STEAMER ROMA IN OIL FLEET

A FINE VESSEL THAT IS NOW MAKING HER FIRST TRIAL TRIP IN COLUMBIA RIVER WATERS.

The oil tank steamer Roma which has been hourly expected to enter the river for the past two days had not been sighted at dark last evening, though it was thought probable she would come in during the night. The Roma is of the fleet of the Union Oil Company and this is her first trip to the Columbia. She is a fine vessel and was formerly in the service of the Union Company in Atlantic waters. Recently she was brought around and put in commission in the Pacific, thus making a total of nine vessels now in the Union Company's fleet. From now on she will make regular trips to Portland, alternating with the Argyll, Lansing and Whittier. The Roma has been out two months on this trip around. Captain Tom Crang is in Astoria in readiness to take her up the river.

The Edmond Rostand, Captain Drillet, came down from Portland yesterday in tow of the Harvest Queen. The French bark cleared from Portland for Queenstown or Fal-mouth for orders with a cargo of 110,095 bushels of wheat valued at $99,084. The going out of the Rostand marks the opening of the grain season. The French bark Vendee and the Crown of India and Largiemore are still at Portland under charter for June loading of old-crop grain. It is said exports of grain to foreign ports for June will be heavy, considering the fact that it is the last month in the cereal year. The closing month of last season was barren, as far as foreign exports are concerned. This month will see at least four full cargoes set afloat at Portland which will total close to 500,000 bushels of wheat.

M. A. Bernays, son of Chaplain Bernays, of the Portland Seamen's Institute, who sailed June 3 in an 18-foot sailboat from Vancouver, B. C., for Portland, arrived at Neah Bay Thursday. A telegram from him, received by his father, stated that bad weather had marked the entire voyage. He will set sail at once, but does not expect to reach Astoria before Monday.

A. B. HAMMOND MIGHT BOY ACCUSES MAN OF ASSAULT

WELL DEFINED RUMOR OF NEGOTIATIONS FOR THE PURCHASE OF ESTABLISHED LUMBERING PLANT IN THIS CITY—WILL BE WELCOMED.

From the well-founded rumors afloat in and about this city, Astoria is to regain the definite and always valuable interest of A. B. Hammond. This time in the lumbering field.

It is a well known fact that Hammond people have held options on most of the big milling plants in this city and near to it, for sometime past, and that the list included the famous docks and mills of the Tongue Point Lumbering Company; that these equities have been permitted to lapse from time to time, including the fine Hume properties before mentioned.

The presence in this city on Thursday and yesterday, of the executive staff of the Hammond milling concerns in Oregon, John A. Shaw, of the Curtis Lumber Company, with headquarters at Mill City, is significant, and especially as Mr. Shaw was at the Tongue Point plant the most of his time in Astoria.

Astoria will gladly welcome the return of Mr. Hammond's self and people to this section, because it will mean much for the city and its entire territory; for of all the men who have ever taken definite interest in this end of the Columbia alley, he has done the most and has done it well and lastingly.

PERSONAL MENTION

Miss Emma Warren, superintendent of the county schools, has returned from a tour of inspection of several of the schools in the Nehalem Valley. She reports the schools in excellent condition.

Miss Lenora Benoit, the popular stenographer, has returned from a business jaunt to Portland and can be found as usual at her Commercial-street office.

Lester Lounsbury, a resident of Clatsop City, is visiting with relatives in Astoria today.

Captain Peter Jordan and family returned from a visit to Portland on the Spencer yesterday.

Battleships Pass Mouth of River— At 1:30 this morning the Astorian received word that the two battleships Pennsylvania and Colorado that are bound for the Puget Sound navy yards were both making good time, and at 1:30 the Pennsylvania passed the mouth of the Columbia River with the Colorado about eighty miles south of her.

WILLING TO ACCEPT.

To the Honorable George Kaboth, and about one hundred other taxpayers of School District No. 1, Astoria, Oregon:

Gentlemen—In reply to the petition signed by you, requesting the privilege of using my name as a candidate for the office of Director at the approaching school election, I desire to say: I fully appreciate the compliment to me contained in your request, and sincerely thank you for the same.

I fully appreciate the responsibilities and the purely altruistic duties devolving upon the incumbent of the office of director on a school board, and that the prosperity and reputation of a community are largely judged by the degree of efficiency in its public school system. I earnestly believe that one of the most important things that could contribute toward the fame of our city, is, that it should have a public school system to no other community of like population. We should have a corps of teachers, efficient and zealous; we should have adequate apparatus for the application of all modern methods of instruction, and we should have sanitary and substantial buildings in which that instruction can be imparted. With these things, our school children can be moulded into useful and law-abiding citizens. To bring about and maintain this condition, is a duty incumbent upon the board of directors, and to that end they should never relax their energies. Their reward is in the consciousness of duty well performed, and in the steadily increasing moral tone of the community in which they live.

Realizing these things, and with a full consciousness of the responsibility assumed, I will say to you, that

HEARING THAT A WARRANT WAS OUT J. C. JOHANSEN CHEERFULLY COMES TO TOWN.

John C. Johansen will appear before Justice of the Peace Goodman at 2 o'clock this afternoon to answer to a charge of assault and battery alleged to have been committed on a youth named Lloyd Foote. Both are residents of Lewis and Clark.

Deputy Sheriff Archie McLean went out to arrest Johansen several days ago, but he was away on a fishing trip and the deputy sheriff had to return without his prisoner. The suggestion was made, however, that when Mr. Johansen arrived home he should come in to Astoria and give himself up, so that the expense of a second trip from the sheriff's office might be avoided. Mr. Johansen cheerfully acted upon the suggestion and came to town yesterday and pretended himself at the sheriff's office, where he was "arrested" and then taken before Justice Goodman and arraigned. He pleaded not guilty.

Very little is known here of the merits of the case here, though it is said that the prisoner is known in his community as a good and peaceable citizen.

if the electors of School District No. 1, desire me to serve as a director for the coming term, and will honor me with their votes at the approaching election, I will do my best to fulfill the duties of the office.

Very respectfully yours,
H. L. HENDERSON.
