INSTITUTE CLOSED YESTERDAY

THE CLATSOP TEACHERS AND THEIR GUESTS AND COLLEAGUES OF THE STATE WIND OUT A SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

After singing, followed by the Lord's Prayer, the morning session was opened with an interesting talk on "Libraries and How to Care for Them," by Miss Cornelia Marvin, secretary of the Library Association, Salem. Miss Marvin dwelt particularly on the importance of associating helpful good books, as aids to both teacher and pupils giving lists, and other valuable suggestions.

Miss Lillie Johnson sweetly sang "Life's Lullaby's". The recess was given chiefly to the discussion and examination of the wealth of books and aids of all kinds kindly furnished by Miss Marvin.

Little Ora McCormack delighted the Institute with her sweet voice in "Where the Four-Leaf Clover Blooms."

After a brief but forcible presentation of the present conditions confronting the University of Oregon the main educational topic before the people of Oregon today, Professor Traver continued his instruction on "How to Teach Composition." After a short intermission Professor Alderman talked on the interesting topic "County School Fair."

Such a fair carried out in Yamhill county was used to illustrate. Mrs. Huden was called on to give some description of the Benton county fair.

Dr. Sheldon's subject on the "Psychology of Habit." Psychology, to most people appears a dry and difficult subject, but Dr. Sheldon invests it with a charm which makes his number on the program very welcome to all who hear him.

At the afternoon session, after music, "Oregon, My Oregon," the Institute heartily welcomed State Superintendent Ackerman, who by his mere presence, added to the interest and pleasure of the teachers. His address was comprehensive and most helpful and dealt with the subject "The Problem of the Country School." How can the Oregon school laws be modified so that the remotest and poorest district can share equally with the strongest district in length of school term, and best of teachers, good salaries, every supervision needed by any school. The Kentucky "Country School Law" was presented as best possible solution of this problem.

A chorus of 15 boys of Shively school, trained by Miss Shively, and accompanied by Miss Neilson, a brilliant young pianist, sang "Sam Land" responding to a strong encore with "School Days." The boys captured the teachers to the extent of a second encore, repeating "School Days," and were then sent on to Hoefler's by their appreciative teachers.

Prof. Alderman then came before the teachers with the question, "What Shall we Look for from Our Normal Graduates?" The closing period of the session was made most enjoyable by five minute addresses from each of the instructors and the institute adjourned with the greatest good feeling, and a realizing sense of still more to be accomplished for the schools the Oregon teachers, and the grand old State itself.

During the day the following sets of resolutions were submitted, discussed, and adopted on the unified vote of the Institute:

"Whereas, There is a probability of the forfeiture of the Oregon & California Railway land grant because of the failure of the grantee to comply with the terms upon which the grant was made; and whereas the character of almost the entire area of said grant makes the best utilization of it that of a permanent state forest; and

"Whereas, The interests of the people of Oregon connected with the conservation of their water powers of the navigability of their rivers, and of the soil of the valleys are vitally and absolutely dependent upon the use of said land grant areas as a state forest;

Therefore, Be it resolved by the teachers of Clatsop county, having in view the large welfare of Oregon, that Oregon's Senators and Representatives in Congress and her delegates to the National conference called to meet at Washington, D. C., next May 12, 13 and 14, be requested to urge this matter of securing these lands for the people of Oregon so that the revenue from the administration of them as a permanent state forest, may be largely used for the more adequate support of the Oregon schools; the

"Be it further resolved, That copies of these resolutions be forwarded to our representatives and senators in Congress now assembled; and to the delegates of the above-named convention; and that copies of the same be furnished to each of the Astoria daily papers. Signed

"A. L. CLARK,
"J. T. LEE,
"E. L. KEEZEL,
"Special Committee."

Thanks and Endorsement.

We, the teachers of Clatsop county, in institute assembled, offer the following resolutions:

"We endorse the annual appropriation of $125,000 for the support of the University of Oregon, and be it
