In a Serious Condition—
Fred Gilse, who attempted to leap from the third story balcony at the St. Mary's Hospital, while in a delirious condition last week, was in a very critical condition at a late hour last night, and was not expected to live over night. Mr. Gilse is suffering with dropsy.

Ball Game—
A good game of ball was played on the Chinook diamond Sunday afternoon between the Cathlamet and Ft. Columbia team. The score of 3 to 2 in favor of the Cathlamet Indians was a good, close one, and maintained much interest, as the teams stood tie until the last inning when by a good piece of work the Indians scored.

Baseball At Seaside—
The baseball game between the Young Seals of Seaside and the Warrenton Juniors, was one of the fastest and most interesting games ever held on the Seaside grounds, the playing was swift and exciting from the first man to the last man up and out. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the Young Seals.

Died Sunday—
Oscar I. Gopaes, aged 23, died last Saturday at 11 p. m. at the residence of Samuel Ness, 1674 Franklin avenue. Quick consumption was the cause. The deceased will be buried at 1:30 this afternoon from the Norwegian Methodist Church, interment to be at the Greenwood cemetery. He was a native of Norway and leaves a wife and two children.

Died At Sacramento—
The mournful intelligence was received in this city yesterday of the sudden death, at Sacramento, Cal., on Friday last, of Jas. E. Henry, the well known advertising man who served the popular shoe house of C. V. Brown here during all of last winter. Mrs. Henry was with him when he expired, and his death is attributed to stomach trouble.

Fishing Without License—
David Huddleston of Puget Island was caught in the Cathlamet channel without a license by Water Bailiff Settem Saturday. Mr. Settem secured the man's net, and put it in the launch Oregon Patrol, but yesterday when he went to get it, he found it had been stolen. But he has information of the man who stole it and he will be arrested along with Huddleston.

Alumni Meet—
At the High School Alumni meet last night it was decided to hold a banquet the night following the night of the graduating exercises of the High School. Committees were appointed who will make all preparations for the banquet which will this year surpass any of its kind ever attempted in the way of elaborate decorations, etc., for which this organization is noted.

Next To Last Meeting—
The Astoria Philharmonic Society will meet this evening at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Zigler, for the next to the last rehearsal for the grand concert to be given at the Astoria opera house on the evening of the 18th instant. The society is making splendid progress, and the coming event is scheduled everywhere as the leading social feature of the year.

Will Build Quartz Mill—
J. A. Fastabend returned yesterday from Kelso and Portland where he

F. will leave for the Bohemia mining district in a few days where he has the contract for erecting a large quartz mill at the Mayflower mine. The mill will have a capacity of 100 tons of ore a day. The Mayflower mine is owned largely by Kelso people and it is thought will develop into something rich.

Will Run To November—
It was ascertained here yesterday that the Columbia mills of Knappton, which were pretty nearly at the point of closing down for want of orders, are stocked up with business engagements that will keep everything humming at least until November next. Orders have been received with a rush during the past few days, three of them aggregating 5,000,000 feet, with an abundance of smaller orders that make things cheerful over there.

Gone East—
Rev. Neste, pastor of the First Norwegian Lutheran Church and his wife are leaving this morning for their eastern trip embracing Ogden, Salt Lake, Colorado Springs, Denver, Kansas City and Chicago, where Rev. Neste will be present at the 29th general convention of the Lutheran Synod church which convenes on June 18th to the 25th. After the convention they will pay a visit to Decorah, Iowa, their former home.

Good Service Anyhow—
The Astorian of Sunday was mistaken in saying that the new wires being erected to the United Wireless station on Smith's Point were for telephonic service; they are to connect the wireless office with the Commercial street office of the Postal Telegraph Company, in the interest of direct transmission of telegraphic business; but all the same it is a good and advantageous improvement, anyhow.

Making Fine Progress—
Manager Ogan, of the Astoria Clay Products Company, reports that the Alderbrook plant is swinging along toward completion rapidly and that the machinery for the business will all be here by the first of the coming month and that the two big buildings will be in readiness for its installation. The buildings are both up, one entirely roofed in, and the other being roofed. Both are enclosed. One of the houses is four-storied, and 40 by 60 feet in dimensions, the other being one storied and 100 by 60 feet.

Whose Body Was It?—
It was reported in this city on Sunday evening that a fisherman while hauling in his nets off Barney's Point on the morning of that day, caught the body of a drowned man in the meshes but in the haul the body turned and rolled again into deep water and was lost. There was no time to recover it; and from the locality, it is deemed to have been the corpse of either the mate of the schooner Irene, or of you.g Vernon Elbon, of Knappton, who were drowned together on Saturday, May 30th, in that neighborhood.

In Probate Court—
County Judge C. J. Trenchard, sitting for probate matters yesterday made the following order: In the estate of Henry O. Laxwell, discharging F. J. Taylor, the executor, and closing the estate.—In the case of the estate of Sam Torilla; approving the final account as filed by the administrator, and discharging that officer and his bondsmen.—In the matter of the estate of Jalet Niemi; appointing Mary Niemi as administratrix of said estate and naming Messrs. G. J. Ellis, A. F. Ellis and D. A. Rose, as appraisers.

Body Discovered—
The body of Henry Tark, one of the two men that were run down and drowned while in their sailing boat, by the Daniel Kern, a few weeks ago, was picked up by Oscar Lanta and John Walpo, the latter who was Tark's boatpuller and who was with him at the time of the accident. The body was picked up near the jetty sands and was taken to Fort Stevens and was brought to Astoria yesterday by Coroner Pohl. He will be buried by the Finnish Brotherhood from Coroner Pohl's establishment, at 1:30 today. Interment will be at the Greenwood cemetery.

New Megler Dock—
Parties who have had a chance to inspect the new dock at Megler, across from this city, the new terminal of the Ilwaco Railroad Company, and the steamer terminal of the O. R. & N. on the north shore, say that it is one of the best pieces of dock equipment in this section. The part of that's covered with housing, is 60 by 200 feet in dimensions; the piling is heavy stout and strongly counterbraced and sharply lined; there are slips, and gates, a fine waiting room, a neat and commodious office, electric lights, and all the appointments of an up-to-date rail and water service.

For The "Fourth"—
Messrs. Kline, Clark and McLean, of the Clerks' Union, were abroad yesterday in the interest of the Fourth of July celebration fund, and did a good day's work, the first two hours netting the handsome figure of $325 and the balance of the day's quest resulting proportionately. They will soon have the necessary sum wherewith to launch the detail and the engagements for the great holiday will quickly follow. There is not much time, and it is desired that no one hold back, but give quickly and as largely as possible in order that the detail of the big task may be expedited and the affair assured of genuine success.

Old Pioneer Dead—
Wyatt A. Poole died Sunday night at his ranch near Glenwood station on the A. & C. R. R., a few miles below Warrenton. The cause of his death being cancer of the stomach. The deceased leaves a wife and six children, besides four brothers in the east. He was an old pioneer of the Pacific Coast, coming west from Farmington, Iowa, at the age of 19 years, in 1852, he crossed the plains with an oxen team bound for California where he remained until 1855, when he went home again by the way of Panama. In 1859 he again crossed the continent for California where he located in Sierra county, for 20 years, when he and his family moved around considerable, until locating at Glenwood about a year and a half ago.

Chamber of Commerce—
At the regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night no business was transacted out of that of a regular routine nature, although the seawall, the stump and electric railroad propositions were discussed by members of the chamber. It was supposed that after the regular session the Clatsop Fuel Company would elect its officers, but nothing in this manner had been done. Dr. Fulton was appointed chairman after the regular Chamber of Commerce meeting had adjourned, and made a few remarks regarding the promotion of the Clatsop Fuel Company and its benefits to the city of Astoria in general—disagreeing with Mayor Wise that $1.50 per 1000 cubic feet for natural gas, was too much. After a little more discussion the meeting was adjourned at 9:15.

For The Hatcheries—
State Fish Warden H. C. McAllister was in the city yesterday on business for the state in his department, and went to Portland last evening. He will leave Salem today for Wedderburn, accompanied by U. S. Fish Commissioner Henry O'Malley, and will be guests of R. D. Hume, at whose great hatchery these gentlemen will garner what of facts and pointers may be of advantage in the outfitting of the Oregon state hatchery at Bonneville. This last named station is to be made a central point of operations, especially the rearing and feeding of the fry. While here yesterday Warden McAllister made very satisfactory arrangements with the cannery people of this entire section, to can 10,000 gallons of offal feed for the hatcheries, and will immediately ship the cans here for this

WOMAN'S BACKACHE

The back is the mainspring of woman's organism. It quickly calls attention to trouble by aching. It tells, with other symptoms, such as nervousness, headache, pains in the loins, weight in the lower part of the body, that a woman's feminine organism needs immediate attention. In such cases the one sure remedy which speedily removes the cause, and restores the feminine organism to a healthy, normal condition is LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. Mrs. Will Young, of 6 Columbia Ave., Rockland, Me., says: "I was troubled for a long time with dreadful backaches and a pain in my side, and was miserable in every way. I doctored until I was discouraged and thought I would never get well. I read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others and decided to try it; after taking three bottles I can truly say that I never felt so well in my life."

Mrs. Augustus Lyon, of East Earl, Pa., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had very severe backaches, and pressing-down pains. I could not sleep, and had no appetite. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me and made me feel like a new woman." FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.
