The third annual dance given a week ago at Deep River, Wash., was a very successful affair. About 200 people were present and joined in the festivities. The steamer General Washington carried her full quota of Astoria passengers on pleasure bent and all going from here speak in the highest terms of the kindness and hospitality extended by their Washington neighbors. The hall was prettily decorated with ropes and bunches of evergreen and many Chinese lanterns swinging from the ceiling. Very good music was furnished by the orchestra and every one had a good time. At midnight a sumptuous supper was served and dancing continued until the wee sma' hours, the Astoria contingency arriving home at broad daylight.

Just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs; to merciless attacks of sun and weather. After washing, apply ROBERTINE and experience its delightful refreshment. You will admire the fine-ness softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. Complain of High Rates for Transportation Forced by Interstate Com-

 NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The national Association of theatrical producing managers has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission for an amelioration of the existing high railroad rates as applied to theatrical companies. They ask that theatrical companies be put in a class by themselves and that the railroads be allowed to make special rates for them, it being argued that traveling theatrical companies should be treated as excursion parties with stop-over privileges.

Until the opening of the current season it had been the custom of the railroad to allow special rates to theatrical companies en tour but the recent rulings of the commission forced the roads to abandon this custom. It is argued that the railroads themselves are willing to return to the old rates.
