THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alart, the Astorian office. Phone Main 661. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

A large party of young people left on the Melville for Cathlamet on Friday evening, returning in the "we sma" hours. The event was a roller-skating party and all those attending spent an enjoyable evening and speak highly of their entertainment by the Washington people. A sumptuous repast was served by the Cathlamet ladies. The visiting party was composed of Mrs. J. E. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Streunmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Havard, and the Misses Higgins, Utzinger, Goddard, Reed, Bess Reed, Tallant, Drain, Noland Parker, Shaner, Kerchoff, and Miss Wells of Portland and Messrs. Whiting, Buck, Schell, Allen, Higgins, Reed, Hughes, Utzinger, Sovey, Long, Clarke, Hartwig, Lounsbury, Schultz, Swope, Stein, Ross, Wright and O'Loane.

Mrs. Charles A. Callender entertained the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club this week at her home on Fifteenth street.

The members of the Queen Louise Lodge were entertained by Mrs. Herman Wise on Thursday afternoon at her home on Harrison avenue. A large number of the members were in attendance and a general good time was had by the ladies.

Mrs. N. Troyer and Misses Hattie May Utzinger are visiting in Portland. Cards are out announcing the marriage on November 17th of Miss Sarah Fredrickson of South Bend, Wash., and Mr. Oliver Lazell of this city. The wedding will be solemnized at the home of the bride's brother in Portland. The groom is a resident of Astoria and is well and favorably known. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Lazell will reside in this city.

The members of the Relief Corps held their annual sale on Friday afternoon and evening. Refreshments were served to those attending and a neat sum was realized from the sale of useful and fancy articles.

Mrs. Charles Abercrombie has charge of the musical program which will be rendered at the Elks' memorial service that is held annually on the first Sunday in December.

Mrs. George H. Colwell was hostess of the Thursday afternoon five hundred club this week. This club has several new members among them four brides. The game of 600 was played, Mrs. Earle Fischer and Mrs. R. R. Carrothers winning the prizes.

Miss Anna McLean was given a very charming miscellaneous shower on Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Fosset, 273 Ninth street, by the D. M. C. D. Club and a number of invited guests. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums and great bunches of kinnekelecks with red hearts hid among the green. Five hundred was played, the lucky prize-winner being Mrs. J. M. Holt, the consolation prize falling to the lot of Mrs. C. W. Spriggs. A delicious luncheon was served and the place cards used were four-leaf clovers with a picture of the "bride-to-be" in the center. Those present were the Misses Holmes, Alma and Augusta Holmes, Sands, Mackey, Nelle, May and Hattie Utzinger, Morton Gray, McLean and Fosset, Mesdames Utzinger, McLean, Masterson, Streunmeyer, Holt, Lowe and Spriggs.

Mrs. Cyrus gave a delightful "at home" to the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and a number of invited guests on Thursday afternoon at her home on Duane street. The parlors were prettily decorated for the occasion with nasturtiums and running vines. During the business meeting Mrs. Christensen was elected to membership, after the devotional exercises. Those present were favored by a musical program rendered by the Misses Schisted and Lena Fastabend who gave piano selections and the Misses Jeffers with violins. Later the hostess assisted by Mrs. Fastabend and the Misses Fastabend, Jeffers and Williams served a delicious luncheon of sandwiches, cake and coffee to the ladies. Those present were the Mesdames Ball, Estes, Fastabend, Jeffers, Graham, Linenweber, Rannels, Gearheart, Brenner, Wright, Gaston, Hawthorne, Fox, Ferguson, Belland, Wilson, Oberg, Smith, Gambel, Morrison, Schisted, Sherman and Christensen, and the Misses Schisted, Fastabend, Jeffers and McCrea.

Miss Selby of Corvallis who has been the guest of Mrs. V. Wright for several weeks, returned to her home on Saturday.

A lecture will be given in the Methodist Church on Tuesday night by Dr. E. S. Chapman, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of California and famous as the leader of the "stainless flag" movement. No admission fee will be charged, and it is earnestly hoped that a large number will be present.

At the home of J. M. Heckard, nine miles out on the Lewis and Clark, Elhott H. Henderson of Fort Stevens and Amy A. Heckard were married Wednesday noon. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present. Miss Minnie Larsen was bridesmaid and Mr. Edwin S. Heckard, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The Rev. William S. Gilbert performed the ceremony. On their return from a wedding trip to the Sound cities Mr. and Mrs. Henderson will reside in Hammond.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Clara Marian and Mr. Ralph B. Steinberger at Vancouver, Wash., on October 21st. The contracting parties are well and favorably known in Astoria.

Miss Fanny Randa, of Westport, and Mr. Alex Pellman of Ranier were married at the residence of John Jacobsen in Uppertown. Rev. Gustave E. Rydquist performing the ceremony. Only a few immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. After a short honeymoon trip, the young couple will make their home in Rainier.

Cards have been issued by Mrs. Carrolton Allen for a reception on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Robert Carrothers, Jr., who is one of this season's brides. Mrs. Carrothers visited here last summer and during her stay made many friends, who will be glad to welcome her back in their midst.

Last Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mrs. Charles H. Abercrombie, on Irving avenue, the Symphony Club and Dr. Enna's piano pupils were entertained at a lecture-recital by Dr. Enna, who took for his subject the late composer, Edward Grieg. After Grieg had been discussed and played the doctor played a number of his own compositions. Light refreshments concluded the evening's entertainment.
