TILLMAN RAGES AT OCTOORON.

Interruption by Black Gives Audience a Sensation.

SEATTLE, Sept. 25.—Rising to defend his race against inexorable attacks made by "Pitchfork" Benjamin R. Tillman, United States senator from South Carolina, at Dreamland Rink Auditorium last night, a man with negro blood in his veins caused a sensation by denouncing one of the speaker's statements as a cowardly utterance. The same individual had previously arisen during Chairman J. L. Ronald's introduction of the Southern statesman to challenge the speaker of the evening to a debate—but he was promptly quashed by Ronald's stentorian voice.

"Judge, let me handle him a minute," exclaimed the fiery Southern senator.

Tillman had been comparing the Japanese and negro races as to intellectual power and general usefulness.

"Everyone knows," declared the senator, "that the Mongolian is a superior race, and that the Japanese are intellectual, brave and powerful. Everyone who knows anything, and is fair-minded, knows that the Japanese race is as far above the negro as the negro is above a baboon."

This was too much for the man with the negro blood, and he arose to take issue with the speaker.

After the applause died out and Ronald resumed his seat, Tillman scrutinized the disturber a minute and then said scornfully:

"My eyes are not as clear as thy once were, but I suspect you are an octo-oron"

"Yes," was the reply.

"Then you are one part negro and seven parts white, and you defend the race. What right have you to call yourself a negro?" shouted the vitriolic Tillman. "There is a man who probably has some brains," he continued, "a man who feels called upon to defend the negro race. Whatever brains he has he got with his white blood."

Here the man got up and left the hall.

NO MORE SLOUGHS.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Sept. 25.—Some time ago the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce passed a resolution declaring that the term "Slough" as applied by the government to navigable waters about Coos Bay should be changed, since it is a misnomer. Secretary Lyon was instructed to forward the resolutions to Colonel Roessler with the request to remedy the matter. The following reply has been received and it appears the matter will be adjusted to the satisfaction of Coos Bay people.

"As requested in your letter of the 11th instant, I will take pleasure in endeavoring to have the word 'Slough' dropped wherever it has heretofore been made to apply to navigable streams." S. W. Roessler, Lieutenant-Colonel Corps of Engineers, U. S. A.

TO TIE UP WIRES.

National Telegraphers May All Walk Out of Offices.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—New York local of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union tonight voted to call out all the leased wire operators employed by the press and brokers offices in this city if such action be sanctioned by the national officers. Action by the national officers will be awaited before anything further is done. It was voted also to ask the national officers to issue a call for broker and press telegraphers throughout the country to quit work. The demand upon the men who are now working under contract is made in the interests of those who have struck against the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies.

EUGENE WANTS BOOSTER.

EUGENE, Sept. 25.—A number of the most enterprising citizens of the city, including Hon. S. H. riendly, Dr. L. L. Wiltson, president of the Commercial Club, and D. E. Yorna, president of the Merchant's Protective Association, have been, during the last week or two, agitating the matter of securing a man to do promotion work in Eugene, the same as Tom Richardson is employed in Portland. The matter has reached a point where it is almost a certainty that the plan will be carried out. A public meeting will be held at the court house Thursday evening, at which Mr. Richardson, who has written that he will be here then, will address the people on the subject.

J. H. Hartog, who is now secretary of the Calousa County, Cal., Chamber of Commerce, has been recommended by Mr. Richardson, Mr. McMurray, general passenger agent of the Harriman lines in Oregon, and others to be the right man for the place if Eugene decides to employ a "booster."

SIX PRONG ELK HORNS.

MARSHFIELD, Sept. 25.—Walter W. Lawhorne and Jas. Boone returned yesterday from the headwaters of Middle Creek, where they had been in search of elk. They returned with the finest set of six prong antlers ever brought to Marshfield. The horns are so nearly alike and the prongs are so nearly similar that they make a most valuable trophy. The spread at the top is something over four feet. Messrs. Lawhorne and Boone feel very proud of their success.

Lame Back.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other remedies for three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by Frank Hart and leading Druggists.

BOLD TRUNK THIEF.

Nearly Gets Jewelry Drummer's Baggage With $75,000 in Goods.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 25.—P. F. Crowell, a New York jewelry salesman, reached here this morning over the Wash and ordered his trunk taken to the Pennsylvania depot. An hour later, while passing the Avelline House, he was surprised to see his trunk, which contained $75,000 in jewelry, sitting on the sidewalk. The expressman told him that a traveling man had ordered the trunk to an interurban station.

At the same time L. F. Rapp, traveling for a New York linen house, missed his trunk. It was discovered that the same alleged traveling man had claimed it at the hotel and had taken it away. No trace of it can be found.

EATING SELF TO DEATH.

LISBON, Portugal, Sept. 25.—King Carlos of Portugal, the fattest and jolliest monarch in Europe, who has laughed at threats of bombs and continued to gorge himself when war threatened to invade his domains, has been halted by his doctors to prevent him from eating himself to death. That the king was in a fair way to do this the sage medical men are sure, as they sit in council each day while their monarch is fatally stuffing himself.

King Carlos lately has been even out-doing his famous predecessor, King Charles V of the sixteenth century, whose appetite no cook in the royal kitchen could satisfy.

Fatty degeneration of the royal heart is what the physicians of King Carlos fear and to prevent this they keep his royal highness on a strict diet. Not only have they defied the quality of the food the spendthrift king shall eat, but they have also specified the exact quantity and the time he shall spend at each meal.

They have told him that they must be obeyed or he will die. He is trying hard to obey them, but he is hungry now, always hungry, and he suffers torture from the edict which takes away from him the delicacies in which he found his chief enjoyment.

WILL TAKE ACTION.

CHICAGO Sept. 25.—United States Attorney Healy said today, regarding the charges against Stuyvesant Fish contained in the statements issued yesterday by President Harahan of the Illinois Central:

"If I obtain information that shows that Harahan's charges are true and that the alleged misappropriation of funds occurred in this city, this office will certainly take action."

PERSONAL MENTION.

Sidney Soule, representing the Rivers Rubber Co., was in the city yesterday calling on his friends and customers. He left for Portland on the train last night.

Alex Duncan and wife, of Olney, were in this city yesterday greeting their friends.

J. P. Merrifield, of Seaside, visited this city yesterday.

Mrs. Howard M. Brownell returned last night from a visit with relatives at Oregon City.

Do you know that Pinesalva Carbolicized acts like a poultice in drawing out inflammation and poison? It is antiseptic. For cuts, burns, exzema, cracked hands it is immediate relief. Sold by Frank Hart's Drug store.
