HER QUERIES.
They Taught Him to Be more Careful in the Future.
"Darling," he asked as he drew his fiancée closer to him. "Am I the only man you ever kissed?"
"Charles," she replied somewhat testily, "I would like to ask you a few questions before we go any further. You are no doubt aware of the fact that papa is worth several million dollars, aren't you?"
"Yes."
"You understand, no doubt, that when he dies all of that vast fortune will be left to me?"
"Yes."
"You know that I have $500,000 in cash in the banks?"
"Yes."
"And own half a million dollars' worth of property?"
"Yes."
"And many shares of stocks and bonds?"
"Yes."
"And that my diamonds are valued at $100,000?"
"Yes."
"And my horses and automobiles at $75,000?"
"Yes."
"And my yachts at $50,000?"
"Yes."
"And my dogs at $25,000?"
"Yes."
"Then, for goodness' sake, why don't you talk sense? What difference would it make to you if I had kissed a thousand men before I met you?"
He hemmed and hawed and stammered and blushed and tried to think of a suitable reply, but finally had to give it up, and when the great heiress began to talk of something else he heaved a deep sigh of relief and swore to himself that he would be more careful in the future.—A. B. Lewis in Judge.

The Intelligent Bird.
About the time when the papers were full of the controversy growing out of the stories of the "nature fakirs" two negroes in Washington were overheard discussing the intelligence of birds in general.
"Birds is shore sensible," observed one darky to the other. "Yo' kin learn them anything. I uster work for a lady that had one in a clook, an' when it was time to tell de time it uster come out an' say cuckoo jest as many times as de time was!"
"Yo' don' say so?" asked the other negro incredulously.
"Shore thing!" responded the first darky. "But de mos' wonderful part was dat it was only a wooden bird too!"—Harper's Weekly.

For Consumptives
A specialist of a noted Eastern clinic gives the following formula as the best known formula for consumption:
Mix two ounces of glycerine with eight ounces of good whiskey and add one-half ounce of Concentrated oil of pine. Take a teaspoonful or a table spoonful every four hours.
Care should be taken to get the real Concentrated oil of pine, which comes only in one-half ounce vials sealed in round air-tight screw-top cases. The ingredients can be procured at any drug store. The above formula will also cure bad coughs and colds very quickly.

Managers of the Yale Harvard football game sold the currency taken in at a profit of $1000. No doubt the cry of commercialism will be raised.

Danger in Asking Advice.
When you have a cough or cold do not ask some one what is good for it, as there is danger in taking some unknown preparation. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs, colds, and prevents pneumonia. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

It may be a mere coincidence that the note of the boss politician of Brooklyn disappeared from the records of the political bank after its suspension. But, then, anything is likely to happen in Brooklyn.

A DANGEROUS DEADLOCK.
hat sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr. King's New Life Pills should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at Chas. Rogers drug store, 25c.

The national revenue is entirely satisfactory in a time of financial flurry. Never yet has the good old Dingley tariff been tried and found wanting.

BADLY MIXED UP.
Abraham Brown, Winterson, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by Chas. Rogers druggist, 50.
