REMOVED STIGMA

Crime Committed 26 Years Ago But Man Escaped.

INDICTMENT WAS DISMISSED

Murray Was Killed on an Election Day When There Had Been a Riot at the Polls and Murray and Taylor Fought on the Street.

KINGSTON, N. Y. April 9.—In some western city, the name of which is scrupulously guarded, lives a prominent and respected citizen from whom the Supreme Court of New York to-day removed the stigma of an indictment which was returned 26 years ago and charged John Taylor with the death of Thomas Murray.

The present home of Taylor and the name under which he has since lived, married and risen to the head of a big mercantile establishment are known to but three men here and his secret will be kept. Taylor's identity was made known by him to the court after search for him which covered two continents and took several years has been abandoned. Throwing himself upon the mercy of the prosecution, Taylor invited an inquiry into his life for the past quarter of a century. This was made and it proved so satisfactory that former Supreme Court Justice Clearwater, who as district attorney obtained the indictment against Taylor, decided that it would be gross injustice to reveal the man's new name. To-day Justice W. C. Howard of Try, sitting in the Supreme Court, dismissed the indictment against Taylor after it had been shown that all possible witness against the defendant were dead. Justice Clearwater who personally investigated the case and the present district attorney seconded the action of the court. Only Justice Howard and Mr. Clearwater have knowledge of the facts in the case. Ex Justice Clearwater said tonight:

"The killing of Murray was a case of love, rum and politics. Manslaughter, which was charged, could not be proven now. Taylor has made a new home and won an honored name. He is at the head of a big

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

LYDIA E. PINKHAM

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women or received so many genuine testimonials as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have. In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman any day may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless. The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition. Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound manufacturing establishment in the west and has a wife and six children all ignorant of his early misfortune. His character is above reproach and it would be an outrage to revive the story now."

The killing of Murray and the subsequent pursuit of Taylor were of great interest.

Mr. Murray was killed at Port day when there had been a riot at the polls. Taylor and Murray were unfriendly for various reasons. They belonged to opposing political parties and loved the same girl. On election day they quarreled at the polls and then fought on the street. A brick with which Murray's skull was cracked is still in the office of the district attorney. Several days later Murray died and Taylor fled. In 1882 a grand jury indicted Taylor for manslaughter in the first degree and a search for him was instituted. He was traced to Pennsylvania where it was alleged he had allied himself with the Molly Maguires. He escaped from the country but was traced to the home of his mother in Ireland. He was apprehended but again escaped. Later he returned to America and settled in the West. Recently he determined to clear his name. He corresponded with the officials here who had long before given up hope of his arrest and today's dismissal of the indictment resulted.

AUTOS BREAK THE WAY.

The New York-to-Paris auto race has a significance other than the mere tests of speed and endurance of the several cars and their drivers. For years the question of the feasibility of a railway from New York to Paris by the Behring strait route has been discussed and rejected without action as a faint probability of the remote future. The successful completion of the auto race is almost certain to break a way for such a railroad—not through the snowy wastes of Siberia, but rather through the cautious doubts of those who have hitherto opposed it on the ground of impracticability. Some good pictures of several of the racing cars en route accompany an article appearing in the April Popular Mechanics. In Indiana the contestants had a foretaste of the difficulties they doubtless will encounter farther north.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Robert Ingils, the young athlete who has been in St. Josephs Hospital, yonkers since two o'clock Sunday morning with three stitches in his heart, is reported to be greatly improved. He tells the physicians, he feels very little pain in his heart, which his assailant's knife penetrated and this is taken as an indication that the wound is healing. His case is now looked upon by medical men as one of the most remarkable in the history of the profession. The record before this case was that of a woman who lived 18 hours after a similar operation.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

When a rooster finds a big fat worm he calls all the hens in the farm yard to come and share it. A similar trait of human nature is to be observed when a man discovers something exceptionally good—he wants all his friends and neighbors to share the benefits of his discovery. This is the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. This explains why people who have been cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers for publication, that others similarly ailing may also use it and obtain relief. Behind every one of these letters is a warm-hearted wish of the writer to be of use to some one else. This remedy is for sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.
