ELKS' MINSTRELS.

The "Big Thing" is now fairly launched. There'll be something doing in Elldom, March 30 and 31 at the Astoria Theatre. Peace and harmony now prevail among the actors and all jealousy has been obliterated. "Jimmie" Johnson, the "coloratura soprano" of the company has been promised a maid and a cab to and from the theatre and "Will" Schimpff, the "Prima Donna" has been pacified with the promise of his name in big type on the program and a big cheval glass in the dressing room and "Bill" Gratke, the dramatic soprano of the troupe, will be given a pint of Dutch champagne before each performance and he has been assured that the spot light will play on his handsome face and graceful form. It has taken quite a lot of diplomacy to satisfy all these stars and the management has not overcome all difficulties yet, as "Charlie" Abercrombie, the charming soubrette, and "Gus" Ziegler, the heavy contralto, are showing evidences of dissatisfaction at the attentions given the others, but it is thought that a milk bath or two and a bouquet handed over the footlights will make them happy. The line-up of the "gang" is nearly completed and the outlook is fine. Seriously speaking, no entertainment affords so much innocent, unadulterated enjoyment and appeals to so many people as a home talent minstrel show, if at all worthy and the Elks are preparing to give one that will make all former efforts look like thirty cents. Predictions are freely made that this entertainment will be the greatest artistic, social and financial triumph of the season.

Best Healer in the World.

Rev. F. Starbird, of East Raymond, Maine, says: "I have used Bucklen's Arnica Salve for several years, on my old army wound, and other obstinate sores, and find it the best healer in the world. I use it too with great success in my veterinary business." Price 25c at Chas. Rogers & Son's drug store.

IT SAVED MY LIFE—WRITES ECZEMA PATIENT.

Bed-ridden Sufferer Completely Cured by Use of D. D. D. External Wash. One of the most remarkable Eczema cures recently credited to the well known D. D. D. Prescription has just been recorded in Chicago. Mrs. E. Hegg, 1550 West Madison street, under date of December 9, 1907, writes as follows: "I suffered three years with Weeping Eczema. It started with a little spot on my knees and spread fast over my whole body. I spent hundreds of dollars and went to every good doctor I heard of, but kept getting worse. Nothing would stop the awful itch and burning. "I had to stay in bed from the middle of May to the middle of July. Then I tried D. D. D. Prescription. This is the 9th of December and I am entirely free from the terrible disease. D. D. D. saved my life. "When I began this treatment, people were afraid of me I looked so terrible. My husband was the only one who would take care of me. D. D. D. stopped the itch at once so I could sleep, which I had not done before. Then I began to get better fast and now my skin is clear and white, not a spot anywhere." Just a few drops of D. D. D. Prescription applied to the skin brings relief—nothing to swallow or drink. We vouch for D. D. D. Prescription, also the cleansing D. D. Soap, Chas. Rogers & Son, druggists. Get a bottle today if you have any skin disease. Begin your cure at once.

THE NEW CACTUS.

Botanical authorities are discussing, with lively difference in opinion, the actual utilitarian importance of Luther Burbank's recent production of a spineless cactus. So writes E. S. Merriam in the Technical World Magazine for April. One California physician, Dr. Landone, of Los Angeles, is reported as having tried the experiment of living and working two weeks on a diet consisting almost exclusively of the new plant. He felt well, gained half a pound in weight, and celebrated the end of the experimental fortnight by giving a cactus dinner to a party of brother physicians. The soup was of cactus and celery, followed by an omelet of cactus and green peppers. Fried cactus came next, then a salad of lettuce with cactus fruit, sherbet of cactus fruit, and a drink made of cactus juice completed the remarkable menu.

All this is suggestive as to what may be done in a cactus growing region when ordinary supplies run low. The main interest of the situation lies, however, more in its relation to the food of four-footed folks. Some agricultural authorities see in this new possibility of producing a cactus minus armor the promise of an additional forage crop to fill the present painful lack in desert regions. Others believe that the cactus, once disarmed, so to speak, would, in those regions where it is most needed, be promptly destroyed by hungry animals, and the result would be its entire disappearance. It is an interesting question, but it probably cannot be settled by academic discussion. Practical experiment alone can demonstrate whether the magician of Santa Rosa has actually increased the world's food resources or only "done a stunt" in fancy horticulture.

DAYS OF DIZZINESS.

Come to Hundreds of Astoria People.

There are days of dizziness; Spells of headache, sideache, backache; Sometimes rheumatic pains; Often urinary disorders. All tell you plainly the kidneys are sick. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Here is proof in Astoria. Mrs. E. Haggblom, corner Ninth and Harrison streets, Astoria, Oregon, says: "For 10 years I suffered acutely from kidney trouble which gradually grew more severe until I was on the verge of physical breakdown. I was losing flesh rapidly. My back was so weak and painful and I suffered from such severe dizzy spells that I could hardly get around. At last I was forced to take to my bed and remained there for a long time. My kidneys were irregular in action and the secretions so profuse as to cause me a great deal of suffering. At last I decided to try a good kidney remedy. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and the results that followed their use were most satisfactory. I continued using them and it was not long before I was completely cured. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills on some occasions since, to keep my kidneys in good order and can conscientiously say I have not had any recurrence of the trouble Doan's Kidney Pills cured me."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
