TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

Change of Officers—

Sergeant Major Beasley leaves, in a short time, for Fort Baker and will be succeeded by Sergeant Major Dittman who will reach here in a short time.

Drawing Class—

Miss Belle Mattley will receive her pupils in drawing at her studio, room 7, at 680 Commercial street, on Saturdays, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Rates reasonable. 11-24-27.

Move Next Week—

The offices for the city superintendent of schools in the Odd Fellows' building are being fitted up and the superintendent will occupy them early this week.

City Pays Money—

City Treasurer Dealey has paid $4770 of the city's wealth in cancellation of warrants on the various funds during the present month.

Funeral Today—

The remains of William Boando, who died suddenly on Friday, will be buried from Gilbaugh's undertaking parlors today at 1 p. m. The interment will be at Greenwood cemetery.

West Bond Street Planking—

The planking of the roadway, on the west end of Bond street, was not completed last night, as it was expected it would be, although the men worked hard. The weather has interfered with the work to a great extent but it is thought that by Wednesday night the street will be passable and much of the inconvenience obviated.

The Commercial.

The Commercial still continues to do a good business. The finest grades of different kinds of refreshments kept at this well known establishment assures a continuance of its popularity. The proprietor, Otto Sund, is a genial gentleman, and is well and favorably known in this city. Drop into the Commercial when in the neighborhood. It is on Commercial street near Eleventh.

Official and Social—

Miss Cora M. Davis, state president of the Oregon Woman's Relief Corps, spent Friday in this city, inspecting the local corps, and during her stay was the guest of a first-class cook, a lady from the East, whose chief pride is her ability to build the reputation of her restaurant upon her adeptness at the range.

Eat and be Happy—

The Parker House Restaurant has been opened up and is now in the hands of a first-class cook, a lady from the East, whose chief pride is her ability to build the reputation of her restaurant upon her adeptness at the range.

Off for the Asylum—

State Attendants S. A. Parks and A. Cameron, of the Oregon Asylum for the Insane, arrived down from the capital on Friday night, and left up yesterday morning in charge of Israel Nelson the insane patient recently committed to that institution for the fourth time.

ASTORIA'S NEW AND ROSENBERG TO THE FRONT

SCANDINAVIAN-AMERICAN BANK WILL OPEN ITS DOORS TOMORROW MORNING—ITS OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS AND PROSPECTS.

At 9 o'clock tomorrow morning the doors of the Scandinavian-American Savings Bank, Astoria's new, and fourth institution of the kind, will be thrown open to the waiting public. It is handsomely established at 506-508 Commercial street, one door east of the Higgins' book house and no pains nor money have been spared to make the place convenient, comfortable and pleasing; and the safety appointments of the bank are admirable and commensurate with its capital and standing.

The administration of the bank's affairs will be in the capable hands of J. M. Anderson, a young man whose whole business career has been devoted to the business, and whose many friends in this state will watch with interest his cashiership of the new venture, while predicting for him unbounded success.

The capital of the Scandinavian-American is $50,000 divided into 500 shares of the par value of $100 each; and the institution is officered as follows: President, Gust Holmes, of this city; vice-president, C. G. Palmberg, the well known local contractor; treasurer, Eisek Maunula, of this city, with John Nordstrom, an assistant cashier; Mr. Anderson adding the important duties of secretary to those of cashier. The directory of the new bank is as follows: C. F. Hendrickson, president of the Scandinavian-American Bank of Portland, a man of large wealth and experience in banking and the greatest business elements; Dr. Henry W. Coe, of Portland, a prominent physician of the metropolis and interested in two other banks in this State and Washington; Gust Holmes, C. G. Palmberg, John Mattson, Andrew Young, Erick Maunula and August Danielson, all of this city, and J. M. Anderson.

The bank starts on its career with the best possible assurance to be drawn from such a group of responsible men as this, and is particularly fortunate in possessing the advantage, at this peculiar juncture in the financial affairs of the country; for, rising from the very midst of such inopportune conditions, the success of the bank will add materially to the credit for sagacity and conservatism already enjoyed by these men, every one of whom has the full respect and confidence of this community.

The Morning Astorian desires to be classed among the new bank's well wishers, of whom there are plenty in the City-by-the-Sea.

Figures Don't Lie—

Published figures, over the name of a reliable firm have a convincing ring and hold the essence of advantage to whosoever shall use them. Note the string of quotations in the Charles Heilborn & Company ad. in this issue.

The Reaper Grim—

John Malloy, a cigar-maker, aged 54 years, died in St. Mary's hospital yesterday morning of heart disease. The deceased was a native of Ireland, and had resided in Astoria but a few weeks. He was a cigarmaker by trade, having been a member of the Cigarmakers' Union for 22 years. The funeral will be held under the auspices of the union at St. Mary's Church, today, and the remains interred in Greenwood cemetery. Oscar Sunell, a native of Finland, about 28 years of age, died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday morning of tuberculosis. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

LEAVES TODAY FOR CHICAGO AND WASHINGTON TO ATTEND CONVENTION AND HEARING—WILL RETURN IN JANUARY.

Secretary Ed Rosenberg, of The United Fishermen of the Pacific, leaves for Chicago, via Seattle, this morning. Mr. Rosenberg, accompanied by Secretary H. M. Lorentsen, of the Columbia River Fishermen's Union, returned from a trip to Salem, on Friday night and while away did good work on the proposed initiative measure to prevent fishing above idewater. All day yesterday, in spite of the fierce weather, both gentlemen, were busy interviewing local business men and have received promises of the support of all the leading men. Mr. Rosenberg's mission to Chicago is to attend a convention of the International Seamen's Union of America, which will be held on December 2nd, to which he is a delegate. He expects to receive the moral and financial support of this organization, and if there is any one capable of properly placing the matter before the convention it is Mr. Rosenberg who is thoroughly familiar with all the details of the subject.

After the adjournment of the Chicago convention Mr. Rosenberg will proceed to Washington where he will be present at the hearing on the question of the closing of fishing in Wood River, entirely, and the stopping of traps in Nushagak River, Bristol Bay, Bering Sea, which will be held on December 16th, before Secretary of Commerce and Labor Strauss.

Mr. Rosenberg will then return to Astoria and in connection with Secretary Laurentsen will take up the campaign for the initiative measure and both men being active and well posted there is little doubt of the outcome. Mr. Rosenberg will return about the first week in January.

PERSONAL MENTION

S. R. Davis, of Portland, is in the city. F. M. Branch, of Portland, arrived in Astoria yesterday.

D. Mann, of New York, is visiting Astoria and is registered at the Occident.

Harry McDermott came up from Warrenton yesterday to spend Sunday with friends in Astoria.

J. C. Aberdale, of Seattle, came in on last night's train and will leave for Seaside tomorrow.

Corporal Rowan, of Fort Stevens, spent last night in Astoria.

Sergeant Stanton came up from Fort Stevens yesterday and will return today.

John Lewis, of John Day's River, paid his periodical visit to Astoria yesterday. He returns to his home this morning.

Kenneth O'Loane, the genial Hibernian who looks after Blake-McFall Company's interests in this neck of the woods, returned last evening from the Washington side of the river, where he has been attending to business for his house.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. George, of Santa Clara, Cal., are spending the winter with their son, George H. George.

The Chance is Yours—

A glance at the advertisement of Charles Heilborn & Company, in this issue, will indicate to you where and what that chance is, and what it is worth to you.

"Gun Sling Dave"—

Sergeant Davidson, who has been at Fort Stevens for the past 43 years, has been appointed ordnance sergeant, and will be transferred to another station, which, as yet, has not been named. Sergeant Davidson is known throughout the United States Army as "Gun Sling Dave," and is considered the best shot in the service. In last year's competition he excelled the year's record and his many friends think he can repeat the performance. His fellow army men regret his coming departure, but are pleased at his advancement.

Whist Party—

A very pleasant function was successfully carried out last night when L. E. Lent entertained some of his gentlemen friends at a whist party, in his apartments at 252 Bond street. The genial host in his bachelor quarters, made every one feel at home, and a jolly good evening was spent. Clarence Tyler won the booby prize.

The Grace of Cash—

Cash is always the important thing with most men and women, and when it has the grace of low figures for desirable goods, it means more than ever to all concerned. That's what it means is the Charles Heilborn & Company schedules of reductions, published in this issue.
