissioned me to write this series of articles, I turned first to a clergyman of national Tame for confirmation or refutation of my theory that the woman wage earner had atained the dignity of a sociological problem.

"My dear madam," said the clergypublished a special industrial edition man blandly, "I think this bugaboo of devoted exclusively to the exploitation annual part seaurang ut usurom of Oregon. It probably contained more ally, there is nothing in it! The vast maspecial and miscellaneous information jority of women continue to marry and about Oregon that any one publication manage households just as their moth-that has ever been issued. It is pecul- ers did before them. The American ers did before them. The American

> "You have a woman secretary?" I suggested.

"Ah, yes," he replied tapping his eyenaturally interested in. Almost every glass on his thumb and reflectively. "But department of industry is specialized, this is an exceptional case—and very and. Daughter of an old parishioner who died very suddenly, leaving his afis given extensively, and in entertaining fairs in a very bad shape. The girl is helping to support her mother and sisters."

> "And she receives the same salary a "Precisely! Why not! She is fully a capable." "And therefore must have been trained for her work as a stenographer. What sort of education is she giving her aisters?" He did not know. We made inquir ies. One is preparing to be a book keeper. The other is already at work it a fashionable millinery shop.

"Well, well." remarked the clergyman.

"I am sadly disappointed. I thought the girls were going to college or some-thing of that sort.' It is an institutional church, and the next question was: "Your parish visitor is a woman?"

"Oh certainly. A college graduate, especially trained for the work; but that is quite different. She is deeply interested in charities..." "On a salary of twelve hundred year!" "Well, you understand there is much routine work, accounts, books, and all that sort of thing. A woman must be trained; she must have more than ordinary intelligence."

"In other words, she must be a thorough business woman as well as a church member and give her undivided attent'on to her duties."

"Precisely. She is an exceptional oung woman."

Is she? Can it be possible that the reverend gentleman does not know that all over the United States, in offices, shops, and stores, are other intelligent women similarly trained as dependable business machines! This girl is not the exception, but the rule.

"And your guild for girls?"
"Flourishing excelently, under the direction of one of our deaconesses. You really ought to drop in some evening." that the guild has a membership of over writers, bookkeepers, illustrators, saleswomen, students of art and music. The majority of these girls have drifted to New York from other cities or towns in search of work or instruction. Only a few live with their parents or have any real home life. And yet the elergyman did not consider that these young strangers within the gates presented a socological problem worthy of the attention of church

In greater New York alone half a million girls and women are partly or wholly self-supporting. Half a million women, or one-fifth the population, are under business and not domestic influences.-Anna Steese Richardson in the September Woman's Home Companion,

HAD AN AWFUL TIME

But Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Cured Him.

It is with pleasure that I give you this unsolicited testimonial. About a year ago when I had a severe case of measles I got caught out in a hard rain and the measles settled in my stomach and bowels. I had an awful time and had it not been for the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoes remedy, I could not have possibly lived but a few hours longer, but thanks to this remedy I am now strong and well. I have written the above through simple gratitude and I shall always speak a good word for this remedy.-Sam H. Gwin, Concord, Ga. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.
