TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Wanted.
 A boy to carry papers, apply Morning Astorian. 11-12-11.

Funeral Today—
 The funeral of the late Mrs. Amelia Kazeppi will be conducted from St. Mary's Church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. Father Waters, officiating.

First of Its Kind—
 The clerk of school district No. 4, located at Knappa, yesterday filed formal notice with County Clerk Clinton, of the levy made by the directors of that district, for the coming year, of seven mills, and the same was duly entered.

Matters in Probate—
 In the matter of the estate of the late Mrs. Lucinda Hill, deceased, of Walla Walla, papers were filed here yesterday showing that decedent left two heirs, her son and daughter, Mrs. Bertha Hill and Dorsey M. Hill, and among the properties left, were lots 6 and 7 in block 12, Railway Addition to Astoria.

One Deed at a Time—
 Aside from the numerous other instruments being filed for record at the county clerk's office these days, the deeds seem to come in lonesome singles. Yesterday the appearance in this behalf, was from Nennie A. Upton to J. H. Smith, conveying 100 acres of land in section 4-9 west, the consideration named being $1350.

Carried His Provisions—
 W. F. McGregor departed for Seaside last evening, accompanied by six or eight plump ducks, which he proposes to utilize for his Sunday dinner there with some friends. If these birds are of the bunch he bought on his last hunting trip and which he avers cost him $5 apiece, his friends will partake of a forty-dollar meal tomorrow; rather high-priced feeding these days, but if W. C. can stand it they ought to.

Nothing Doing—
 The rumor circulated on our streets last evening to the effect that the O. R. & N. Company is to make extensive improvements in the near future is found upon investigation to be a canard of "purest gem." In point of fact we are credibly informed that the company has no such intentions, and the denial comes from no less person, than Mr. G. W. Roberts, the manager for the Oregon Railway & Navigation company at this place.

Nothing Broke—
 One of the Sherman transfer trucks met with a peculiar accident at the corner of Twelfth and Commercial street yesterday noon, when the hind wheels nearest the easterly sidewalk, suddenly caved in through the street timbers, and lodged there with their big load of 25-foot timbers holding it down with grim weight. It was soon pried out and was apparently none the worse for the odd experience.

Has Resigned His Position—
 Fred Heyberg, the well known salesman, who has served the Foard & Stokes Hardware Company, and the concern that preceded it, for a very long time, has resigned his position, and, in partnership with James Johnson, the well known agent in this city for Wells, Fargo & Company, will enter the commercial field here, at some point on Commercial street in the very near future, probably by the first of the coming month. The new firm will have the best wishes of a large group of friends in their new venture, which will be in the furniture and house supply lines.

Change His Office—
 A. L. Clark, city superintendent of schools will have to vacate his office in the City Hall to make place for the City Attorney, C. H. Abercrombie. The office was originally intended for the use of the city's legal advisor, but Mr. Abercrombie has been making use of his down-town office, and has been using the city superintendent has been using the office. The increased business of the City Attorney's office compels him to move to the City Hall, and the office of the Superintendent of Schools will have to be moved from the building as the offices are now all occupied.

Eighty Cents—
 The prices on all the huge stock of furniture at the store of Charles Heilborn & Company, have been reduced to 80 cents on the dollar, throughout. This will continue for some time. The stock must be reduced.

Twenty Cents Saved—
 The buyer of anything sold by Charles Heilborn & Company, for some time to come, may save 20 cents on the dollar, as the house is making that reduction, flat, on all goods, in order to lessen the stock. Don't forget it, and don't fail to use it!

Paid Fifty Per Cent—
 As an indication of the current scarcity of ready money even among the richest of the business corporations around here, it may be stated that the Astoria Box Company yesterday paid off its 100 or more employees, at the rate of 50 per cent of the wage due; simply because it could not compass the handling of any more cash. But all this will gradually mend, until things are on normal footing again.

Crew Paid Off—
 Eight members of the crew of the American schooner Americana were paid off at the custom house yesterday morning. The men shipped from Port Los Angeles for the run to the Columbia river, and were to have been paid off several days ago, but the drafts on San Francisco were not received in time to pay the crew when the vessel arrived.

Information Filed—
 An information was filed in the justice court this afternoon charging Carl Wager with obtaining money under false pretenses. The defendant is one of the men who was arrested for passing bogus bank notes a few days ago. His companions were ordered to leave town, and stood not on the order of their going. The preliminary of the defendant will be held after the bank holidays are at an end.

Fifteenth Annual Meeting—
 The Irving Club held its fifteenth annual meeting last night at its club rooms in the Astoria Savings Bank building and the following officers were elected: President, Herman F. Prael; first vice-president, E. Z. Ferguson; second vice-president, A. A. Finch; secretary, Otto F. Heilborn; treasurer, J. R. A. Bennett; directors—H. L. Henderson, C. H. Callender, A. L. Fox, Chris Schmidt and Asmus Brix. After the business of the meeting was finished refreshments were served.

A Happy Thought—
 Tomorrow is Sunday so take that suit down to 179 Eleventh street and have it pressed. Do it now! Carl Franseen, the Astoria Tailor. Phone 3711.
