

IMPORTED MACARONI and SPAGETTI

---

EASTERN CREAM... CHEESE

---

A. V. ALLEN

SOLE AGENT FOR BAKER'S BARRINGTON HALL STEEL-CUT COFFEE. BRANCH PHONE-713

PHONES-711 AND 3871

The Week In Astoria Society

All Items of Social or Personal Nature Will Please Be Sent to Miss Albert, The Astorian Office. Phone Main 661. No Communication Will Be Received Later Than Ten O'clock Saturday Morning, Except in Case of an Event Occurring Later Than That.

On Tuesday evening of this week the Scandinavian Benevolent Society gave an entertainment in Logan's Hall commemorating the anniversary of the founding of the society. The hall was artistically decorated with flags of all nations, the Scandinavian flag being chief among them. Addresses were made by Capt. C. S. Gunderson, Mr. J. M. Anderson and Judge Olaf Anderson. Recitations were given by Leo Wise and Miss Reswick and musical selections, both instrumental and vocal were rendered by Prof. Emil Enna, the Norwegian Singing Society, Mr. Zeigler, Mr. Robert Drott, Mr. Henry Larsen, Miss Schisted, Miss Larsen, Miss Danielson and Master Larsen. The banquet provided under the management of Mr. Fred Johnson was excellent, elaborate and varied, and the many present thoroughly enjoyed every minute of the evening's entertainment.

Ex-Governor T. T. Geer, of Pendleton visited Astoria friends this week.

Miss Bertha Kriebahn entertained in an informal manner on Tuesday afternoon a number of lady friends, in honor of Miss Botifuhr, of Portland, who was her guest. The time was pleasantly spent the hostess serving dainty refreshments during the afternoon. Those present were Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Charles V. Brown, Miss Julia Bock, Miss Marie Boetgen, Miss Hattie Kopp, of Seaside and Miss West of Salem.

A "National Social" was given on Thursday evening in the parlors of the First Methodist Episcopal Church by the members of the Epworth League. Many were in attendance and all enjoyed the evening's entertainment immensely. The lecture room was artistically decorated with pictures of the presidents of these united states and with American flags. The dining room was in red, white and blue. The menu cards told in navel terms what was to eat. Bean pots were placed on the table with the other edibles served in a corresponding manner. A brief musical and literary program was rendered. Readings were given by Mrs. W. O. Barnes and Mrs. Jennie Busey. Mr. J. M. Anderson spoke on "Patriotic Thoughts" and Mrs. F. L. Bishop sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and Mr. G. B. Johnson sang "My Own United States."

The Dorcas Society of the First Lutheran Church was delightfully entertained on Friday evening by Miss Betsy Enberg at her home in Uppertown.

The women of the Grand Army of the Republic have announced a card party to be given on the evening of Thursday, March 5th, in Carnahan's Hall on Exchange street. The ladies in charge of this affair are making every preparation to make this party, an evening of pleasure and friends are cordially invited to be present.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Lutheran Church was pleasantly entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Engelbreitson at her home in Uppertown. After some time

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

spent in needlework, the ladies present were served with dainty refreshments.

Mrs. R. M. Gaston charmingly entertained on Friday afternoon at her home on Commercial street in honor of Mrs. Estes of Seattle (mother of Dr. O. B. Estes of this city). The ladies present brought their fancy work and spent a very enjoyable afternoon. Miss Pearl Estes assisted the hostess in serving dainty refreshments. Those present were Mrs. Estes, Sr., Mrs. Alfred Kinney, Mrs. Hawthorne, Mrs. Howes, Mrs. Jane Smith, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Mrs. O. B. Estes and Miss Pearl Estes.

The women of the Relief Corps gave a very successful "whist party" on Friday evening in the upstairs room of the A. O. U. H. hall, Mrs. Rowena Springer, Mrs. Staples and Mrs. Cleveland acting as hostesses for this delightful event. About a hundred people were in attendance 21 tables being filled with players at 11 o'clock the prizes were distributed, Miss Hazel Lowden winning the ladies' first prize and Miss Reynolds the second. Mr. Rudolph Kinkella was the fortunate winner of the gentlemen's first prize and Mr. Thomas Dealey the second. Dainty refreshments were served at the card-tables and after some time spent in the enjoyment of the dainties placed before them, the floor was cleared and dancing was engaged in for the remainder of the evening.

This party is the first of a series to be given by the Woman's Relief Corps in the A. O. U. W. Hall, the arrangements are already being made for another which will be given on the evening of the fourth Friday of March.

Mr. and Mrs. Danziger of San Francisco who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Celler for the past two weeks left for their home on Friday.

Miss Birdie Gunderson entertained about 20 friends on Friday afternoon at her home on Fourteenth street. Five hundred was played, Mrs. John Eldridge winning the first prize, Mrs. Eckstrom the second and Miss Mayne Clinton the consolation prize. A most delicious luncheon was served and all present spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

Mrs. Isaac Bergmann hospitably entertained the members of the Queen Louise Lodge in the A. O. U. W. Hall on Tuesday afternoon with a German "Kaffee Klatch." Everyone present spent a delightful afternoon and the refreshments served were delicious.

Mr. Abraham Bergmann, who has been the guest of his brother, Mr. Isaac Bergmann of this city left for his home on Monday and after a two days' stay in Portland with another brother, will continue his journey to San Francisco.

On last Saturday evening, February 22nd, the Rev. Mr. Ellefson united in marriage Miss Selma Theresa Johnson and Mr. Job O. Ness. The ceremony taking place at the residence of Mr. Albert Sater in Uppertown. Misses Mary Nelson and Hilda Strand were the bride's attendants, and Messrs. Nels Ness and John Jensen acted as groomsmen. At the close of the ceremony an elegant wedding repast was served to the large number of guests witnessing this auspicious event. Many handsome and useful presents were received by the happy couple.

Mrs. Alfred Schroder delightfully entertained the I. H. N. Club of the West Astoria Sunday school at her home on Duane street on Tuesday evening. The children played games and had a merry time. Mrs. Schroeder served refreshments during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Clement, who were married in Rainier on St. Valentine's day are the guests of Mrs.

Clement's brother, Mr. Pomeroy and wife.

The D. M. C. D. Club members held a pleasant meeting on Tuesday evening of this week at the home of Miss Hattie Utzinger on Bond street. The Astoria public school students were given a literary treat on last Monday morning at the high school building when the renowned actor, Mr. Charles B. Hanford gave them a Shakespearean lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schoenbaechler are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter on Friday evening, February 28th.

The "Losing Side" members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union gave a reception and banquet on Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Graham on Exchange street to the winning side and a number of invited guests. About 50 ladies were present and spent a very delightful afternoon with their sewing and pleasant conversation. Several musical selections were rendered and a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Graham, assisted by Mesdames Gearheart, Rannels, Morrison, and Gaston.

On Thursday evening the Degree of Honor gave a Leap Year Party in honor of Mr. Thomas Dealey. Mr. Cyrus furnished the music and those in attendance spent a very pleasant evening, dancing and playing games. Excellent refreshments were served during the time.

Mr. D. B. Alen, of Portland, formerly a resident of Astoria, is in the city a guest of relatives and friends.

A very successful sale of cooked food and culinary articles was held on yesterday afternoon and evening in the basement of the church by the Ladies' Guild of the Holy Innocence Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wirkkala are receiving congratulations over the birth of a son on Tuesday evening, February 25th.

Last night the Odd Fellows organized a lodge of encampment in their hall. Grand Patriarch Beckwith and suite were present and organized and installed the lodge which will be known as Clatsop Encampment No. 68 with 40 members of the subordinate lodge.

At 7 o'clock this morning 200 Knights of Columbus of Portland Council will arrive in Astoria on board the steamer T. J. Potter especially chartered for the trip, and will organize and establish a Council of the order in this city. In this work the visiting knights will be ably assisted by the Rev. Father Waters and the young people of his parish.

The masquerade dance given by the Astoria Football Club on last Saturday evening in Logan's Hall was a very successful event. About 200 masquers were present and joined in the festivities. Some handsome costumes and excellent make-ups were represented, notable among these were "The Morning Astorian," several "Gypsy girls" and "Indian maidens, the Astoria Football Club" and several girls dressed as boys. At 10:30 the prizes were distributed. Miss Rose Martin in a costume of black, sprinkled with silver stars as "Venus, the Evening Star," winning the prize for the best lady character. Miss Pearl Davich, as a French Hussarina, in a strikingly smart red suit with gold trimmings winning the prize as best dressed lady. Mr. Leo Gramms' make-up and delineation of the character of Uncle Sam won for him the gentlemen's first prize. Mr. Ed Heckard as a "Spanish Cavalier" winning the prize for the best dressed gentleman. Dancing was re-engaged in and continued until a late hour.

An excursion and dance at Skamokawa is announced for Saturday evening, March 28th. The steamer General Washington has been chartered for that occasion and will carry the Astoria contingent.

Miss Botefuhr, of Portland, and Miss Bertha Kriebholm of Astoria spent last Saturday at Seaside the guests of Miss Hattie Kopp.

Mrs. C. W. Holmes entertained a number of friends at her home on Irving avenue, Saturday afternoon. The home was tastefully decorated

SOLE AGENTS FOR MALLORY CRAVENETTS $3.00-HATS-$3.00

JUDD BROS.

SOLE AGENTS FOR "VOUMAN'S HATS" $5.00

Spring Top Coats and Spring Suits

Now is the time to wear a Spring Top Coat. If you haven't one you should have.

Come in Monday and look over the new line. You will be pleased, and will find just what you want. They are made in the greatest tailoring establishment in America,

And show every sign of it in their excellence of quality, fit and style.

New Spring Suits, too. Come in Tomorrow.

$15 to $35

JUDD BROS.

THE BROWNSVILLE WOOLEN MILL STORE

with hyacinths. A pleasant game of 500 was played in which Mrs. Ferdinand Fisher secured the prize. Mrs. Ferdinand Westdahl was the guest of honor.

The young lady members of the "Glee Club" met on Wednesday evening with Mrs. Ruby Fernald to complete arrangements for the "sheet and pillow case" party given last night in the National Association Hall of Uppertown. The young people spent the evening in busy preparations for the dance and thoroughly appreciated the excellent lunch served.

Miss May Luper of St. Joseph, Missouri, was the guest this week of her cousin, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson.

Mrs. V. Wright, who has been seriously ill with the la grippe for the past three weeks, is slowly recovering being able to sit up part of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abercrombie were tendered a charming surprise party on Thursday. The occasion being their second marriage anniversary or "cotton wedding." About 16 guests were present and spent a very enjoyable evening. Five hundred was played and dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Abercrombie were the recipients of a number of handsome mementoes of the happy event.

Mrs. F. D. Gamble delightfully entertained the members of the East Astoria Social Club on Friday afternoon at her residence on Franklin avenue and Twenty-eighth street. Five hundred was played. Last week the club members were entertained by Mrs. Charles Goddard.

Mrs. Charles G. Palmberg was the hostess on Tuesday evening of this week for the meeting of the Clover Club. This meeting was in the form of a "Farewell Party" for Mrs. Palmberg who in company with her husband and son will leave on Tuesday, March 10th, for a year's tour of Europe, and the continent. Mrs. Palmberg was the recipient of many tokens of regard by the club members.

The Friends Thursday Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank Linenweber on Harrison avenue and Twelfth street on Thursday afternoon of this week.

The Skating Ring on Exchange street was the scene of a pleasant skating party on Friday evening, given by several well known young women.

Miss Nean West of Salem, who has been the guest of the Misses Utzinger and of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Brown for the past two weeks left for her home on Wednesday morning.

Lieutenant Stromberg of the U. S. S. Perry now stationed at Tacoma, who has been visiting friends in this city for several weeks has returned to resume his duties aboard ship.

Mrs. Willis, of Fort Stevens, was the guest of Astoria friends Friday.

Miss Lola Foard has returned home after several weeks' visit with Tacoma friends.

Miss Gertrude Kearney was a Portland visitor this week attending the Paderewski concert on Monday night.

Miss Mable Taylor of Flavel and Miss Grace Stokes have returned from a month's visit with friends in Portland.

The Thursday Evening Euchre Club members met on Wednesday of this week with Mrs. R. E. Howes at her home on Exchange street. The prize winners on this occasion were Mrs. M. T. Brooks and Mr. George Colwell.

Mrs. O. M. Simington was hostess on Friday of this week for the meeting of Friday Afternoon Club. Cards were played, Mrs. M. T. Brooks winning the prize.

Miss Mabel Simington entertained a number of friends on Friday evening at her home on Grand avenue and Fifteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar M. Simington were tendered a most delightful surprise party on Tuesday evening, the occasion being the first anniversary of their marriage or "paper wedding." The ladies were gowned in stunning paper costumes, Mrs. Abercrombie appearing in lavender. Mrs. Humphries in pink, Mrs. Eigner in champagne color, Miss Barret in Alice blue and Miss Simington in Copenhagen blue. The gentlemen wore paper hats. Dainty refreshments were served, the table decorations being eyelet embroidered paper doilies. Cards were played by way of amusement during a part of the evening.

Mrs. W. T. Scholfield returned last evening from an extended visit with relatives at Cornelius, Oregon.

Mrs. M. A. Cordiner and son Sid-

DEYER'S GOLDEN WEST

SPICES, COFFEE, TEA, BAKING POWDER, FLAVORING EXTRACTS

Absolute Purity, Finest Flavor, Greatest Strength, Reasonable Prices.

CLOSSET & DEYERS
PORTLAND, OREGON.

ney went to Portland yesterday for an over-Sunday visit with friends; on their return they will be accompanied by Miss Bess Cordiner who has been there for several weeks.

Mrs. C. W. Holmes charmingly entertained a few friends on Saturday afternoon at her home on Irving avenue, in honor of Mrs. Ferdinand Westdahl, who is making an extended visit with friends in this city. Potted hyacinths were used as decorations. Five hundred was played, every one present enjoying themselves very much.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whipple, of Seattle, arrived in Astoria yesterday for a brief visit with relatives and friends.

The Fortnightly Club members were delightfully entertained on Friday evening of this week by Mr. and Mrs. William Sherman and Mrs. Carlton B. Allen at the Allen residence on Irving avenue. The spacious parlors were handsomely decorated, the color scheme being red, white and blue which was carried out in the refreshments which were very dainty. Cards were played, Mrs. A. A. Finch and Mrs. Charles Brink being the fortunate prize winners on this occasion.

WOOD

The Tongue Point Lumber Company are now delivering 16-inch stove length wood promptly. Call Main 2771.

The Secret of a Beautiful Face lies in keeping the skin protected as well as cleansed. Just washing is not enough—that only leaves the delicate surface more exposed to the irritation of dust and germs to merciless attacks of sun and weather. After washing, apply ROBERTINE and experience its delightful refreshment. You will admire the skin-softness it imparts to face, neck and arms. It not only stimulates a radiant glow, but protects the skin from becoming coarse. Prevents burning, tan and freckles.

ROBERTINE