Rose City and Roanoke Make a Dual Getaway

SQUARE RIGGERS DUE DOWN

Steamers Alliance, Eureka and Washington to Leave Out This Morning at 6 O'clock—St. Helens Due in—Derelict Kelton Labeled For $70,000.

The derelict steam schooner Minnie E. Kelton has been libeled in the federal court at Portland in the sum of $70,000 as a matter of protection of the salvage rights of the Washington Marine Company and of Captain Nason of the salvage steamer Washington, who brought her in to this port. The claimants have declared a valuation of $3000 on the lumber saved with the wreck, and the sum of the award will, of course, be named by the court, upon the presentation of the case with its counter-claims.

The crack California-Astoria-Portland liners Rose City and Roanoke made a dual rived run and departure for sea, yesterday, docking at the O. R. & N. and Callender docks in this city respectively, at 4 o'clock, and leaving down for the bar at 5, both laden with plenty of freight and black with passengers; and they were not 20 minutes apart going to sea.

The French bark Eugene Pergaline, wheat laden for Europe, is due down the river today on the towlines of the Harvest Queen, and the German bark Nomia is also due down and out for Europe. The schooner Mabel Gale is also ready for sea and may come down with the bunch.

The steamer Alliance is due down from Portland early this morning and will depart for Coos Bay, from the Callender dock at 6 o'clock; as will, also, the steamer Eureka, due down from the metropolis for the California port of that name.

The Kamm liner Undine came down with good business yesterday evening and made an early landing even for her. She went up at 7 o'clock again with a big passenger list, and lots of way freight.

The steamer Johan Poulsen cleared from the custom house here yesterday with her holdful of wheat and 300,000 feet of choice Washington fir lumber on her spar deck, bound for the Bay City. She is supposed to have gone to sea on the evening flood.

The steamer Wellesley arrived in from San Francisco yesterday morning and after being fumigated by the quarantine officers, went on to Portland.

The steamer Westerner was among the arrivals from the California coast yesterday, and she will load lumber for the return voyage at the Tongue Point mills.

The steamer Sue H. Elmore was a getaway yesterday, for Tillamook Bay points; and was closely followed to sea by the lighthouse tender Heather.

The steamer Washington, from Portland, is due to leave out for San Francisco, from the Callender dock this morning at 6 o'clock.

The steamer Northland arrived down from the metropolis yesterday morning went directly to sea after a brief stay at the Callender docks.

The British bark Cornil Bart, wheat laden for Falmouth for orders, came

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

CLATSOP COUNTY HOLDS ITS CONVENTION AT SEASIDE—OFFICERS ELECTED AND COMMITTEES APPOINTED—INTERESTING PAPERS READ

The Sunday school convention of Clatsop county convened in the First Methodist Church at Seaside at 2:30 p. m., Friday, May 8. After a devotional exercise led by Dr. C. C. Chapman, the welcome address by Mrs. A. H. Wilson was given in well-chosen words and with a spirit that made all the visitors feel at home, and was responded to by Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, the president of the convention in beautiful and cheerful words that gave us bright hope for the new year's work. The round table conducted by State Secretary Charles A. Phipps dealt with practical problems and was thoroughly helpful. The Sunday school workers all asking questions and taking part freely in the discussions.

At the evening service Rev. C. C. Rarick gave an instructive address on "How to Keep Young People in the Sunday School." Following this Rev. Charles A. Phipps of Portland spoke on "The Real American Boy." In this speech Mr. Phipps showed that he had not forgotten his own boyhood days, however far back they may have been. His address was humorous and inspirational, and full of interest to all who heard it.

Saturday morning session opened with good interest. After a brief praise service, Mr. Phipps gave an unusually clear and helpful address on "Junior Department Problems." As Mrs. A. D. Garner could not be present till the afternoon to speak on "The Relation of the Sunday School to the Church," the Round Table was again taken up and again there was a brisk all around interest and discussion, the subject this time being "Sunday School Management." Rev. Gilbert of Astoria lead a devotional reading in the afternoon meeting, after which Mrs. Garner read an interesting paper on "The Relation of the Sunday School to the Church." Miss Elsie Elmore read a paper on "The Beginners" and Miss Delia Snelling on "The Primary." Both of these papers were full of interest.

A returned missionary, Rev. Walker, spoke on mission work in Fu Chou China. Mr. Walker had spent thirty-five years in China, and spoke with ease and to an attentive audience. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Astoria; vice-president, Mrs. A. H. Wilson, Seaside; secretary, Miss Pearl Estes, Astoria; treasurer, Miss Alema Wyman, Astoria. Executive board: Miss M. C. Warren, Mr. Albert Carlson, Mrs. J. E. Brabier.

Superintendent elementary department, Mrs. B. M. Rogers, Warrenton. Superintendent Home Department, Mrs. Minnie Keck, Hammond. Superintendent Adult Department, Mrs. J. W. Crow, Knappa. Superintendent Teacher Training Department—Mrs. D. Ross, Astoria. Superintendent Temperance and Good Citizenship, Astoria.

The delegates all returned home with only pleasant memories of the beautiful city of Seaside and its hospitable people.

down from Portland yesterday, and went to sea later in the day.

The steamer St. Helen's is due in from San Francisco at almost any hour today, bound for Portland.

NEW TO-DAY

The Palace Restaurant

The ever-increasing popularity of the Palace Restaurant is evidence of the good management, and the service, at this popular dining room. For a long time the reputation of the house has been of the best and it does not wane as time progresses. The system used, that of furnishing the finest the market affords, and all can be obtained, in season, is a plan that will always win, coupled as it is with the best of cooking and prompt service. A common saying nowadays is "Get the Palace habit."

The very best board to be obtained in the city is at "The Occident Hotel." Rates very reasonable.

The Commercial

One of the coziest and most popular resorts in the city is the Commercial. A new billiard room, a pleasant sitting room and handsome fixtures all go to make an agreeable meeting place for gentlemen, there to discuss the topics of the day, play a game of billiards and enjoy the fine refreshments served there. The best of goods are only handled, and this fact being so well known, a large business is done at the Commercial, on Commercial street near Eleventh.
