TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Ready to Grade—
 Contractor Heckard's big donkey engine is winding 2000 feet of cable on its drum and getting in readiness to begin grading on Tenth street between Harrison and Kensington.

One-Fifth Off—
 For the next few days there will be a flat reduction of 20 per cent on the great furniture stock of Charles Heilborn & Company, and this without reservation of any sort.

Twenty Per Cent Off—
 Everything in the immense stock carried by Charles Heilborn & Company, will be sold for some time to come, at a clean cut of 20 per cent, without regard to what the article may be.

Eighty Cents—
 The prices on all the huge stock of furniture at the store of Charles Heilborn & Company, have been reduced to 80 cents on the dollar, throughout. This will continue for some time. The stock must be reduced.

Twenty Cents Saved—
 The buyer of anything sold by Charles Heilborn & Company, for some time to come, may save 20 cents on the dollar as the house is making that reduction, flat, on all goods, in order to lessen the stock. Don't forget it, and don't fail to use it!

No Let-up in Work—
 Agent Giles B. Johnson, of the A. & C. R. R. Company, in this city, reports that there is no diminution of repair or construction work, or force, on that line, and that the company has any amount of work planned and material at hand for it. And Agent G. W. Roberts, of the O. R. & N. service says the same thing, for his people, and that the I. R. & N. extension will not be stopped under any circumstances until the tunnel at Fort Columbia is completed after which, it is said, the rails on that north-shore improvement, can be laid in ten days.

The Astorian Erred—
 In accounting for the fine performance of R. H. Jenkins chestnut mare, Iva J., in yesterday morning's issue, the Astorian, for want of definite information, reported that that animal had taken no prize at the great Horse Show at Portland; whereas, she did take the blue-ribbon for four years old mares, and deserved it, too. We are glad we made the mistake just to signify our willingness to correct it.

Under Treatment—
 Mrs. Edward O'Connor, yesterday, was admitted to St. Mary's Hospital, where she will receive treatment for a while and try the efficacy of a rest-cure, which her host of friends in Astoria hope may prove of distinct benefit.

Bail Re-Adjusted—
 Justice P. J. Goodman yesterday fixed the bail of Nicholas Kaseppi, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, at the sum of the maximum fine that may be imposed for such an offense to-wit, $25; and the case will be disposed of when the court is permitted to resume its function, in other words, when the "holidays" are over.

Getting Busy Again—
 Night Clerk Thomas Dakyns, of the Parker House, who recently "busted" his left foot, causing its owner to retire to the seclusion of his room for a week, is out again and all right, save for a distinct, yet dignified, limp, and will take charge of his desk tonight. H. B. Parker, the octogenarian proprietor of that hostelry, will leave on this morning's express for Portland, to study the financial situation at close quarters.

Sunday School Rally Tonight—
 The Sunday school rally which will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening, at the First Methodist Church, has been most carefully provided for and promises to be a very interesting convention. Mr. A. H. Cross, who represents the Marion Lawrence Sunday school at Toledo, Ohio, and who comes strongly recommended as a gifted and competent exponent in this great premise, will be the orator of the evening and in the handling of his subject, "Sunday School Success," will give the impressions of a devoted scholar and man of large experience. There will, no doubt, be a large attendance from all the Sunday schools of the city and the occasion will be one well and happily remembered by those who shall have the fortune to be on hand.

BOARD OF EDUCATION HOLDS MEETING

ROUTINE MATTERS DISCUSSED— COMMUNICATIONS READ AND ADOPTED—BILLS ARE ALLOWED FOR MONTH.

The board of education of the city of Astoria met in their rooms at the City Hall last evening, those present being J. A. Eakin, Jas. W. Welch, F. J. Taylor, T. L. Ball and A. L. Clark, clerk.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved after which audience was given to Miss Barker, who addressed the board regarding the crowded conditions of the Taylor school. At the conclusion of Miss Barker's remarks Superintendent Clark recommended that an extra teacher be placed in the Taylor school to relieve the congestion at that place, and the recommendation was adopted. Miss Barker's salary was placed at $80 per month, beginning when the extra rooms are added to the school building.

A communication was read from C. H. Page, chairman of the police commission to the effect that he had appointed Chief of Police Gammal as truant officer. The clerk was instructed to acknowledge the receipt of the letter and to express the appreciation of the board to Mr. Page and the commission.

The tuition rules regarding non-resident pupils were ordered enforced. The salary of the janitor of the Taylor school was placed at $50 per month, to begin when the Olney school building is joined with the Taylor.

Bids for warrants were received and awarded.

A Wonderful Treat—
 The auditorium of the First Presbyterian church was crowded last evening with a cultured audience, gathered to listen to the lecture of Rev. Dr. J. S. Chapman, one of the notable orators of the American rostrum, who dealt most ably and profoundly with the deathless question of temperance and intemperance. It was a treat of the most pronounced sort, since the speaker handled it from the standpoint of one whose life is devoted to its best presentations to the people of this land, and whose heart is deep in his work. There was scarcely a phase of the great issue that was not ordered in the course of the address, nor is saying too much to declare that good will come of the event, so deep was the impression made by the venerable speaker. It is not often the chance is given to hear addresses of this character and they who availed themselves of last night's opportunity, will never forget it.

To All Brother Redmen—
 We, Neornis Tribe No. 12, I. O. E. M., do hereby respectfully invite all Redmen in this Reservation to attend a grand initiation to be given on the evening of November 14, 1907, at Hammond, Oregon. J. Lechman, Sachem; George Bryant, C. of R. 11-12-2t.

MET WITH MUCH ENCOURAGEMENT

AFFAIRS OF CLATSOP FUEL COMPANY IN ROSEATE CONDITION AND MANY LEASES ARE BEING SECURED.

A number of the subscribers of the Clatsop Fuel Company held a meeting in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce last evening and discussed the outlook for the company, and devised ways and means for the furtherance of the oil-boring project.

Much encouragement is being met with in the matter of securing of leases to lands on which it is proposed to drill wells, and not only are the owners showing willingness to sign the leases, but in many instances they are subscribing for stock in the company.

The books of the company are now open to permit of subscriptions for stock, the price per share having been fixed at $1. Each subscriber will be allotted any number of shares he may desire from 1 to 200. The books are in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce and persons who are interested either in subscribing for the stock, or who have land that they would place under lease are requested to communicate with Mr. Whyte, manager of the Chamber, as it takes considerable time to cover all the territory wished to be reached and the company has no desire to slight anyone in the matter of stock or leases.

Several new leases were signed up yesterday, and Mr. C. N. Sherman and Mr. Jeffers, who were interviewing property holders have not met with a single objection to the proposition.

Leases are to be obtained from the Clatsop, Lewis and Clark, Young's River, John Day, Walluski, Knappa, Gray's River, Deep River and Crooked Creek districts, and as soon as success is met with in one well several others will be drilled in a number of different places.

 NO PERSONAL MENTION ***

G. Wingate, of this city, will leave for Portland on this morning's express. Mrs. Frank Donnerberg has returned from a protracted visit to her mother's home in Portland, and left that lady in much improved health.

F. H. Dekner, of San Francisco, is in the city on business and is quartered at the Occident.

G. D. Soodar, of Portland, was among the arrivals at the Occident yesterday.

A. L. Dunlap, of Chicago, is in the city on a tour of business.

J. J. Hurlbert, of New York, arrived here yesterday on a business quest.

N. S. Wood, of Carlton, reached this city yesterday, and is engaged in business matters here.

J. C. Bodham, of New York, is in Astoria, and will remain for several days, being domiciled at the Occident.

Miss Glenn Will, of Los Angeles, is visiting in Astoria.

F. P. Kendall, of Portland, is making a business visit to Astoria.

C. L. Lindsey, of San Francisco, is visiting this city for a few days.

Labor Council Meets—
 The regular meeting of the Central Labor Council was held last night and routine business transacted. The council appointed a committee, consisting of Charles Gittera, W. E. Smith and Mat Nyland to make arrangements for the Oregon State Federation of Labor to be held January 6 and 8 in Astoria. The Longshoremen's Union reported having made an amicable settlement with the steamship companies.

FUNERAL NOTICE.
 The funeral of Fannie Sophia, daughter of Mr and Mrs. John Granberg, will take place from Pohl's funeral parlors, at 1 o'clock p. m. on this, Wednesday, November 13th, 1907; interment being had at Greenwood cemetery. Friends of the family are invited to be present.

CHEAPER IN ENGLAND.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Two thousand bales of cotton were shipped from Liverpool today for New York. The reason for this remarkable shipment is that the pool in cotton, made up of leading New York cotton brokers, has advanced the December option to such a figure that it is cheaper to buy cotton in Liverpool than in New York.

CONSUL-GENERAL ARRIVES.
 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 12.—Walter Risley Hearn, the newly appointed British consul-general at San Francisco, has arrived in this city. Mr. Hearn came from Havre, France, where he has been consul-general for four years.

The latest word from Paris is given expression in some magnificent hats that have just arrived. They illustrate in an authoritative way what is really right for mid-winter wear. Most of these hats are for dress wear; they're large of course. Much that is in the way of trimming is shown on them. This hint—you will be surprised at the amount of gold and silver used for trimming.
