MESSAGE IS PRESENTED

 Third: Said franchise to oblige the company to furnish a good quality of gas at rates no higher than is paid in other cities of similar size.
 Fourth: Requiring the company to pay to the City an annual license, the same as is being paid by other public service corporations, here and elsewhere.
 Fifth: Incorporating a provision for free gas in the City hall and in the fire engine houses now built or hereafter to be built by the City.
 These requirements, I submit, are not unreasonable. If the receipts from gas lights are not as large as formerly, it is because it is of much poorer quality, and perhaps used principally as a fender to keep competition off the track. And that is worth something, is it not?
Conclusion.
 In conclusion I ask your pardon for this lengthy message—but this has been an eventful year; a year that has seemed to me an age. No one who has ever tasted the bitterness of the struggle between Friendship and Duty can quite realize the feeling: still, if, as a result of the intense controversy, but one poor woman has a happier home—if but one child has gained a pair of shoes—if but one boy or girl has been kept from going wrong—our work has not been in vain!
 Let me hope that the present year may bring to you, to me, and to everyone within the confines of this City more health, more happiness, and that calm feeling of satisfaction which is the Fruit of Duty well performed.
 Respectfully submitted,
HERMAN WISE,
 Mayor.

At the conclusion of the reading of the message the members and spectators joined in a hearty applause. The council then adopted a resolution fixing the first and third Mondays of every month as the regular time for the sessions of the council. Adjournment was then taken.
 The council met in regular session last evening for the first time in the new year all of the members being present and at the conclusion of the roll call the minutes of the previous meeting, the special session of December 19th and the special session of the morning were read and approved.
 The report of the committee on ways and means was then proceeded with as follows:
 Petition from O. F. Morton and others in regard to cancelling certain liens in the city lien docket as pertains to property owned by Myra C. Reed. Moved and seconded that matter be continued to next regular meeting.

How to Avoid Appendicitis.
 Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse
