

The Week in Astoria Society

Mrs. R. M. Leathers returned home the fore part of the week, after visiting with friends in Portland. Miss Katie Wallace of Portland, accompanied her and will for some time in Astoria.

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Myers and children of Richmond, Ohio, arrived in Astoria Monday to visit with Rev. C. C. Rarick and family. Rev. Myers, who is a Methodist minister and a college friend of Mr. Rarick contemplates settling permanently in Oregon.

Mrs. W. B. Donaldson and daughter, Miss Olga of Chinook, en route home from the Rose Festival in Portland spent last Sunday and Monday in Astoria, the guests of Mrs. A. M. Foard.

The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will convene in annual session next week in Portland. The delegates from the Astoria Commandery are Messrs. T. B. Loughery, H. M. Lorntsen, J. E. Gratke and C. W. Spriggs. The Grand Lodge of Pythian Sisters will meet at the same time and the representatives from this city who will be in attendance are Mrs. Isaac Bergman, Mrs. Theodore Josephson and Mrs. August Danielson.

Mrs. T. O. Withers left last Sunday for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and other relatives in Boise, Idaho. Mr. Withers accompanied his wife as far as Portland returning the same evening.

Rev. William S. Gilbert will leave the early part of the week for a visit with his mother in Ohio. On his return Mrs. Gilbert will meet him at the Yellowstone National Park which they will tour before returning home.

Mrs. C. A. Carlton of Loveland, Colo., has arrived to visit with her daughter, Miss Leslie, who is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Rarick of this city.

Mrs. I. Cleveland, Mrs. Lounsbury and Mrs. Vaughn attended the meeting of the Grand Chapter Eastern Star in Portland this week, going as delegates from the Astoria lodge.

Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Martin Foard and Miss Freda Foard left on Tuesday for Tacoma to be present at the Commencement exercises of the Anna Wright Seminary of that place of which Miss Lola Foard was one of the graduates. The party returned to Astoria Thursday evening.

The Sunday school class of Mrs. J. E. Ferguson will entertain the coming Saturday afternoon and evening, June 20th, by holding their second annual Rose Festival. An interesting musical and literary program has been arranged to be given at both the afternoon and evening sessions, an attractive feature of which will be the rendering of an anthem at both sessions in which about 25 voices will join. Light refreshments will also be served during the afternoon and evening and the floral decorations arranged for, bids fair to be both profuse and beautiful. The affair promises to be both highly entertaining and successful. The class will be assisted in their work by the Misses Elmore, the Misses Higgins, Miss Jeffers, Mrs. A. A. Finch, Mrs. F. H. Harridan, Mrs. P. J. Brix and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson.

Invitations have been issued by the Junior Class of the Astoria High School for a reception to be given in Logan's Hall Wednesday evening, June 24th, in honor of the graduating class.

The commencement exercises of Willamette University of Salem will be held the coming Tuesday evening in the First Methodist Church of that place. Miss Laura Fastabend of this city who is one of the graduates will return home about the middle of the week. Miss Selma Norberg, who has been attending the Willamette University also will teach the coming year in Salem.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church will be entertained the coming Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wilson, 99 W. Duane street. Mrs. R. M. Gaston will have charge of the program to be given on this occasion.

Prof. S. K. Diebel, a former and popular instructor in the city schools graduated this week with a degree of B. S. from the Chicago University. Mr. Diebel, who was one of a class of three hundred, will continue his studies for another year at the university.

The members of the W. C. T. U. and a number of invited guests held a very pleasing and enjoyable meeting at the home of Mrs. Busey on Franklin avenue Thursday afternoon. The occasion was in the form of a farewell party for Mrs. Busey who is leaving Astoria to reside elsewhere. During the afternoon the many who attended were delighted with the musical selections rendered by Mrs. W. W. Ridehalgh and Miss Amy Rannels. Dainty refreshments were served and a happy social time had by those present.

The Pacific Orchestra and Star Social Club have announced a ball to be given in the National Association Hall of Uppertown, Saturday evening, June 20th.

A dance was given last evening in the National Association Hall of Uppertown by a club known as "The Girls in Black." Stewart's five-piece string orchestra furnished excellent music and a general good time was had by all who attended.

The Joly Bees were charmingly entertained this week at the home of Mrs. P. Kearney on Exchange street. The afternoon was passed in a delightfully social way and the most delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by her daughters, the Miss Kearneys.

Mr. August Scherneckau on last Sunday afternoon announced the engagement of his niece, Miss Bertha Kreibohm to Mr. Emil Streichert of Hamburg, Germany. No date has been set as yet for the wedding.

A beautiful home wedding occurred Thursday morning, June 11th, at 6:30 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. H. Lienenweber, 425 Exchange street when her daughter, Miss Ida Eugenia Lienenweber became the wife of Mr. Richard Harry Van Tuyl. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William S. Gilbert of the First Presbyterian Church and was witnessed by the family and intimate friends of the contracting parties. The house was artistically decorated for the happy occasion with banks of snowballs and asparagus fern, the dining room was made especially attractive with a profusion of white roses and ferns. The rooms were darkened and the electric lights turned on giving a beautiful effect. The bride looked charming in an elegant gray traveling costume and carried bride roses. At the close of the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served and the happy couple left on the steamer Nahcotta for North Shore points to spend their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Van Tuyl are very popular with a large circle of friends who join in wishing them much happiness in their married life. The out-of-town guests who were present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nettleton of South Bend, Wash.; Miss Marie Kronquist of San Francisco, and Mrs. T. F. Leinenweber of Portland.

The pupils of the Academy of Holy Names are making arrangements for the giving of an entertainment in Logan's Hall on Thursday evening, June 25th. Those in charge state that the affair will be well worth attending as an interesting program will be presented.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart are rejoicing over the birth of a son on last Monday evening.

Mr. R. H. Hopstad of Everett, Wash., gave an illustrated lecture on the Holy Land last evening in the Idun Hall of Uppertown, which was much appreciated by those who attended.

The members of the Sewing Society of the Relief Corps were royally entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Springer at her home on Commercial street. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. Gilbaugh on Twelfth and Duane streets. The delegates from the Relief Corps who will attend the State Encampment which convenes at Newport, June 24th, and continues for three days are Mrs. Staples, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Gilbaugh and Mrs. Springer, Mrs. Rich, president of the local corps, Mrs. Eckstrom, Mrs. Cleveland, Mrs. Zeigler and Miss Mayme Clinton also expect to attend.

The Women of Woodcraft were royally entertained at their regular bi-monthly meeting held in their Redmen's hall, Exchange street, this week by Mrs. Kamm and Mrs. Porter, all who were in attendance report a thoroughly enjoyable time.

The High School Alumni will give a banquet the night following the graduating exercises of the High School. The banquet this year will surpass, in decorations and entertainment anything ever attempted by the society.

Mrs. Frank Sanborn charmingly entertained the Saturday Girls at her home on Fifteenth street, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Zeigler entertained the members of the Astoria Philharmonic Society at their home on Seventeenth street on last Tuesday evening. About 35 members were present and were very hospitably entertained, after the rehearsal, refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler.

Rev. Theo. P. Neste, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran Church accompanied by Mrs. Neste, left on Tuesday morning for an extended Eastern trip, while away Rev. Neste will attend the 29th general assembly of the Lutheran church which convenes June 18th to 25th in Chicago. After the assembly Rev. and Mrs. Neste will visit their former home at Decorah, Iowa.

Thursday evening, June 11th, at 8 o'clock at the bride's home on Sixteenth street. Miss Elnora O'Connor and Mr. Joseph Lyman Nutter of Sausalito, Cal., were united in marriage, the Rev. Father Hunt of Portland performing the ceremony. Only the immediate family and a few invited guests witnessed the happy event. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles E. Johnson and Mr. Johnson acted as groomsmen. At the close of the ceremony an excellent repast was served and the remainder of the evening was spent in a pleasing social way. Mr. Nutter is the captain of the Point Bonita, Cal., life saving station. The newly married pair left on Friday morning to spend their honeymoon at California points.

Mrs. Edward Dewey and Mrs. Eunice Swett of Portland, Maine, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Fisher for the summer. Mrs. Swett is Mrs. Fisher's mother.

Mrs. I. N. Garman delightfully entertained the members of the Thursday Afternoon Club at her home on Irving avenue this week.

Mrs. Frank L. Bishop entertained in a charming manner at her home on Harrison avenue Tuesday evening with a miscellaneous shower given in honor of Miss Ida Leinenweber who was married on Thursday. Many of Miss Leinenweber's friends were present at the hospitable home of Mrs. Bishop and thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment offered.

The D. M. C. D. Club members were delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening by Miss Nellie Utzinger and Miss Jessie Sands at the Sands residence on Fifteenth street. This week's entertainment was designated as "Fancy Dress High Jinks" and the members and invited guests were attired in fancy costumes. Two little girls from school, Clown, Toodles, Buster Brown, Lord Fontelroy, Folly, and Sailor Boy were charmingly represented. A musical program and games with dainty refreshments closed a successful evening.

The Shriners' semi-annual session was held in Portland last evening. Among the candidates to be invited were State Senator W. T. Scholfield, Captain G. W. Wood and Mr. W. E. Schimpff of this city.

Beaver Lodge, I. O. O. F., and Gateway Rebekah Lodge will go to Ocean View cemetery this morning to decorate the graves of their departed members and to properly observe the I. O. O. F. memorial day. The address of the occasion will be made by Mr. Joseph M. Anderson and the other exercises will be conducted by the officers of the Lodge.

The ladies of the Monday Club of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful sale of Alaska baskets at the home of Mrs. G. C. Fulton Friday afternoon. A tea was also given in conjunction with the sale which proved most enjoyable.

The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Astoria High School will be delivered in the Methodist Church, Sunday, June 24th, by the Rev. C. C. Rarick.

Miss Lelah Gilbaugh returned this week from her extended visiting trip of three weeks through the northwest including Seattle, Tacoma, Vancouver and Portland where she was an enthusiastic spectator as well as a participant in the rose festivities. She remarked that she has had a splendid time altogether.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bergman were Portland passengers on Wednesday for a week's visit.

Dr. Frank Vaughn and Mr. Otto Heilborn attended the meeting of the Masonic Grand Lodge in Portland this week.

Mrs. Nelson Roney, of Eugene, is the guest of her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Bonham, on Sixth street.

Miss Hazel Ripley has arrived down from Portland for a visit with her parents.

Miss Lucille Cashel is sojourning in Portland this week.

Mrs. Charles Abercrombie and baby are visiting with Seaside friends.

Mrs. William L. Trullinger of Portland, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Osgood of Young's River.

Mrs. Hansen and Master Sanford Schlussel have returned from a visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelliher have returned from visiting Puget Sound points and the Rose Carnival in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. George Kaboth were Portland passengers on Tuesday, while away they will visit The Dalles and vicinity.

Mrs. H. C. Thompson and children Harold and Edwina, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Higgins.

Mr. and Mrs. Swepson Morton of Knappton and Miss Olga Heilborn are visiting in Portland.

Miss Margaret Higgins returned on Tuesday of this week from participating in the Rose Festival at Portland.

Mrs. H. W. Christiansen has returned home from a week's stay in the Rose City.

Mr. and Mrs. James Welch returned Friday evening from Portland where they attended the Pioneers' annual reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warriner have returned from a visit at Cascade Locks and Portland.

NOTICE

Union Gas Engine Company.

Mr. C. H. Carlson has been appointed local agent for the Union Gas Engine Company for Astoria and Lower River territory with headquarters at Astoria. A full line of repair parts will be carried in stock at 591 Exchange street, Astoria, by Mr. Carlson, who is also equipped to do repair work on Union Engines at short notice in a first-class manner. UNION GAS ENGINE COMPANY, F. P. Kendall, General Sales Agent.

Portland, Oregon, June 1, 1908.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

I will pay the sum of $50 to whomsoever shall recover and deliver the dead body of my son, Vernon Elbon, supposed to have been drowned in the Columbia river on Saturday, May 30th, last.

J. E. ELBON.

Reward of Merit.

The new Plumbing and Tinning shop at No. 126 Eighth street, recently opened by Messrs. Younce and Baker, is proving to be a very successful venture, and is meeting with well deserved patronage.

Morning Astorian delivered by carrier, 60 cents per month. Contains all the Associated Press reports, besides all the local news.

The Particular Man

With an inclination to wear fine shoes is the man we want for a customer. Nothing desirable, that any gentleman will want in fine footwear, is absent from our Spring and Summer lines. We have the finest tan oxfords brains can create or money can buy--beauties to look at, luxuries to the foot. Also the best line of ladies' and gentlemen's outing shoes in the city.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY
CHAS V. BROWN
 The Family Shoe Man