MAROONED MEN BACK IN CITY

DASTARDLY ACTION OF LEELANAW CAPTAIN MIGHT HAVE CAUSED THEM TO BE IN A SERIOUS FIX, BUT FOR AN ACCIDENT.

About 60 members of the crew of the wreck John Currier arrived in Astoria yesterday at noon and last night from Seattle, where they arrived on the cutter Thetis on Tuesday. The Chinamen and Japs were sent to Portland from Seattle, while a number of the men remained in that city, and the rest will come to Astoria within a few days. None of the arrivals look any the worse for their experience on a desert shore for over a month, and few of them were even put out by the mishap. The party had over 30 bags of flour and a number of cases of salmon left when they were picked up by the government boat.

The dastardly act of the captain of the Leelanaw in deserting the marooned men on hearing of their predicament, is the only bad feature of the entire experience, with the exception of the loss to the company owning the boat.

According to the reports of a number of the men, the Leelanaw arrived at the mouth of the lagoon where the wreck took place, on September 10, to save the rigging and cargo of the ship. On hearing from Captain Myrneson of the John Currier that the boat had broken up and that there was nothing for salvage, the Leelanaw captain sailed away for Nome, refusing to rescue the marooned men from their perilous predicament and possible danger of starvation.

The wreck of the ship as described by the men took place during a heavy fog, just at the beginning of a heavy gale. The ship was blown ashore and fortunately landed on the Nelson Lagoon, the only stretch of sandy beach for many miles. The boat struck during the night and no effort was made to get ashore until the break of day.

As soon as it was light enough the transfer from the ship to the shore commenced. Six fishing boats and a launch were saved along with a big store of provisions. Sails were made into tents on the beach, as the huts of the Indians were a miserable shelter for the men. Everything was made as snug as possible as there was no telling how long they would have to remain.

Several men started out and with the help of Indians managed to let the outside world know of the wreck, with the result that the Leelanaw was sent to save the cargo of salmon and any old junk that would bring a dollar. The boat arrived too late, however, as the ship had entirely disappeared on September 10, when the ship sailed for Nome.

The men were greatly disappointed at not being taken, but the McCullough arrived the next day quite by accident and shortly after they were taken to Unalaska, and transferred to the Thetis, which brought them to Seattle. The captain of the Thetis treated them with every kindness, and even members of the cutter's crew did everything possible to make the men comfortable on the trip.

The boat was met on its arrival at Seattle by the superintendent and bookkeeper of the Alaska Fishermen's Packing Company, of this city and, the men were treated to a hearty meal, after which all who wanted their money were paid off. Quite a large number of them, after being paid, made arrangements to fish in the north for the company next season, showing that they bore the utmost good will toward it.

Kenney & Gribler Win
A case that has been attracting attention for the past two days, is that of Kenney & Gribler vs. Chas. Wise. Yesterday afternoon the case was sent to the jury and after being out about one hour, they returned a verdict for the plaintiffs for $126. The amount sued for was $252 and this verdict is for one-half of the claim. A verdict of this kind carries the costs with it, which really means a verdict of $126 and costs. Attorney Fulton, for the defendant, gave notice that, despite the verdict, he would take the customary 10 days to make an appeal. He stated that he would carry the case to the supreme court.

How to Avoid Appendicitis
Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels, and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

In the Police Court—

John Turi was before Judge Anderson, yesterday, charged with vagrancy. He was found guilty and sentenced to 20 days imprisonment.

To Take Trip—

Fred Brown left this morning for a trip to Carson Springs and Seattle. He will attend a baseball directors' meeting in Portland tonight. He will be absent about a month.

To Open Piano Studio—

Miss Anna Campbell will open a piano studio at 502 Commercial, over Ekstrom's jewelry store, on October 1st. Anyone desiring to arrange for lessons, phone Red 2441.

New Arrivals—

C. S. Bower and wife, of Ada, Ohio, arrived at Warrenton yesterday where he bought the Linton drug building from F. W. Proctor. He will open a photograph gallery for the present. Mr. Bower is a brother of N. W. Bower, the Sunset Beach man.

Councilman Disqualified—

Councilman George Morton has removed to C. H. Cooper's residence, Grand avenue and Fifth street. This changes his residence from the Second Ward to the First Ward and disqualifies him as a councilman, as he was elected from the Second Ward. According to the redistricting of the city, his new residence will be in the Second Ward but at the present time his removal means his retirement from the city council. At the next meeting of the city council a succession will be selected to serve until the next election.

Taxes Being Paid—

The sheriff's office is a very busy place, these days. The circuit court is in session, taxes are growing delinquent and witnesses and jury men are to be summoned. Sheriff Pomeroy took a prisoner to the penitentiary. Deputy Sheriff McLean is kept hustling subpoenaing witnesses and jury men and the affable office deputy, Carl Knutsen is kept jumping collecting taxes. Yesterday the sheriff turned over to the county treasurer $1376.99, taxes collected, and is still working. The date of delinquency being October 1st, many are besieging the sheriff's office to avoid the penalty. Those who have not paid their taxes, as yet, should bear in mind that it will not only save them costs, but will help the overworked attaches of the sheriff's office if their payments are made before next Tuesday.

Pleads Not Guilty—

J. H. Andrews pleaded not guilty in the circuit court, yesterday, and his trial was set for Tuesday, October 1.

Will be Buried Today—

Herbert Spencer, whose body was brought to this city Tuesday, will be buried today under the auspices of the Redmen of Svensen, and the Woodmen of Seaside, he having been a member of both organizations.

Divorce Granted—

Yesterday, in the circuit court, the attorney for the defendant in the case of Albert Strein vs. Emma Strein agreed to have the demurrer to the complaint overruled and stated that his client would not proceed further with the case. On this showing the court ordered a decree of divorce entered by default.

Secured Lease—

W. J. Binder, with S. Schmidt & Co., fish packers, has secured from Fred J. Brown, the lease on the baseball grounds. The baseball season having expired and the football season approaching it is a question whether the grounds will be used for football. Mr. Binder, now having the control of the grounds, will not express himself, but it is now generally known that he is the man to be consulted. Being an old time sporting "fan," Mr. Binder will not stop at trifles and no doubt Astoria will see some good football games on these grounds this fall.

Nearing Completion—

The Welch building, now being erected on Commercial street, above Twelfth, is rapidly approaching completion. The roof is on and that assures that the building will be completed on time regardless of the weather. A. E. Petersen, for whom the building is being constructed, will be ready to occupy it, when completed, his furnishings being now on the way. This building is being specially constructed for Mr. Petersen, who will have the finest tonorial parlors on the Pacific Coast. He has purchased the finest furnishings that can be procured and he certainly must have confidence in Astoria to expend the amount of money he has in furnishing the new quarters.

NEW TRUST COMPANY FORMED

TERMINAL TRUST COMPANY OPTIMISTIC NAME OF THE CONCERN ORGANIZED BY G. WINGATE, A PIONEER REAL ESTATE MAN.

A new trust company with an excellent name for advertising the city has been formed in Astoria by G. Wingate. The concern is called the Terminal Trust Company and the articles of incorporation filed in the county court yesterday name G. Wingate, J. A. Eakin and W. W. Ridelhaug as the incorporators. The capital stock of the company is $5000, divided into fifty shares. The company will engage in the real estate business, brokerage, and shipping business, and to operate vessels on the Columbia River and its tributaries.

Mr. Wingate is one of the pioneer real estate men of the county and is one of the most optimistic men in the city over the future greatness of this section. He firmly believes that this entire district can be settled up almost immediately if the large landed owners would show a disposition to sell their property at a reasonable figure.

SUBJECTS IN ADVANCE.

Teachers Get List of Books on Literature.

SALEM, Sept. 25.—Principal Ackerman has compiled and issued a list of subjects from which the questions for the February and August examinations for state and county papers next year will be taken.

One of the features, and the principal one, of the examinations next year will be upon English literature, and an especially elaborate and complete list of works is cited as authorities from which the questions will be asked. Half of the questions will be taken from the state textbooks on English literature adopted by the Oregon textbook commission, and the balance from some specially selected classics.

The list of subjects, which is given herewith in full, is provided in order that prospective applicants for the examinations may prepare themselves in advance:

Bookkeeping, office methods and practical bookkeeping. Pt. 1; physiology. Hutchinson; U. S. history, Doub; civil government, Strong & Shaefer; theory and practice, White's Art of Teaching; arithmetic, 1-5 from Course of Study;

4-5 from H. Smith; grammar, 1-5 from Course of Study; 4-5 from Buchler; geography, 1-5 from Course of Study; 4-5 from Natural Psychology, Buell.

English literature, February, 1906—A. 1-2 from Newcomer's English Literature; B. 1-2 from the following classics: (1) Tennyson's Idylls of the King (Gateway Series), Allen Book Co., 35c, 20c; Great Hand Lynette—Cancelot and Elaine—The Passing of Arthur; (2) Dickens, A Tale of Two Cities (Riverside lit. ser.), Houghton, 50c, 41c. (3) Lamb Essays of Elia, (Pocket classics) MacMillan, 25c, 23c; Dream Children. Dissertation Upon Roast Pig, Old China, Poor Relations, the Superannuated Man, Christ's Hospital Five and Thirty Years Ago.

August, 1906—A. 1-2 from Newcomer's English Literature; B. 1-2 from the following classics: (1) Shakespeare, Merchant of Venice, ed. by F. J. Rolfs, Am. Book Co., 50c, 47c. (2) Scott, Ivanhoe, (Riverside lit. ser.), Houghton, 60c, 47c. (3) Irving, Sketch Book, (Pocket Classics), MacMillan, 25c, 22c. Rip Van Winkle, Legend of Sleepy Hollow, Westminster Abbey, Stratford-on-Avon, Christmas, The Spectre Bridegroom.

The first figure is the publisher's price, the second the price to schools contracted for between the Oregon Library Commission and the J. K. Gill Company.

Remaining subjects—State texts.
