DONE.

choice goods that cannot fail to please you. Delivered as you want

ROSS, HIGGINS & CO.

TERSE TALES OF THE TOWN

To Be a Citizen-

ter will be heard by the circuit court cally finished. on June 16th.

On a Visit-

Mrs. C. M. Cellar.

A Son And Heir-

well.

But One Deed-

But one deed was filed for record in the county clerk's office yesterday. it being that of F. Dresser, et. al., to F. Balnart, lot 8, block 13, second of the sale being recorded as $75.

Gasoline Launch Sold-

custom house yesterday, wherein E. ing $10.

Registration-

total registration was 1458 in all the precincts. As time draws near for closing for the primaries larger num- | Christian Science Reading Roombers appear and it is thought this ever.

Furniture Coming-

The balance of the furniture for the

Attachment Suit-

iff Pomeroy, yesterday, on a quantity rooms, beginning with Sunday, Febof cordwood held by D. J. Cummings. ruary 23. The rooms are being taste-The writ was issued in the suit of fully furnished and being made ready Anderson, Jordan & Rich against D. for their new occupants. There is J. Cumings etl al., the plaintiffs suing much joy among the members over to recover nearly $50 for hauling the wood to the city.

Work Progressing-

Contractor Lebeck is getting along nicely with the contract, on which he is engaged at the engineering quarters at Fort Stevens. The weather had been unfavorable for sometime. until recently, but with the present good conditions work is progressing favorably. In about two weeks all of the work will be completed.

Chagned Interior-

The interior arrangement of the hosue of Chemical No. 1 has been greatly changed, for the better. The Anders Jensen Eide, a native of stalls have been enlarged and en-Norway, yesterday made application closed, allowing more freedom for the for final citizens papers, and the mat- horses and the work has been practi-

A Promising Event-

The masquerade ball for the bene-Mr. and Mrs. Danziger are in As- fit of the Astoria football team, which tori,a from San Francisco, having ar- will be held on next Saturday night, rive dhere on Saturday. They will will, no doubt, be one of the special visit for the next fortmght, Mr. and good times of the winter season. Fine music will be provided and in addition the elegant prizes which will be awarded will add to the interest. An auspicious event occurred in the The prizes that will be offered will lives of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Barr be: First, Gent's prize, cigar case; when a son was born to them on 1st, Ladies' prize, ladies' fur. These Sunday morning. Everyone doing are for the best sustained characters. For the best dressed gentlemen, the prize will be a pair of gloves, and for the best dressed lady, a silk umbrella.

Wreckage Found-

Walter Frey, a member of the Ft. Canby life-saving crew, was in the addition to Ocean Grove, the amount city yesterday. He stated that wreckand below the entrance. At Sand A bill of sale was recorded in the Island the rudder and one of the life buoys of the vessel was found on L. Lowe sells to the Columbia River Sunday, and also a cylinder record ington, and the association pledged Packers' Association the gasoline for a phonograph, the name "Emily itself to in every way aid the delegalaunch Leader, the consideration be Reed" being written on the box holding the record. At another point, the mouth of the river, was seen what appeared to be a spar, tied up on the also the following resolution: Up to closing hour last night the beach evidently by some one who had recovered it.

year's registration will be the greatest have rented a commodious suite of classes, and we therefore condemn the National Bank, where a comfortable fishing appliances, except gill nets. reading room is being established. We believe the fishing industry can new court house left Eau Claire, Wis., It is proposed to open the rooms on February 13th and will doubtless daily from 12 m. to 5 p. m. A full classes of gear and the rights of all reach here in about two weeks. It supply of Christian Science books will respected. will immediately thereafter be placed be kept on hand as well as the perin position and a great change made iodicals of the church. All who de-An attachment was levied by Sher-their Sunday services in the new

Chocolates

the best in the world 50c a Pound.

Oregon Potatoes

One of the most essential and common articles of food, and one which should always be of the highest quality, is potatoes. We have the best potatoes that are grown in the best potato section of Oregon.

Per Sack $1.35

GOOD Scholfield Mattson & Co. GOODS 112 and 120 Twelfth St.

Phone 1181

Phone 931

For a VICTOR OR AN EDISON PHONOGRAPH

go to

Johnson Phonograph

Parlors Second Floor Over Scholfield & Mattson Co.

this move. The local society was organized last year and has been meeting in the home of one of its members. As there have been a great many inquiries for a Christian Science reading room from the traveling public, the opening of their rooms will fill a long felt want.

Vacancies Existing-

The United States Civil Service Commission announces that the following vacancies exist in the Quartermaster's Department, at Large, in the Departments of California and Columbia: 4 marine firement, Department of California, $900 per annum; 4 marine firemen, Department of Columbia, $780 per annum; 1 marine engineer, Department of California, $1080 per annum; 1 master, Department of California, $1000 per annum; 2 mates, Department of California, $900 per annum; 1 tinner, Department of California, $840 per annum. Applications for the positions mentioned may be filed at any time with the Secretary of the Twelfth Civil Builidng, San Francisco, Cal.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED.

Columbia River Pound Net & Seiners Association Pass Resolutions.

At a meeting of the Columbia River Pound Net & Seiners' Association, held in the city hall today, the following resolutions were presented and passed, commending the action age of the Emily Reed can be found of the Governor of Washington in near the mouth of the river, above appointing a committee to frame protective laws for the protection of the fishing industry of the State of Washtion from the Columbia River, that are members of the Commission;

"Resolved, That we believe the perpetuation of the salmon fishing does not demand the elimination of any one class of fishing gear, but a The Christian Scientists of Astoria just and equitable regulation of all rooms on the second floor of the Odd action of the gill net fishermen for Fellows' building, over the Astoria their constant endeavor to abolish all be preserved by just regulation of all

"Resolved, That we extend our the opening of the channel. As we believe the best interests of all will be to keep an open channel to the sea, as such a channel will allow unobstructed passage for ships, and will also allow a free passage for salmon."

Resolutions were passed thanking Washington, for his assistance and for 25 cente. aid rendered to the association and also concurring with the suggestion of Colonel Roessler, of the U.S. Engineer Department to bond the fish traps that are along the navigable channels of the river, a committee was appointed to confer with Colonel Roessler to arrange for the filing of bonds and such other matters as may properly come before the department.

THE NEW COURT ROOM DEDI-CATED BY A SESSION IN WHICH MUCH BUSINESS IS

THE CIRCUIT COURT

The February term of the circuit court opened yesterday, in the new building, the new court room being used for the first time. There was a good sized gathering of attorneys, jurors and others interested and considerable business transacted before adjournment.

J. Gardner, G. Ralston, W. Painter, John Nordstrom, George Moores, W. E. Blackstock, N. Stanovich, W. E. Smith, Swan Wilson and Frank Wilkinson were excused as jurors for the term. The following cases were disposed of: Matt Kangas vs. M. Susman, stricken from docket; Allen Service District, Room 241, Postoffice Stock Co. and L. E. Selig, garnishee, vs. W. R. Whaling and wife, stricken from docket; Mary A. Kinsey vs. C. J. Curtis, settled; Fisher Bros. vs. Mike Erickson, dismissed; First National Bank of Astoria vs. John Reid and John Fox, dismissed; J. M. Hughes vs. Sam Ness, set for February 19th; Clatsop Mill Co. vs. Pacific Union Packing Co., settled and dismissed; F. Dresser & Co. vs. Mrs. Edward Cole, dismissed; Chas. E. Lankester and P. Lawlor vs. County of Clatsop, set for February 26th; Haban & Taggart vs. Erik Mannula and wife, set for February 20th; Leander Lebeck vs. John L. Johnson, settled and dismissed; Callender Navigation Co. vs. Westport Lumber Co., settled and dismissed; Sofia Linti vs. Karl Linti, default; Chas. C. C. Rosenberg vs. Victor Tilus, settled and dismissed; City of Astoria vs. C. W. Cottam, set for February 18th; M. M. Moore vs. M. J. Young, Lloyd Grif- springs, much improved. He will be fith and Frank Lent, default; Western on duty again today. Dry Goods Co., incorporated vs. J. J. Robinson, set for February 25th; A. E. Miller vs. W. E. Burke, et. al., set for today; Blanche E. Wensley vs. HWES A GREAT DEAL TO AN Arthur H. Wensley, default; James Hansen vs. John Maguire, settled and dismsised; Dorcas Nelson vs. Clifford S. Nelson, default; Fisher Bros. Co. vs. John O. McGuire and John H. cheerful humor as he joined the little Stickler, judgment; Jos. Schamberger group around the stove in the back vs. August Nelson, settled and dismissed; Blanche H. Hogue vs. H. W. Hogue, order to amend by interlineation and referred to referee; The Gil-> settled and dismissed. this morning to which time the jurors paper advertisement." have been excused.

Constipation, or irregularity, is very often the cause of sick-headache. Lane's Family Medicine is the great preventive John D. Atkinson, attorney-general at and cure of headache. Druggista sell it

PERSONAL MENTION

Alfred Lent, of Clatskanie, arrived in Astoria on Sunday, and will remain a few days. F. B. Hull was taken seriously ill on Sunday, with cramps and the services of two physicians were necessary. He was resting easy last night. . .

A. Dunbar left up for Portland by boat last night.

Captain A. M. Gray was a passenger on the Lurline for up-river last night.

was in Astoria yesterday Mr. Han- am going to look you up and see that son is a well known rancher of that you are all right. I am mighty parsection.

Chas. Erickson was over from Altoona, Wash., yesterday.

and Mrs. Allen, who have been spend- unless he has a personal interest in in the yellow package. For sale by ing the winter, thus far, at Hot it, and consequently I intend to marry T. F. Laurin. Springs, Ark., are now in Los An- the man that gets the job." geles being domiciled at 547 North St. Louis street.

rom Mayger.

and last night in Astoria.

the city. J. C. Driscoll is in the city.

Harry Hendricks of Portland, came lown on last night's train. Frank L. Parker, deputy collector night from Portland.

Portland on the evening train yes- level-headed, honorable, businesslike

ered at the Occident.

One Piano Number with each $5.00 SALE to HERMAN WISE Customers.

If You Think

"GOOD CLOTHES"

Think

"WISE"

Herman Wise

Astoria's Reliable Clothier.

Savings Bank, returned last night from a three weeks' visit at the Julius Jensen, of Chinook, was in Astoria yesterday.

INNOCENT LITTLE AD.

Mr. Beasley seemed to be in a very room and settled himself for his evening smoke and gossip.

"I just got a long letter from my in position and a great change made iodicals of the church. All who dein the appearance of the interior of sire to spend a quiet hour in reading Lieutenant-Colonel Smith S. Leach State of Oregon vs. Sam Nigo and T. his corncob pipe, "and I surely was him again.

"So Henry got the job," continued will be welcomed. In fact, the rooms for the courtesies and consideration Nigo, set for February 24th; Victor glad to hear that he was getting Mr. Beasley, "and he's kept it ever are open and free for admission to shown to us, and we commend the the public. The local society will hold recommendation of Colonel Leach for Hauke & Co. vs. Martin Stanovich, great success in life, and it was all profitable one it is." great success in life, and it was all profitable one it is." The court will convene at 10 o'clock due to a little, innocent looking news-about it, and, needing no urging, Mr. amused him very much. Beasley continued:

college, he saw the advertisement I around at all of us with a twinkle in speak of. It said that a wealthy lady his eye. wanted a competent man to take charge of her real estate-to collect the rents, superintend repairs, and so on. "Henry thought that looked like a pretty good job, so he packed his grip and took the train at once. He a man wins a wealthy wife through found that the woman was a young widow who owned a whole lot of real estate and was having a peck of trouble trying to take care of it. "Henry said she showed him a long list of the various properties she owned, told him what the work would consist of, and then, looking him square in the eye, she says, 'I want you to give me your references and Andrew Hanson, of Gray's River, tell me all about yourself, and then I ticular about it because my idea is that a man will never take care of a lot of property such as I own and do A. V. Allen, of A. V. Allen & Co., his work the way it ought to be done "That lets me out," says Henry, reaching for his hat. 'I am not look-J. H. Carve is a visitor to Astoria ing for a wife, and if I was I wouldn't take one in this kind of a way. No,' Walter Frey, of the Fort Canby says Henry, getting hot under the Life-Saving service, spent yesterday collar, 'I wouldn't marry you if you were ten times as rich and twenty Otto Schuman, of Portland, is in times as-as-' 'As what?' asks the woman laughing. 'Never mind,' says | Henry, starting for the door.

"But the woman made him come back and sit down again. 'You are just the kind of a man I am looking of customs, returned last night from for,' she said. 'You are the eighteenth a trip to Portland and McMinnville. | man who has been here after this job. P .A. Stokes arrived home last and everyone of the others just jumped at what he thought was a chance O. W. Whitman came in from to marry me. I am looking for a man, and I guess you are the man. Otto Brandes, of Portland, is regis-, And if I give you the position you need not worry, for,' she says, 'I M. E. Masterson, teller in Astoria wouldn't marry you if you were 20

JUST RECEIVED

a fresh shipment of

Lowney's Candies Pound Boxes 50c and up.

Boxes 15c to $2.50

The old man laid back in his chair. and, as he refilled his pipe, chuckled Somebody asked to be told all and wagged his head, as if something

Finally somebody asked him what "Not long after Henry came out of he was laughing about. He looked

"I did not tell you the best part of it," he said. "The thing that always struck me as being funny was that Henry married the woman after all."

It may not be often the case that the medium of a Want Advertisement, but there is nothing remarkable it after all.

Try a little advertisement in the Morning Astorian if you have anything to sell, if you want to buy anything, if you want to hire anybody, or if you are seeking a position. It does not cost much, and your advertisement will be placed in the hands of thousands of just the people you want to reach.

La Grippe and Pneumonia

Foley's Honey and Tar cures la grippe coughs and prevents pneumonia. Refuse any but the genuine Subscribe for the Astorian.

Baking Powder FLAVORING EXTRACT

Absolute Purity. Finest Flavor, Greatest Strength, Reasonable Prices

CLOSSET & DEVERS PORTLAND, OREGON.