STEAMSHIP ELDER ARRIVES

Example of Marine Insurance—Fleet Bar-Bound Below—Sunday Getaways—Senator Due Down and Out This Morning—Notes.

The American barkentine is due down from Portland, lumber laden for Redondo, California.

The steamer Washington, with a big load of lumber for the California coast, is due down from Portland this morning.

The steamship Costa Rica is due from the Bay City on Thursday morning next.

The oil steamer Col. E. L. Drake, was among the Sunday get-aways, going over the bar, for San Francisco, at 3:15 p. m. on that day.

The Norwegian steamship Aker arrived down from the metropolis on Sunday afternoon at 12:35 and went below to await her chance to get to sea. She is grain laden for Yokohama.

The British steamship Woodford came down from Portland just after high noon Sunday with a big cargo of grain billed to Melbourne, Australia. She lies below ready for the first good bar that offers.

The steamship Senator is due down from Portland, on her way to San Francisco, at an early hour this morning, and will leave out from the O. R. & N. pier very shortly after reaching here.

The steamship Queen Louise, grain laden for St. Vincent, for orders, came down the river yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, and is lying in the city channel awaiting the subsidence of the Columbia bar.

The Kamm steamer Lurline came down from Portland at 5 o'clock yesterday evening, with a thousand cases of salmon for the Callender pier and a number of people in her cabins, leaving up on the return trip at 7 o'clock, as usual. Captain Larkin reported that on the way down he found the steamer Jones, bilged on the sands near Ladue's landing, with her housing under water and abandoned. She was one of the smaller towing steamers of that belt of river. Inquiry developed the fact that she had been in collision with the oil tank steamer Asuncion which was en route to Portland, and had been badly handled in the mix-up.

Chief Deputy Inspector Allen Anderson, of the Customs service, went to Knappton on Sunday last and swore in the crew of ten on the Simpson schooner Churchill, and Captain Bennewitz has cleared the vessel for Keelung, Formosa, wither she goes with 833,021 feet of square timbers, which will be used in the construction of a huge dry-dock at that port. She carries nothing smaller than 6 by 12, and 12 by 12 inches.

The O. R. & N. steamer Oklahoma came down yesterday to fasten on to the German bark Schurbek, and take her to Portland, but the sea was so rough in the lower harbor she could not approach her to make fast, and she returned to the company's dock here, to wait until the Wallula shall take the Schurbek up off the Tongue, where she can get a hawser aboard without breaking something. She will probably do business this morning.

The steamer Alliance was among the arrivals down from the metropolis early yesterday morning, bound for Coos Bay points. She went to the lower harbor and laid there all day in the hope of breaking her way through the pounding seas on the bar, but she came back to the Callender docks last evening and will try it again this morning.

Captain Bridgitt, of the steamer Asuncion, reports that he sighted the British ship Glenalvon, from Valparaiso to the Columbia river, well in on the ugly shallows about Fox Rock, on Friday last, and stood by to render all assistance in his power if the ship became involved, but she hauled clear, and is now probably off the bar somewhere.

The Roanoke went down from the Callender pier for the second time on Sunday morning, and succeeded in crossing out over the bar at 4 p. m. for Eureka, San Francisco and the lower coast of California.

The steamer R. D. Inman is among the vessels due in this port tomorrow.

The steamer Yosemite is due to arrive in from the California coast sometime today.

The Elmore fleet is all tied up on the lower coast: The Sue H. Elmore at Tillamook Bay; the Evie and the Gerald Cl both at Nehalem, and all bar-bound.

Customs Inspector Charles H. Haddix will resume his duties at the custom house today, after a vacation of 23 days and Inspector Alec Karinen will go on leave for the same period.

The steamship Breakwater arrived in from Coos Bay at 10 o'clock last Sunday morning, and went on to the metropolis at 3:15 in the afternoon. She is due down on the return trip early Thursday morning.

The oil tank steamer Asuncion came in from the Bay City at 1:30 o'clock p. m., on Sunday, and went on up the river almost immediately. She is reported to have fouled the river tug F. R. Jones, just this side of Mount Coffee, near Rainier.

The steamship City of Panama was among the Sunday arrivals, docking here about 6 p. m. and leaving up early yesterday morning. As she came in over the bar a huge roller went aboard of her, astern, tearing out of her "gingerbread" aft and displacing some of her loose freight in a rough-house fashion, but no serious damage was done.

The bay steamers are all busy in spite of the prevalent bad weather, all northshore boats making their runs on time and carrying plenty of people and freight. The Nahotta came over from Ilwaco yesterday afternoon on spot time and reports that the 72-mile wind at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, reached Ilwaco alright without any loss of force or speed.

The steamship Geo. W. Elder arrived in last evening from the California coast, flying light, and carrying but a thousand cases of salmon for the Tallant-Grant Company. She went on up the river as soon as this was landed at the Callender, with Captain Peterson, of the river pilots on her bridge. She reports the bar breaking clear across as she came in.

Just as an instance of thrift and business foresight, and as a hint not to wait for the steamship lines to insure one's freight, the Astorian got onto the following story yesterday: A certain merchant here had a box of valuable Christmas stuff coming on a certain steamer and holding the shipment to be especially necessary to him and his business he had the single box covered by insurance, at the ridiculous cost to him of twenty-five cents, and as luck would have it, the box was smashed to smithereens and the Astoria consignee is correspondingly happy. Marine insurance is too cheap to haggle over, and when one buys it himself he does not have to wait the dilatory tactics of two companies in the settlement.

Notice to Mariners.

Capt. J. Ellison of the steamer J. S. Higgins reports that at 1 p. m., Nov. 16, the steam schooner Berkeley was 6 miles due south of Point Conception, bottom up, keel 5 feet out of water, propeller still attached, wind strong N. W. long swell from westward, weather clear. Capt. Ellison had picked up the Berkeley 11 miles south of Point Conception and towed her for four hours. When he let go she was still holding together, and the Captain thinks she will float.

Billions and Constipation.

For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. The tablets relieve the ill feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally.—Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala. These tablets are for sale by Frank Hart and leading drug-

Funeral Services—

The funeral services over the remains of the late Oscar Suanero will take place at Pohl's mortuary chapel today at 1 o'clock. Deceased was a native of Finland, aged about 29 years, and is survived by a brother and several cousins in this vicinity. Interment will be had in Greenwood cemetery.

C. J. Winchell, of Portland, is paying a business visit to Astoria.

The Commercial.

The Commercial still continues to do a good business. The finest grades of different kinds of refreshments kept at this well known establishment assure a continuance of its popularity. The proprietor, Otto Sund, is a genial gentleman, and is well and favorably known in this city. Drop into the Commercial when in the neighborhood. It is on Commercial street near Eleventh.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstood Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

At the Palace.

A new innovation has been introduced at the Palace Restaurant, which will surely prove popular. Each evening a Spanish or Mexican dish will be prepared by one who is thoroughly acquainted in the intricacies of these toothsome repasts. These dishes, which have been in vogue at this popular place, for about a week, have hit the public taste, and change the present results.

When You Travel.

It costs no more to take advantage of the fast time and superior service of the O. R. & N. and connections than it does to travel on inferior lines. Tickets to all principal points in the United States, Canada and Europe on sale at the O. R. & N. dock. G. W. Roberts, agent.

Skating Rink—

There will be no skating at the rink until Wednesday, the storm having damaged the roof, which is undergoing repairs.
