CLEVER MR. SEUFERT.

F. A. Seufert has won the approbation of the Oregonian by his timely declaration in favor of state aid to the proposition to keep the Columbia river open for eternity...

In the first place state aid is not needed for the Port of Portland. The people of Portland may have spent all the Oregonian claims they have spent in deepening the channel of the river...

We are all proud of Portland and her commercial achievement and would like to see it enhanced immeasurably, but not by direct state taxation. That will be resisted to the last ditch...

The Port of Portland is an immense factor in the commerce of Oregon and yet it is not the whole thing in this state. Even Astoria hopes to share its preferential status some day...

When the Oregonian talks about the general good of the State of Oregon it should bear in mind that a vast majority of Oregonians are inclined to the belief that it means Portland...

THE PORTUGAL HORROR.

The news from Lisbon of the assassination of the king and crown prince of Portugal, dreadful as it is, is but another tremendous expression of that human longing for more freedom...

progress and enfranchisement of mankind through the simpler forms and examples of republican government.

This deep ardor for release from the traditional things of the past is at the bottom of all the political murders of the time, and, especially is this so in the Latin countries...

ASTORIA IN THE FIESTA.

There is a splendid opportunity ahead of this city for impressing the people of Portland and her thousands of visitors with the conviction that Astoria is really within the limits of Oregon...

The glory of the Oregon rose is a common possession and will serve admirably as a vehicle for conveying a sense of our importance as an outpost of civilization to our friends up the river and their friends from abroad.

The Gentle Hint.

Widow—Do you know that my daughter has set eyes upon you? Gentleman (flattered)—Has she, really? Widow—Certainly. Only today she was saying, "That's the sort of gentleman I should like for my pa."—London Tatler.

HELPFUL ADVICE

You won't tell your family doctor the whole story about your private illness—you are too modest. You need not be afraid to tell Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., the things you could not explain to the doctor.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

to conquer all female diseases. Mrs. Norman R. Barndt, of Allentown, Pa., writes:

"Ever since I was sixteen years of age I had suffered from an organic derangement and female weakness; in consequence I had dreadful headaches and was extremely nervous. My physician said I must go through an operation to get well. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I took it and wrote you for advice, following your directions carefully, and thanks to you I am today a well woman, and I am telling all my friends of my experience."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, nervous prostration.

HERE AND THERE.

What is Doing in the Millinery World. Plastrons Fashionable. Light facings in drooping brimmed dark hats and dark facings on light hats often render becoming a model which might otherwise be unbecoming...

DAINTY FLANNELLETS FROCK—5178. A trimming much favored for wide brimmed hats of moderately high crown and otherwise without trimming.

Shirt lengths will be ankle deep for walking suits and dancing frocks, the round sweep for afternoon costumes and of the long, swirling order for frocks for more formal usage.

A novel idea for a pocket on the blouse that buttons down the back is to cut a slit close to the stitching of the plait or tucks in front.

Garter scent bags which conceally fill each side of the garter top are still another French freak.

The collar band with a plastron reaching to the waist is one of the most fashionable dress ornaments and is made of gulfure, tenniferre and flet lace and of cambrie that is gathered and lace edged.

The Jumping Off Place.

"Consumption had me in its grasp; and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well and happy man again..."

Brand New Boy—

There was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hess, yesterday, a son. The youngster made his appearance at 5 o'clock a. m. and weighs 7 pounds. All doing well.
