cal Shoppers.

A PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

The throngs of customers who purchased yesterday will endorse our statement that such values were never before offered in Astoria or in any other town. Remember these garments are of the highest character relative to style, snap, quality, patterns and workmanship. The stocks consist of Ladies' Suits, Coats, Evening Suits, Opera Coats, Cravettes, Skirts, Millinery, Silk Petticoats, Waists, Neckwear and Children's Dresses. Every garment is new, fresh and stylish. The people of Astoria and vicinity are well aware of the fact that when Jaloff's Store announces a sale it means extraordinary values at ridiculously low prices; not merely the working off of undesirable garments. The Jaloff Store is growing with the growth of Astoria and its future depends upon the reputation it enjoys among the people of Astoria. This fact is an insurance against misrepresentation. We back every statement we make. Now is the time to act. Take advantage of the rarest opportunity offered you during the Great Money Raising Sale and supply your wardrobe with three garments for the price of one.

PAST RECORDS BROKEN

We propose to make this Sale the Greatest Sale in our history. Every dollar's worth of Surplus stock has been marked at prices to close it out in a week; cost, former value and loss will not be considered: we are bound to sell the goods. We mean just what we say and want you to regard every word as a cold fact. We consider it a wise loss, and take it cheerfully.

This Sale Will Last Just a FEW MORE DAYS and It Is a Buying Opportunity That None Should Miss.

THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alort, Astorian office. Phone Main 661. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

A concert will be given in the First Presbyterian Church on the evening of Sunday 14th by Prof. Emil Enna for the benefit of the Seamen's Institute. Prof. Enna will be assisted by the Norwegian male chorus and Mrs. C. H. Sercombe will sing the solo part of the Norwegian anthem composed by Mr. Eig. "Den Store Hvide Flok vi Ser," the Great White Heavenly Throng we see," which has become exceedingly popular both in Europe and America. Prof. Enna has made for himself an enviable record in this country in this country as a musical genius and this entertainment will prove a rare treat to music lovers and the general public and will also give the people of Astoria an opportunity to help in a worthy cause of the Seamen's Institute. There is no doubt but that a large attendance at an entertainment will testify the appreciation of the people of Astoria for a commendable work.

The members of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church gave a Shamrock Social in the church parlors on Wednesday night. There was a good attendance and the evening was delightfully spent. Irish melodies and recitations were given by the different members and each number of the program was a treat for the hearers. Mrs. Stella Thompson read a paper on the history of Ireland, dealing with the characteristics and triumphs of the people. Jennie Jeffers gave two recitations of the Irish dialect and Miss Whidby sang songs and the entire assemblage ended in singing "The Harp That Once Told of Tara's Hall."

The success of the social was largely due to the able efforts of Miss Twidwell who had the entertainment in charge.

Gaston, Gearheart and Jeffers were the committee that had this work in charge.

The Thursday Afternoon Club was entertained this week by Mrs. Earl Fisher at her beautiful home on Franklin avenue. Six-handed euchre was played, Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. George Colwell were the lucky prize winners.

Mrs. F. A. Fisher is in Portland for several days' stay.

The Liberty Bell Social Club gave a successful dancing party last night in Logan's Hall. Excellent music was furnished by the Pacific orchestra. There was a good attendance.

This week has been a quiet one in the social circles of the city for the reason that everyone is busily engaged in preparations for Christmas. The young people who have been attending school and college in different towns have been arriving home the last few days with visions of dainty gifts and happy preparations for the holidays before them. There has been several beautiful sunshiny days this week and the street and stores were filled with enthusiastic shoppers all bent on purchasing dainty or substantial remembrances as the case may be. Several swell events are booked for the coming holiday season that will be attended by a crowd of elegantly gowned women and attentive escorts. Preparations for several weddings which will take place in the near future are also in progress, and the happy events are looked forward to with great pleasure by the invited guests.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school will give a charming Christmas entertainment on Monday night in the auditorium of the church. After the literary program, the children will be given a substantial treat.

Miss Warren entertained the ladies missionary society of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. Interesting papers pertaining to the work of the society in different countries were read and the study hour was a profitable one. Dainty refreshments were served during the afternoon and the ladies attending spent a very pleasant time.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.
The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says: "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

The Astorian, 60 cents monthly.
