PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce, and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, Jan. 24.—Receipts of pork in the market continue so large as to exert a weakening tendency, but stocks are not so heavy as to force serious cut in prices. In veal some fairly good stock has been received the past few days, but much that comes in is of low grade, large, underfed and coarse. The best veal is today worth 9 cents, while inferior stuff goes at 4 to 6 cents a pound.

FORECAST OF FASHION.

Buttons Trim Tailor Made—Hat Echoes Coat Color—The Bonnet Toque.
All the new walking suits are trimmed with buttons. The coats are fastened double or single breasted with them, and many have side slits in the back, decorated with half a dozen rows of buttons. These buttons are of the same material as the suit or of velvet and are sometimes set in a ring of metal.
It is distinctly the thing to wear a hat that does not match the frock.

CHILDREN'S UNDERWEAR—514.

though in the case of a costume with a contrasting coat the hat usually echoes the coat color.
There is a divinely sunshiny new cloth of gold that lends its services to evening wraps and is pressed into use for a lining for very open laces on bodices.
The white lace and embroidered linen coat sets will not be much in favor for street wear with tailored suits. They are too cold looking, except for the early weeks in winter.
The bonnet and hat are much discussed questions for the elderly woman. The bonnet tied under the chin is entirely out of fashion. In its place the bonnet toque, which is not only becoming, but suitable as well.
Fine cambric is as pretty and satisfactory a material for children's underwear as any thing that can be found. In the underwaist and drawers illustrated cambric is used, with trimmings of embroidery. The little waist is prettily full and is supplied with a band to which the drawers and the petticoats can be buttoned.
JUDIC CHOLLET.

What's in a Letter.

Guyer—Still single? Why, what became of Mr. H., her fiance?
Gunner—Mr. H.? Oh, she dropped him.—Detroit Tribune.
