For an amendment of Section 28... (Section 28 provides the time when laws take effect, and the proposed amendment is, therefore, wrongly numbered.)

For an amendment of Section 3 of Article XIV... (Section 3 provides the location of State institutions elsewhere than at the seat of government by act of the legislature and vote of the people.)

For an act providing that in all counties, the sheriff shall have the custody of prisoners committed to or confined in the county jail and such prisoners shall be worked at such places and for such time and in such order one hundred thousand inhabitants and that in counties over one hundred thousand inhabitants the salaries of guards and jailers shall not exceed $90.00 per month and the price of meals furnished prisoners shall be 12 1/2c each.

For an act requiring railroads and other common carriers to grant free transportation to State officers and county judges and sheriffs, as a condition precedent to acquiring land for corporate purposes by the exercise of eminent domain and to prohibit the payment of mileage for such free transportation.

For an act prohibiting fishing for salmon or sturgeon on Sunday from January first to October first, also in the Columbia River only from October first to December thirty-first, also in the navigable channels of the Columbia River west of west line of range 9 W., near Astoria, and east of west line of range six to one hundred and fifty fathoms long and four and one-sixth fathoms deep, and providing penalties.

For constitutional amendment giving additional and exclusive power to cities and towns, within their corporate limits, to license, regulate, control, and tax, or to suppress or prohibit theatres, race-tracks, pool-rooms, bowling alleys, billiard halls, and the sale of liquors, subject to the provisions of the local option law of the State of Oregon.

For constitutional amendment providing that all dwelling houses, barns, sheds, out-houses and all other appurtenances there-to; all machinery and buildings used exclusively for manufacturing purposes and appurtenances thereto; all fences, farm machinery, and appliances used as such; all fruit trees, vines, shrubs, and all other improvements on farms; all live stock; all household furniture in use; and all tools owned by workmen and in use, shall be exempt from taxation in addition to exemptions now authorized by the constitution.

For an amendment to Article II, of the Constitution, giving the voters power to call a special election at any time to discharge any public officer and elect his successor.

For an act to amend Section 3529 of Bellinger & Corton's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Oregon by increasing the annual appropriation for the support and maintenance of the University of Oregon.

For constitutional amendment giving the people power to make laws for election of public officers by majority vote instead of plurality; to provide that the political parties and voters, organizations shall be proportionally represented in all offices filled by the election of two or more persons, and that a voter shall vote for only one person for any office, and may indicate his second, third, etc., choice; and to provide for a simple method of precinct residence and registration.

For constitutional amendment providing for the choosing of jurors and grand jurors, and that no person can be charged with a crime until he has been examined by a jury, the district attorney may file an amended indictment.

BABY BOOTHS.

Following the horse and dog, the baby has at last had a show of its own beneath the roof of Madison Square Garden. Mothers innumerable have this week flocked to this novel exposition to hear and see much on the care of their offspring. Under the sign of the stork the show has become the center of a good deal of real interest even in Gotham, where such things usually come in for secondary interest. Brooklyn has hitherto been the baby-carriage borough for all the greater city; but now Manhattan has at last succeeded in focussing some attention on her family affairs.

natural in appearance, frequently causing me much annoyance. I finally learned of Doan's Pills and deciding to give them a trial, procured a box at Chas. Roger's drug store. The results that followed their use were very satisfactory. I feel that I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with great confidence to other sufferers. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Mrs. S. Joyce, 180 Sullivan St., Claremont, N. H., writes: "About a year ago I bought two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It cured me of a severe case of Kidney trouble of several years standing. It certainly is a grand, good medicine, and I heartily recommend it."

MUST BELIEVE IT.

When Well-Known Astoria People Tell It So Plainly. When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Astoria the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kind way trouble will find profit in the reading. Mrs. E. Nettleblade, 133 Astor St., Astoria, Ore., says: "For a long time I suffered from kidney complaint and would rise in the morning feeling so lame and stiff that it was only with great effort that I was able to perform my household duties. There was an awful bearing down feeling through my hips and loins and many times I suffered so intensely that I was forced to lie down. The secretions from my kidneys were un-we shall have only the cream of each author. Of course, if we ever came to dispose of the books, we should not be able to get so much for them at auction in broken lots. Even with proper care and a wide circle of friends, however, certain books will not be obtainable in any way except by buying. The danger of this is, of course, manifest. It makes one careless about money matters, and may develop into a habit. It should, therefore, only be indulged in in cases of absolute necessity, when other means have failed. Success Magazine. known, under these favorable conditions, to grow to such proportions that it has even been necessary to return some of the books borrowed in order to make room. Under these happy circumstances it is better perhaps to exchange the book returned for others which are more desirable, thus constantly raising your standard. The unfortunate necessity of returning any books may be avoided, in these days of sectional bookcases, if you have the tact to borrow an unused section from each friend whose library you have depleted. It is by some considered desirable to have a few unbroken sets on one's shelves. Of course, it is possible under favorable circumstances to borrow from a friend a complete set of Thackeray or Dickens—under the plea that one is compiling a calendar or something of that sort. But, after all, isn't it better to take only those books which one really wants? Thus

HOW TO GET A LIBRARY

It is comparatively easy, for any one who has enthusiasm and patience to borrow in the course of time a fairly respectable library. The advantages of such a library are manifest. It costs nothing except a little grace, a little condescension, and, perhaps, a shade of discrimination. Your unsuspecting friend, full of enthusiasm for his book, insists that you ought to read it. He thrusts it upon you. You must take it home with you. Or, if it happens that he has already had some experience with you, and suddenly at this point becomes silent, it is easy for you to take up the thread, thank him warmly for his information, and, if he is "quite through" with the book, will he lend it to you "for a few days?" Of course there is nothing for him but to comply, and thus your library swells. Indeed, libraries have been
