GETS "EASY MONEY"

Important Testimony Before a Master in Chancery.

FILING ON CERTAIN LANDS

In the Hearing of the Case Against the Utah & Pleasant Valley Coal Company, John Shinness Admitted That he Had Received Money.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 2.—In his testimony at the hearing of the cases against the Utah and Pleasant Valley Coal Company and before Master in Chancery Lewis yesterday John Shinness, an employer of the Pleasant Valley Company at Scofield, admitted that he had received a compensation of $250 from the company for filing on certain lands and signing certain affidavits.

Schinness said he knew that others were getting "easy money" and thought he might as well have some of it. This is the most important testimony so far elicited by the government in its criminal action against the coal companies for obtaining land by fraud.
