The Death of Benjamin Hart Uncovers Romance

LEAVES ALL TO MISTRESS

His Adopted Daughter is Disinherited—Estate Worth Several Millions of Dollars Will be Fought by the Girl Who Claims Full Rights.

PARIS, June 25.—The death here in May of Benjamin Hart, a millionaire American, who resided in Paris almost continuously for the past 25 years, has uncovered a romance which promises to have a court sequel in a suit brought by the adopted daughter whom Mr. Hart disinherited in his will. Hart was a Virginian by birth, but he was well known in New York where he lived for many years, and where he amassed a large fortune during the Civil War. He was married while he lived in America but later was divorced. As there were no children by the union, Mr. Hart during one of his visits to Paris adopted a pretty three-year-old child, Isabel Luchesi, and arranged with the parents to adopt here. The little girl was tenderly reared by Hart after the divorce from his wife, and every care was bestowed upon her education and training. In 1892, when Isabel was 17 years old Hart formally adopted her in New York under the laws of that state. At this time he was constructing a magnificent residence in the Rue Galilee, and moved in the highest American, and foreign circles in Paris. The adopted daughter about this time contracted a marriage with a distinguished young French diplomat, Jean Guillemin, a brother of the Countess of Montebello and who is now counsellor of the French Embassy at Vienna. Guillemin is well known in American where he was despatched by M. Delcasse upon two missions.

After the residence in the Rue Galilee was completed and luxuriously furnished for occupancy, Hart formed a mesalliance with a Madame de Bie and installed her as the mistress of the house. Naturally his friends were shocked and began to drop him. It is charged that Madame de Bie conceived a violent hatred for the daughter because the latter refused to recognize her position in the Hart household. At any rate, when Mr. Hart died it was found that he had left a will specifically disinheriting the daughter and bequeathing all his property, which amounted to several millions of dollars, principally personal property in America to Madame de Bie. Madame Guillemin has instructed her lawyer, Donald Harper, to bring suit to break the will on the ground of undue influence. The document will also be contested as it was drafted in accordance with the New York law, whereas it is claimed Hart was domiciled in France. Proof that he regarded this as his domicile is said to exist in the purchase deed of a lot in the St. Germain cemetery, where he is buried. This lot was bought "in perpetuity" which is regarded as evidence that he had no intention of returning to America to live. Mr. Hart's will will come for probate before the Surrogate of New York on July 30.

LEAPS FROM CAB

Engineer's Thrilling Rescue of a Drowning Boy

BRINGS HIS TRAIN TO STOP

Engineer J. A. Tynan Sees Boy Fall From Bridge and Leaps in River to His Rescue in the Nick of Time—Name Unknown.

CHICAGO, June 25.—A despatch to the Tribune from Fond Du Lac, Wis., says: Bringing his fast express train to a sudden stop to leap from his cab and plunge into the waters of Mud Creek, Engineer J. A. Tynan, by a quick swim and dive, achieved a thrilling rescue of a drowning boy yesterday.

Tynan is a passenger engineer on the Wisconsin Central, and when approaching Mud Creek, near Hilbert Junction on his run from Manitowac to Neenah, he caught sight of a lad seated midway on the bridge fishing, wholly oblivious to the approaching danger. There was an instant closing of the throttle and an application of the air, but before the train could be stopped the bridge had been passed. The boy in his fright, either jumped into the water or was swept off by the train. When Tynan leaped from his engine the little fellow was struggling in the stream below, absolutely helpless. The engine driver plunged down the bank into the water, wading, swimming and finally diving to reach the boy and emerging a few moments later with his victim almost exhausted. The boy, whose identity could not be learned, was placed on the train and taken to Collins and turned over to the care of a physician, while Tynan after finishing his run, at Fond Du Lac, reported the affair in a perfunctory way to his superintendent.
