

ALDERMANIC ELECTION.

CHICAGO, Mar. 11.-The question of Sunday saloons will not be on the ballot at the Chicago aldermanic which is not justified by physiological election April 7.

The saloon issue as a general city issue will be wiped out by a decision of the election commissioners holding that the question of enforcing a appears to be able to give the same law is not proper for submission under the public policy act.

There remain the individual contests in which the personal liberty advocates and the liquor interests will endeavor to defeat candidates for the city council whose records do not cluded in his diet a liberal allowance suit them, but the general issue which was in a formative stage two months ago, has disappeared.

to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

YORKTOWN AT FRISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11 .-The gunboat Yorktown has arrived here from La Union Salvador, putting in at Magdalena Bay for target practice on her way up in the matter of scoring, the Yorktown, it is said, was next to the Albany, which outclassed all the other ships of Admiral Swinburn's squadron. The Yorktown will stay here several weeks.

No Use to Die.

"I have found out that there is no use to die of lung trouble as long as you can get Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. J. P. White, of Rushboro, Pa. "I would not be alive today only for that wonderful medicine. It loosens up a cough quicker than anything else, and cures lung diesase even after the case is pronounced hopeless." This most reliable remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, bronchitis and hoarseness, is sold under guarantee at Chas. Rogers & Son's drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SURRENDERED BY BONDSMEN.

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 11.-Bondsmen of Charles Lawson, charged with uttering a worthless check on the Jefferson Bank of St. Louis surrendered him to the sheriff yester-

Constipation, or irregularity, is very often the cause of sick-headache. Lane's Family Medicine is the great preventive and cure of headache. Druggists sell it for 25 cents.

SCHAEFER VS. HOPPE.

CHICAGO, Mar. 11.-Jacob Schaefer, holder of the world's 18.1 billiard championship, will meet Wm. Hoppe, who has challenged for the title, at Orchestra Hall tonight in what promises to be one of the greatest exhibitions of modern billiards.

SUGAR AS FOOD.

Used With Discrimination, It Is an Aid to Good Health.

"There is a prejudice against sugar reasoning." says the London Lancet.

"Sugar is one of the most powerful here. foods which we possess, as it is the cheapest or at any rate one of the cheapest. In muscular labor no food powers of endurance as sugar, and comparative practical experiments have shown without the least doubt the United Kingdom with wheat. that the hard physical worker, the athlete or the soldier on the march is much more equal to the physical strain placed upon him when he has had in-

"Trophies, prizes and cups have undoubtedly been won on a diet in which sugar was intentionally a notable con-PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS. stituent. It has even been said that PAZO OINTMENT is guaranteed sugar may decide a battle and that mere sweetmeat to the soldier. The fact that sugar is a powerful 'muscle food' accounts probably for the disfavor into which it falls, for a compara tively small quantity amounts to an excess, and excess is always inimical to the easy working of the digestive

"Sugar satiates; it is a concentrated food. Where sugar does harm, there fore, it is invariably due to excess Taken in small quantities and distributed over the daily food intakes, sugar contributes most usefully in health to the supply of energy required by the

"And it is a curious fact that the man who practically abstains from sugar or reduces his diet to one almost free from carbohydrates in favor of protein foods, such as meat, often shows feeble muscular energy and an indifferent capacity for physical endur-

Why Silence Reigned.

"Darling." he cried in tones of deep emotion, "at last you are safely in my arms and nothing shall part us more." The object of his touching words and passionate embrace made no response but remained cold and silent. Tears welled into his eyes.

"Dearest," he continued, "how can prove my love? Is there no sacrifice can make for your sweet sake, no suffering I can endure?"

This final appeal was irresistible. "The best thing you can do, my man," said a gruff voice, "is to come along with me." And a brutal policeman unfastened him from the lamppost and led him silently away.-London Scraps.

Water.

Schoolmaster (at end of object lesson)-Now, can any of you tell me what is water? Small and Grubby Urchin-Please, teacher, water's what turns black when you puts your 'ands in it.-Dundee Advertiser.

The attire of some men would seen to indicate that their tailors can't tell the difference between a fit and a convulsion.-New York Times.

TEA

Schilling's Best is in packages; never comesout of a bin or canister.

Your grocer returns your money if you don't

Fast French Wheat Ship Emilie Galline Here.

CLAM Mc FARLANE ARRIVES

Johan Poulsen in From Bay City for Goble - Elmore Here Outward Bound-F. S. Loop Comes Down River-Random Notes From Docks

down from Prescott yesterday, load- her own power. She is 70 feet in ed with lumber for the Bay City, and length and has 60 horsepower enis at anchor in the channel, awaiting gines, and is a dandy generally. despatch over the bar, which was in an uproarious condition yesterday.

The French bark Emilie Galline, her second cargo out of the mouth of time next week. the Columbia within 11 months, both under European consignment.

The steamer Johan Poulsen arrived she will load out lumber for San Francisco.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore came down the river early yesterday morning bound for Tillamook Bay points and is at the O. R. & N. piers, waiting for a passable bar. The extension of her run to Portland will not help in the least to get her over the bar any oftener than she used to make it from

The Franch bark Amiral de Cornulier is still up the river somewhere, thuogh she was expected down yesterday morning. She is bound for

The temporary shut-down of a couple of days at the Tongue Point mills will interfere with the finishing of the J. A. Campbell's cargo, and she will hardly be ready for sea before Saturday.

The big British tramp steamship Strathblane is still in the city channel, waiting till the 15th inst., to haul into the Tongue Point docks for her partcargo of lumber. In the meantime she is having her huge hull painted. tralian coal at the Elmore dock toanother 500 tons or so, she will leave in the city, died here yesterday at the here, and then move on to the me- age of 88 years.

The Callender steamer Vanguard will probably be back from Portland next week, after having undergone a general overhauling and furnishing

The tug Melville, Captain Pete Jordan left down the bay yesterday afternoon, to grapple for the stream anchor and chain attached, dropped there some days ago by the American barkentine J. M. Griffith. ,

The steamer F. S. Loop arrived down the river yesterday and went to the Tongue Point mill docks for 100,000 feet of lumber, which, once aboard, she will depart for San Fran-

The steamer F. A. Kilburn has been sold to C. P. Dow, of Portland, and he will put her on a San Francisco-Eureka-Coos Bay-Astoria-Portland run as soon as possible. She is an oldtimer in this port.

The famous Dollar fleet has had another addition, in the vessel Stanley Dollar, named for the younger son of the family. She was launched at Seattle on Tuesday, at the Moran yards, Mrs. Dollar breaking the bottle from roots and herbs, has been the of champagne against the ship's stem. She is of 2500 tons burden, and will be sent out on the same worldwide and variable lines of commerce her 10 fellow-ships have followed.

The fine new lumber schooner Capistrano is due down from Portland on Saturday next, laden for the Bay City, on her maiden voyage.

been received from Captain Dunham as yet; maybe the wires won't stand for the message.

The British bark Crown of Germany has completed loading at Portland and is in the stream there awaiting despatch, and is next in line for tow to this port and the bar. She is wheat laden for Falmouth, for orders.

Wilson Bros., the well known boat builders are just finishing off the fine motor launch "J. L. C." (named for John L. Carlson, whose property she is), and her trial trip will be taken probably next Sunday; by which time Mr. Carlson will have come over from Seattle. Captain Erick Johnson, who is down from Juneau, Alaska, arriving yesterday, will have command of her on her voyage to the The schooner W. F. Jewett arrived far north which will be made under

The Kamm steamer Undine is still doing the Lurline stunt in good fashion Captain McCuly laid off here Captain Arnaudtzin, came down the all of yesterday to serve as a witness river yesterday and is all in readiness in the divorce suit of Turner vs. Turfor Europe, with her big load of ner, and joined his steamer last night wheat. This is the vessel that has in time to take her back to Portland. made the enviable record of taking The Lurline will relieve her some-

The British ship Clan Buchanan, Captain Thompson, 33 days out from Santa Rosalia, crossed in at 4 o'clock in at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and yesterday afternoon, after a pleasant one of fine distinction. He is a man after stopping at the Callender for and timely voyage with all well on of splendid presence and elegant an hour, went on to Goble, whence board. She is consigned to G. W. wheat for the U. K.

> (Later)-The steamers Loop and Elmore went over the bar last night on their south-bound routes to San Francisco and Tillamook.

The North Shore Transportation Company, owner of the steamer General Washington, has increased its capital stock from $16,000 to $40,-000. The capitalization was too small originally and the increase was made for the purpose of placing the company on a sound footing for future improvements contemplated. Business is good, yesterday being a profitable day, the General Washington carrying her limit of freight, and a large passenger list.

from Callao yesterday afternoon and is at anchor in the lower harbor. She goes to Portland to load lumber for Cape Town, Africa.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 11.-The British ship Largiemore will Capt. R. N. Thompson, founder of finish discharging 1000 tons of Austhe Oregon Steam Navigation Co. day; and if room can be found for and one of the prominent capitalists

More proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restores women to normal health.

Mrs. Mattie Copenhaver, of 315 So. 21st St., Parsons, Kans., writes:

"For two years I suffered from the worst forms of feminine ills, until I was almost driven frantic. Nothing but morphine would relieve me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness, and made me a well woman. Every sick woman should benefit by my experience.'

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound, made standard remedy for female ills and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, ornervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter inconfidence and advise you

THE VERDICT OF OUR PATRONS

No one has ever complained either directly or indirectly against the quality of our food products, and once you are acquainted with our quality you will have no complaint on the prices either

ACMEGROCERY CO.

THE UP-TO-DATE GROCERS

521 COMMERCIAL STREET

PHONE 681

THE THIEF.

A Man With Superstitions As Well As Powers Of Character Analysis.

Henri Bernstein, the brilliant young author of "The Thief," is an interesting refutation levelling and destructive of the marked individual types, which were so plentiful and so diverting in more leisurely days.

Mr. Bernstein, it seems, while scarsely "a character," immediately $7.50. Look them up at once. impresses even "the man in the street" by his personality, which is manners and his friends say that he McNear, at Portland, and will load expends as much thought upon the cut of his clothes or the turn of a cravat as upon the arrangement of an act or the drawing of a character. His "The Thief" has established Mr. Bernstein as the most inventive and most resourceful of modern playwrights. He has the finest sense for almost mathematically built climaxes of any present day writer for the stage; yet Bernstein is anything but practically or scientifically inclined. Rather is he a mystic with sharp eye for observing human nature but personally more subject to extra human influences than any person who comes under his own microscopic

Thus Bernstein will never content himself with a name for one of his plays until he has found one of six letters or less. He is sure no success can come to any of his plays if The Russian bark Albyn crossed in its title, aside from an article, an adjective or some other qualifying word, contains more than six letters. Thus the original French title of "The Thief" - - Le Voleur - - delighted him, and especially so does "Samson," the newest and best of his plays, they say in Paris, and of which Charles Frohman has obtained the English and American rights.

The following is related by his intimates as typical of Bernstein: One morning, after having breakfasted with two friends, one an art printer, the other a publisher, and both very dear to him, Bernstein came to the theatre attired in a handsome suit of dark maroon. To most minds a maroon suit, of course, is a badge of eccentricity. Bernstein probably had lately read of maroon suits and decided that what might to-day seem eccnetricity, in other days would denote an elegant taste. Hence he had set about to establish the fashion of maroon clothes for men, or rather had courageously made himself a disciple of a vogue whose disappearance from the boulevards of Paris sincerely grieved him.

Charles Frohman feels a warmth of interest in Bernstein that is only less cordial than the attachment he feels for the greatest common English playwrights, J. M. Barrie. There is as little in common between the French and English playwrights as men as there is between their manuscripts as plays. But in popularity, extravagant almost to the point of ecestacy, Bernstein is to the French what Barrie is to the English theatregoing public.

Two Ways.

Howell-There are different ways for man to advertise his business Powell - Yes. Some men use the newspapers and others marry.—Smart

The Commercial.

One of the coziest and most popular esorts in the city is the Commercial. A new billiard room, a pleasant sitting room and handsome fixtures all go to make an agreeable meeting place for gentlemen, there to discuss the topics of the day, play a game of billiards and enjoy the fine refreshments served there. The best of goods are only The Oregonian's "marine" reporter yesterday morning reported the arrival of the "steam schooner Roan-oke" in port there. Word has not the constant of the "steam schooner Roan-oke" in port there. Word has not the constant of the constant o handled, and this fact being so well

NEW TO-DAY

GO-CARTS THAT GO.

A mother's pride in her dainty baby finds expression in the folding gocart in which the infant traverses its limited way in the world. The pre fect thing in this line, at rational costs is to be found at the Zapf Furniture & Hardware Company. They are prettily upholstered, rubber-tired and fold compactly. And best of all, they are selling like hot-cakes, at

The Clean Man.

The man who delights in personal leanliness, and enjoys his shave, shampoo, haircut, and bath, in Astoria, always goes to the Occident barber shop for these things-and gets them at their best.

To The People.

In submitting my name to the electors of the Fifth Judicial District for their consideration for the office of District Attorney of said District, I desire to say that if I am nominated and elected, I will, during my term of office, honestly, vigorously and impartialy perform all the official duties pertaining to said office, without fear or favor, endeavoring always to accord to every individual, irrespective of party, politics or personalities, a square deal under the law, keeping always uppermost in my mind the interests of the tax payers of said District and State.

E. B. TONGUE.

For Good Wood

From the Tongue Point Lumber Company, 16-inch stove length. Call up Prael-Eigner Transfer Co., Phone

When You Travel

Be sure that your ticket reads vin the O. R. & N. and connections. at costs no more than via other lines. Through tickets to and from all principal points in the United States, Canada and Europe. G. W. Roberts, Agent, O. R. & N Dock, Astoria.

"Modern" Delights.

When a man | asses under the hands of a barber he wants the best skille treatment to be had in that line. Astoria, the man in search of such manipulation, goes direct to Petersen's "Modern" shop, at 572 Commercial, and gets it in any of the six chairs maintained.

New Grocery Store.

Try our own mixture ot coffee-the J. P. B. Fresh fruit and vegetables. Badollet & Co., grocers. Phone Main

Just received a new line of umbrella covers. See C. H. Orkwitz, 137 Tenth

Kodak Supplies. A full line of films, papers, cameras, kodaks, etc., just received at Hart's Drug Store.

The Palace Restaurant. The ever-increasing popularity of the Palace Restaurant is evidence of the good management, and the service, at this popular dining room. For a long time the reputation of the house has been of the best and it does not wane as time progresses. The system used, that of furnishing the finest the market affords, and all can be obtained, in season, is a plan that will always win, coupled as it is with the best of cooking and prompt service. A common saying nowadays is "Get the Palace habit."

Will lady who bought the cream cake at the St. Agnes' Guild sale two weeks ago please return the plate to Miss Crang's Art Store.