THE WEEK IN ASTORIA SOCIETY

All items of social or personal nature will please be sent to Miss Alort, the Astorian office, Phone Main 661. No communication will be received later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, except in case of an event occurring later than that time.

The First Lutheran Church council members accompanied by their wives were very delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening at the manse by Rev. and Mrs. Gustave E. Rydquist. The occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mr. Rydquist.

On last Monday night Astor Temple No. 25, Pythian Sisters, held installation exercises in their lodge-rooms in Logan's Hall. The following officers for the ensuing term were installed: Past chief, Johanna Donaldson; excellent chief, Kathryn McCrosky; excellent senior, Ida Bergman; excellent junior, Emma Anderson; manager of the temple, Mary Walsh; mistress of records and correspondence, Dr. N. S. Vernon; mistress of finance, Agnes Josephson; protector of the temple, Amelia Larsen. At the conclusion of the installation exercises, coffee and cake was served and the remainder of the evening spent in a social manner.

An instructive religious service was held last Sunday afternoon on board the British ship Claverdon by Rev. Ellefson, accompanied by Mrs. Gaston and the Misses Nelson, Ellefson, Stevenson and McCrae, who assisted with the singing. Miss Stevenson sang a solo which was greatly appreciated by the sailors. At the close of the service sometime was spent in conversation with the men and later the visitors were served in the cabin, with tea and cakes by the officers of the vessel.

The "Girls of 1908" of Seaside, have issued invitations to come and make merry with them at the Shell Road Pavilion on the evening of Saturday, February 15th at their Leap Year ball. The patronesses for this event are Mrs. G. R. Bresse, Mrs. G. P. Brenman and Mrs. John Selnes. The East Astoria Social Club members met with Mrs. C. Crow at her home on Franklin avenue this week. Cards were played and the prizewinner was Mrs. Nathan Burkholder.

The D. M. C. D. Club met on Wednesday evening of this week at the residence of Mrs. Lowe on Exchange street. The meeting was purely a business one and all arrangements were perfected for the Leap Year dance to be given in Logan's Hall on St. Valentine's Eve, Thursday, February 13th. The patronesses selected for this occasion are Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Mrs. C. L. Huston and Mrs. G. C. Flavel. The invitations have been issued and the recipients are considering themselves very fortunate. The members of the club are Mesdames Knight and Lowe and Miss Holmes, Miss Agusta Holmes, Miss Alma Holmes, Miss Jessie Lands, Miss Lucy Morton, Miss Mary Fosset, Miss May Utzinger, Miss Anna Campbell, Miss Thora Larsen and Miss Nellie Utzinger.

Gateway Rebekah Lodge No. 77 will hold initiation exercises at their next regular meeting on Friday night, February 7th, when a class of five will be received into the degree. Luncheon will be served at the conclusion of the exercises and the remainder of the evening will be spent in a social manner.

Hon. J. G. Megler and Mrs. Megler have returned from an extended eastern tour.

John V. Rowan of Fort Stevens was an Astoria visitor on Saturday.

Mrs. H. H. Unruh, of Ilwaco, Wash., was the guest of Mrs. A. M. Ford for several days this week, returning to her home Saturday morning.

The Ladies' Leap Year Club, of

Uppertown, gave another successful dance on last Saturday night in the National Association Hall. About 300 young couple were present and joined in the dancing. The hall was prettily decorated with bunches of evergreens, red and yellow festoons and with many electric lights in red and yellow shades. Excellent music was furnished by a five piece orchestra and the floor was in fine condition for dancing. Refreshments were served during the evening and all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Mr. M. P. Morgan, of Corvallis, formerly editor of the Benton County Republican, is a guest of his brother, Mr. Otto Morgan, of the Western Union.

The announcement has been made of a whist party to be given on Monday night, February 3rd, in the Carnahan Hall by the Ladies of the G. A. R.

The Swedish-Finn Society celebrated the 103rd anniversary of Runeberg, the great author and poet, with a special entertainment last night in Idim Hall, Upper Astoria. One of the features of the program was two violin selections rendered by Miss Sunderquist in her usual delightful manner.

The Liberty Bell Social Club gave another of their popular dances last night in the National Association of Uppertown. There was a good attendance and all express themselves as having had a "jolly time."

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wingate entertained the members of the Pastime Euchre Club on Thursday evening of this week. The prize winners on this occasion were Mrs. Wingate and Mrs. F. Fisher. Dainty refreshments were served and the evening passed very pleasantly.

The members of the Thursday Afternoon Euchre Club met at the home of Mrs. R. E. Howes on Wednesday of this week. Mrs. F. Fisher and Mrs. Earle Fisher winning the prizes.

Mrs. F. Fisher and Miss Pearl Estes were Portland passengers on Friday.
