Have you healthy kidneys? If not, you will soon be attacked with that terrible Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Gravel, Dropsy or Rheumatism, and your health and happiness ruined. We have the only treatment that is a sure cure for the dreaded Bright's Disease, Diabetes, and all other forms of Kidney and Bladder Troubles. If your kidneys are not healthy, if the bladder is inflamed and weakened, urine highly colored or cloudy, smarting in passing, pains in back, nervous, languid, depressed, weakened in body and mind, bowels constipated and digestion bad, write for a box of Herington's Tablets and be cured.

RHEUMATISM is caused by an excess of uric acid in the blood. Ask any reputable physician, ask your family doctor, and he will tell you that the Uric Acid must be dissolved and drawn from the system before the disease yields.

What Causes Rheumatism

Now we say that the only medicine known that will actually dissolve this Uric Acid and carry it out of the body is Herington's Tablets. Local applications such as liniments, electricity, massage, etc., will afford temporary relief only, and is time wasted to the injury of the patient, unless constitutional treatment is carried on at the same time. Why? Because the malady is a disease of the blood, and the blood must be freed of the cause—or no cure can follow.

WRITE TODAY—Fill in the coupon printed below and send it to us with 25 cents. We will immediately mail to you a liberal sized box of Herington's Tablets. If they fail to CURE you we will return your money as willingly as we took it. Our guarantee is, NO CURE, NO PAY.

SPELLING NAMES.

There Was No Doubt About "Hannah" When the English Lady Finished.

A hygene generation witnessed an acrimonious controversy in the Irish family of O'Connor in County Roseomon as to the right of any branch of the ancient race to spell the name thus—with one "n." That right, it was maintained, was held only by the O'Connor Don as head of the house. So prolonged was the contest between the partisans of the O'Connor and O'Connor titles that it was called the "N-less" (standing for "endless") correspondence. Finally the question was referred to Sir J. Bernard Burke, the Ulster king of arms. His decision coincided with a decision in a certain other matter—namely, that much might be said on either side. The two disputing families had a common origin, a king of Connaught, and could with propriety and in accordance with tradition spell the name one way or the other. Fortified by this "award," the two families have continued to spell their name with one "n" up to the present hour.

Equally firm on the question as to how his name should be spelled was the witness in a case tried in the king's bench a few years ago. Asked his name, his prompt reply was "John 'Awkins." "Do you," queried counsel, "spell your name with or without an H?" The emphatic answer was, "J-o-h-n." As a rule, however, as we have said, variety in the spelling of the names of people, as in that of the names of places, owes its origin to people not being so clear as was our friend regarding how a name should be spelled.

Two stories in illustration of this occur to us. In the first Mrs. Quiverful was having christened her latest baby. The old minister was a little deaf. "What name did you say?" he queried. "I said," replied the mother, with some asperity, "Hannah." "Do you," said the other, "mean Anna or Hannah?" "Look 'ere," exclaimed the now thoroughly exasperated lady, "I won't be hexamined in this way. I mean 'Hatch-hay-hen-ben-hay-haitch'-Hannah!"

The second incident to which we refer is this. Here also there was "a lady in the case." She was on an errand, and she had to deal with the name of another party. In brief, she had bought a pair of sleeve links for her dance when the shopman asked, "Any initials, miss?" The rest may be stated thus:

She—Oh, yes; I forgot. Engrave a "U" upon them for his first name.

Shopman—Pardon me, is it Urialh or Ulysses? Names with "U" are rare, you know.

She (proudly)—His name is Eugene.—London Globe.

on a piece of white soap. As soon as the flannel becomes soiled take a fresh piece.

Fagoted bands are used to outline shaped collars of heavy Irish or cluny lace. One lovely collar in the former lace was fastened with tiny linen buttons and loops and had an inch long strip on the right side through which were slipped dainty jabot ties.

The little pinafore styles are liked for general wear for young girls, and the one illustrated is made with a separate gumpe tucked in yoke outline. The body separates to show the gumpe and has pointed shoulder straps that are quite ornamental. The full skirt is joined to the body and is tucked above the hem. All sorts of washable fabrics as well as any of the seasonable woollens are used for these little models, with silk, lawn or cambric for the gumpe.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

An Auditive Illusion.

"What town is that a few miles to the north?" shouted the aeronaut, leaning over the edge of the basket.

"Oshkosh!" yelled the agriculturist over whose farm the balloon was passing.

"What?"

"Oshkosh!"

"What did he say?" asked the aeronaut's companion.

"He didn't say anything. He swore at me."—Chicago Tribune.

Tolerance.

George Elliot was once asked what was the chief lesson she had learned in life's experience, and her prompt answer was, "Tolerance." It might have been expected from a woman who once said that she regarded life as a game of cards in which she watched each move with the deepest interest and turned as far as possible to her own advantage.
