TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Fishing Grounds Closed—

The Kaboth seining grounds have been closed down after a very successful season, and the crew have returned to Astoria.

Piling Arrived—

Contractor Lebeck received yesterday a raft of piling from Scappoose and Rainier for use at Fort Stevens and on the improvement of Bond street. The raft was towed in by the steamer Melville.

Hay Arrived—

Ten tons of hay, for the use of the fire department, reached here Tuesday and Chief Foster had members of the department buy all afternoon storing it. About 30 tons is expected to arrive soon for the winter's supply.

Improving Some—

C. J. Stanley, who has been quite low at the hospital, is reported as improving some. Mr. Stanley has been in a serious condition for over a week but the good care he is receiving is having a good effect.

Continued Until Next Week—

In the justice court yesterday the cases of Antone Scarpante and Sam Miller, who were arrested for obstructing a stream, by a fish net were continued until Monday. This action was on account of the legal holidays declared by the governor. The men were released on their own recognizance. Andre Karl, arrested for not having a license number on his net, will be tried the same day.

No Evening Mail—

Some inconvenience will no doubt be caused local business men, by a new order just issued by the postal authorities. Hereafter no mail will be taken to Seaside, on the 5:50 train, though mail will be carried on that train to Warrenton, Hammond and Fort Stevens. There has been no change in the railway service and the reason for change in the mail service is not understood.

Closed For Holidays—

Owing to the legal holidays the county clerk's and sheriff's office were closed for filing of legal documents, etc. The forces in both offices were employed on work that had accumulated in these offices but no new business was transacted. At the city hall things were about the same as at the county offices, though the police station was open for business, none appeared.

Closed Season—

Commencing tomorrow the closed season for deer hunting and trout fishing will be on. The closed season for male deer is from November 1st to July 15th and for female deer the season is longer, up to September 1st. The penalty for a violation of this law is a fine from $50 to $200. Trout fishing must cease tonight and cannot be renewed until April 1st, a heavy penalty being also provided for a violation of this law.

On Duty Tomorrow—

Patrolman Wilson, the newly appointed police officer, will assume the duties of his new position tomorrow.

Hallowe'en Party—

The Dorcas Society will give a hallowe'en party at the parlors of the First Lutheran Church tonight. Admission will be free.

Court House Work—

The lumber and marble for the inside finishing of the court house have arrived and the artisans are busy placing same in position. Superintendent Beblack states that the whole work will be completed on time, January 1, 1908.

Former Astorian—

Peter Kruse, who was formerly connected with the Astoria Iron Works, is now in Brooklyn, N. Y. He is president of the Kruse Mfg. Co. of that city, which is engaged in can-making machinery, and doing a fine business. This will be pleasant news to his friends.

Fell Overboard—

Yesterday afternoon at about four o'clock, Mike McGowan fell from the slip at the Callender dock. McGowan was assisting in getting a horse aboard the steamer Wenona, when he slipped and was soon floundering in the water. The crew rescued him with no worse results, to him, than a good wetting.

Work Suspended—

The O. R. & N. Co. has issued orders stopping work on the grade of the Ilwaco extension, to the new terminus, opposite Astoria. Work in the tunnel will not be suspended and will be continued until finished, in the spring. The work on the grade will be resumed so as to finish at the time the tunnel is completed.

Trip to Mount Hood—

Fifty views of Mount Hood, seen through the lens of a stereopticon will kindle a desire to see the great mountain of Oregon from the actual summit as many of Astoria's people expect to do next summer. Rev. A. J. Montgomery, of Portland, who is as well acquainted with Mt. Hood as any man in Oregon, will lecture on this subject, Friday evening at the Presbyterian Church. This is a treat to the Sunday school and is free to all members of the school. Fifteen cents will be the admission for all others. Refreshments will follow lecture in social rooms of the church at eight o'clock.

WILL CONFER WITH NOTED ENGINEER

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO TALK OVER PLANS REGARDING THE BUILDING OF THE SEAWALL WITH ENGINEER HEGARDT.

G. B. Hegardt, the well known Portland engineer, who had charge of the jetty work at the mouth of the Columbia for a number of years, has been invited by the Chamber of Commerce to meet General Manager Nutt, of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, when he visits Astoria in the near future, and confer with Mr. Nutt, and the engineers, who will accompany him, in reference to the work of building a seawall and filling in all that portion of our city which is built on piles.

Mr. Hegardt has been in communication with Manager Whyte, of the Chamber of Commerce, regarding this seawall proposition and in a recent letter, Mr. Hegardt says:

"We have in our office a great deal of data on this subject and we would suggest that you call and talk over the proposition, with a view to formulating a plan suitable to the needs of the port, both as to the magnitude of the work and the financial considerations."

The letter also states that Mr. Hegardt has kept in touch with such work in the East, and also that some 10 or 12 years ago he prepared a preliminary plan for a seawall at Astoria.

Manager Whyte and the Chamber of Commerce are confident of Mr. Hegardt's ability and when his opinion, in conjunction with the Northern Pacific engineers, will have been laid before the commercial body some pertinent proposition will undoubtedly be made, that will assure to Astoria the commencement of this stupendous improvement.

Hallowe'en—

Tonight will be hallowe'en, the season of illuminated pumpkins, apple ducking, seeking pictures of future husbands, etc. It brings to the mind of even the oldest adult, the boyish pranks indulged in by him in his youthful days. The present generation should be careful that any pranks indulged in be harmless.

Important.

The dance and piano contest for Herman Wise's customers takes place at Logan's Hall tonight at 9 o'clock. One number with each $5 purchase.

Twombly Officially Dismissed—
Officer Twombly received official notice yesterday of his dismissal from the force by the police commissioner. He surrendered his keys and star to Chief Gammal, and entered a verbal protest, claiming irregularity in the proceedings against him.

Senator McGowan in Town—
Senator McGowan of McGowan, Washington, is in the city and reports that a fair catch of fall fish is being daily received at the canneries. He also reports that all work has been stopped on the Ilwaco R. R. Co.'s extension.

Testimonial to Astoria—
Strong proof of the ability of Astoria's mechanics, is shown in the results of a recent trip of the launch Red Roy, on a 1000-mile run to Alaska. The Red Roy was built by Wilson Bros., of this city, for the Pacific Fisheries Co., of Seattle. Her run to Alaska was made in five days, which included stoppages. No other motor boat has made as good a record.

Legal Holiday Conditions—

An unusual quiet prevailed in Astoria all day yesterday. The banks and public offices were closed, and no legal, and little banking business was done. While the banks were not doing a regular banking business, the officers were on hand, and some accommodation business was transacted for the benefit of regular customers. As yet no inconvenience has been caused by the proclaiming of the holidays, but if they are continued for the balance of the week there may be some annoyance evidenced, though nothing of a serious nature. If the governor should annul his order, which it is reported he contemplates, things will assume their normal condition at once.

MURDERS OWN SON.

Domestic Trouble Results in Three Deaths.

TULSA, I. T., Oct. 30.—W. E. Campbell, one of the wealthiest oil operators and capitalists of Indian territory and whose former home was in Winfield, Kan., was shot and instantly killed by D. H. Stockwell, a prominent contractor of Tulsa, late tonight. Stockwell after murdering Campbell returned to his home and after shooting and instantly killing his 13-year-old son blew his own head off with a shotgun which he had used in the double murder.

The two men are related in marriage. Campbell's son having married a daughter of Stockwell. Some days ago Stockwell and his wife had trouble and as a result Mrs. Stockwell went to the home of Campbell to remain until she departed for California.

Tonight Stockwell went to the home of Campbell, called him to the porch and without the slightest warning struck a double-barreled shotgun in Campbell's face, blowing his head off. He then went to the Stockwell home and, going to the room of his son, who was sick in bed, shot and instantly killed the boy. His head was blown off. Stockwell then turned the gun on himself and for the third time blew off a head.

Campbell, who was 53 years of age, was one of the business associates of Robert Galbraith in the Glenn Pool oil field. He was a prominent Republican and known over the entire country among oil operators. Stockwell was a prominent contractor and 65 years of age. Both men leave families.

WOULD LYNCH MURDERER.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 30.—A special to Oklahoma from Lawton says a mob is forming with the avowed intention of lynching John Hopkins, a gambler from Kingston, Mo., who last night attacked his wife with a meat axe at the home of her sister, inflicting wounds from which she died tonight. Sheriff Hammond and eight or ten deputies are guarding the jail and threaten to shoot if any attempt is made to take the prisoner. The governor has been asked to send troops.

AGAIN AT WORK.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.—Seventy-five of the telegraphers, who went on strike, have gradually returned to work in Boston.

Card Party.

All Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families, are invited to attend a card party, to be held at Odd Fellows Hall, Friday evening, November 1st, at 8 o'clock. Gateway Social Club. 10-30-26

Dance.

Liberty Bell Social Club will give a dance Saturday night, November 2, at Logan's Hall. Ecklund music. 10-29-24
