CRIMINAL CASES ARE CALLED

INTERESTING SESSION OF THE CIRCUIT COURT YESTERDAY—GAMBLERS FINED AND WARNED—SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY

Considerable interest was manifested in the proceedings in the circuit court, yesterday. The number of cases settled were few, but interesting. The jury having been excused until Monday next, equity cases have been the rule, but yesterday was set for hearing pleas in several criminal cases.

After John Evenson had been excused, as a juror, until Wednesday, September 25th, the case of James Walker, who was charged with larceny from a store in Hammond, was called. Walker pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

Scott Anderson pleaded guilty to assault with a dangerous weapon, and was given a term of four months in the county jail. This is the case wherein Anderson, in a melee on the steamer Hassalo, assaulted John Scott with a knife, severely cutting him.

When the gambling cases were called, the attorney for the defense asked for the clemency of the court, for his clients. He explained to the court that the proprietors of the saloons, wherein the gambling was done, were not interested in the games and received nothing from them but the patronage that was extended to the bar, a few drinks being ordered. Those charged with the crime of gambling had no connection whatever with the saloons.

Judge McBride, in reviewing the case, said that, before District Attorney Hedges had issued his order, gambling was practically licensed and, as these were the first cases under the order, he was inclined to be lenient as to its proper interpretation. However, he impressed on the minds of the attorney and defendants that this leniency would not be shown in the future. Whether gambling games were carried on in a saloon, or cigar store, or in the lowest gambling hell the offense was equally a violation of the law and would be punished by a fine of $500 in the court on conviction. He then sentenced Al Seefeldt and John Stephenson to pay a fine of $25 each, for keeping a house wherein gambling was conducted, and Andrew Palo, F. Leatherman, Artu Saari, H. Miller, Kasper Lamunen, Guy E. Fuller, A. Carkula and August Ek-kala were fined $20 each for gambling. All the fines were paid. The court adjourned until Monday morning.

WORKING ON NEW BANK.

Local Firm Secures Contract For Putting in Modern Fixtures.

Work on the interior of the Scandinavian-American Savings Bank, the new Astoria institution, which will open for business on October 1, with capital stock of $50,000 and a surplus of $10,000, was started yesterday morning. The furniture and fixtures will be furnished by Carl G. Palmberg, of Astoria, who had a force of men at work all day yesterday.

The bank officials believe in patronizing home trade, and will do so all the time, except in the securing of bank appliances that cannot be secured in Astoria. This will also enable them to have the bank building, at 506 and 508 Commercial streets in excellent shape for the opening.

PERSONAL MENTION.

John McEvoy, Thomas Arnold and S. G. Williams, Skamokawa ranchers, were in the city last evening.

Judge McBride is in St. Helens, today, on court business, and will return Monday.

Dr. J. A. Fulton has returned from his ten days' vacation. While absent, he attended a meeting of the Washington Medical Association, at Seattle.

Otto Carlson, who sprained his ankle a few days ago, has so far recovered as to be on the streets again.

Mothers with little children need no longer fear croup, colds or whooping cough. Bees Laxative Cough Syrup tastes good. It works off the cold through the bowels, clears the head. Guaranteed. Sold by Frank Hart's Drug store.

The Touch That Heals.

Is the touch of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the happiest combination of Arnica flowers and healing balsams ever compounded. No matter how old the sore or ulcer is, this Salve will cure it. For burns, scalds, cuts, wounds or piles, it has no equal. Guaranteed by Chas. Rogers, druggist. 25c.

THE BIG STORE WILL OPEN WIDE TODAY

AND THERE WILL BE A HEARTY WELCOME FOR ALL

ACCEPT THIS AS AN INVITATION. We will be glad to see everyone that calls whether they buy or not. A thousand things are here to interest and amuse. Our clerks are instructed to tell you all about them that you might wish to know without importuning you too strongly to buy. Shoppers who buy wisely will again, as heretofore, confine the bulk of their purchases to this store.

Autumn Millinery Show Is Formally Opened Today

The pictures we print today were drawn by French Artists from the Millinery Masterpieces shown in Paris. They portray better than words the styles that will be worn this autumn, but they fail in one particular—they fail to give any idea of the rich colors that characterize the season's Millinery, for Parisian designers, growing fat and prosperous (on American dollars) have brought out a veritable pell-mell of lovely colors. A reddish shade of violet called Monseigneur, in England it is known as Bishop's Color; then there is a new shade of red very like claret, but richer and deeper and Copenhagen Blue, always lovely and always becoming.

The purpose of this announcement is not to boast for boasting is bad taste, but to invite you to see this show today. It reflects the best fashion thoughts of Paris, London and New York. It isn't "merely rich" but it is elegance personified. It isn't merely luxurious and extravagant, but it's such millinery as gentlewomen will be delighted to wear.

THE DISPLAY OF PROPER STYLES IN WOMEN'S COSTUMES

Tailored Suits, Short and Long Coats, Raincoats, Dress and Walking Skirts, Wraps and Waists at Popular Prices CAN SCARCELY BE EQUALLED HEREBABOUTS

While our store will be prettily decorated we do not expect you will go into rhapsodies over this feature. The chief aim of our opening is to demonstrate the PROPER STYLES, PROPER FABRICS, PROPER PRICES. We have no souvenirs, no music, little sentiment, but we do offer a rich and satisfactory stock of most desirable wearables for everybody.
