

BRYAN WANTS GRAY

But Governor Johnson Doesn't Suit the Nebraskan

DELEGATES NOW IN DENVER

Judge Gray is Known to be Acceptable as Bryan's Running Mate But it is Doubtful That he Will Take the Place if Offered.

DENVER, Col., July 1.—The principal event in connection with the forthcoming Democratic Convention was the arrival of Frederick B. Lynch of Minnesota as the representative in chief of the presidential boom of Gov. Johnson of that state. A reservation of quarters at the Albany hotel was made several weeks ago by Mr. Lynch and an extensive suite of rooms had been prepared for him and his staff.

The announcement of Mr. Lynch's coming had the effect of causing a renewal of the discussion of the possibilities of the nomination of the presidency rather than for the presidency. It was conceded even by the supporters of Gov. Johnson that his nomination for the first place was problematical but his friends were staunch in their determination to have his name presented to the convention for the presidency even in the face of the possibility of his defeat and most of them were quite as positive in the declaration that he would not accept the second place even if it were tendered him. The discussion of the Minnesota governor's chances for the vice presidency while quite general among the uninformed was not indulged in seriously by those who were in accord with the inner Bryan circles. They did not accept his name with favor and it may be announced even thus far in advance of the meeting of the convention that the Minnesotan will not be Mr. Bryan's running mate in the event of the Nebraskan's nomination. Mr. Bryan's most intimate friends are quite determined on that point. On the other hand it is known that Judge Gray of Delaware would be in every way acceptable to Mr. Bryan as the candidate for the second place and the position is generally conceded to him if he will accept it. It is conceded that Judge Gray is not a candidate for second place but the contention is persistently made that if the nomination should be tendered him he would not refuse it. It is known that he found his work on the bench not thoroughly congenial and those familiar with his disposition say that he would prefer the vice presidency to his work on the bench. If the nomination does go to Judge Gray of New York will probably claim it and in that contingency the New Yorkers who are on the ground assert that the position will be awarded to that state if the New York delegation can unite upon a candidate. In other words the situation with reference to the vice-presidency now parallels the vice-presidential in the convention previous to the nomination of Mr. Sherman. The developments of the day have practically eliminated Mr. Chanler from the contest. Mr. Bryan's friends are not favorably inclined to him because they are doubtful that his position on the tariff would place him in accord with Mr. Bryan.

With Mr. Chanler thus practically disposed of, there has been renewed discussion of the name of Francis Burton Harrison of New York and the name of J. B. Stanchfield of Elmira, N. Y., was also prominently mentioned today in connection with the office. There has also been mentioned the name of Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, present national committeeman from New York, but Mr. Mack, who is on the ground, pooh poohs the suggestion. Among those of the South mentioned in connection with the vice-presidential nomination is Gov. Rob. B. Glenn of North Carolina and Mr. Glenn is already represented in Denver by H. M. Holleman and other friends who are working among the delegates as they arrive. The headquarters of Judge George Gray of Delaware, were thrown open today. Josiah Marvel of Wilmington, Del., and R. J. Beamish of Philadelphia, who are in charge of Mr. Gray's campaign, expected to open the headquarters and launch the Gray boom last night but they were delayed in reaching the city and when they arrived at their rooms at the Savoy Hotel it was decided to postpone the opening until today. Even then the Gray people were the first to open regular headquarters. Mr. Marvel declared last night, and reiterated today that Judge Gray is not a candidate for anything but the presidency. He was asked if the judge would accept the nomination even if the platform contained a radical anti-injunction plank. Mr. Marvel replied: "From all I gather the Denver platform will not

This woman says that after months of suffering Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made her as well as ever.

Maude E. Fergie, of Leesburg, Va., writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For months I suffered from feminine ills so that I thought I could not live. I wrote you, and after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and using the treatment you prescribed I felt like a new woman. I am now strong, and well as ever, and thank you for the good you have done me."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

contain any utterance on the anti-injunction proposition varying largely from the expression contained in democratic platforms for the last 12 years."

According to Mr. Marvel the Delaware delegation has some well developed ideas of what the anti-injunction plank should be but will not make them public until they are offered by Mr. Layton when the platform committee meet. That these ideas are in harmony with the last three platforms of the democratic party as admitted.

J. OGDEN ARMOUR RETURNS

NEW YORK, July 1.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Ogden Armour were among the passengers yesterday of the Kronprinzess in Cecilie yesterday from Bremen. Mr. Armour said his daughter Lolita who was operated several years ago by Prof. Lorenz of Vienna had almost recovered and was quite well as any child of her age.

Referring to the financial situation Mr. Armour said he found a disposition among all European countries to again buy American canned meats and that there was but small doubt that the prejudice existing since the investigation has been almost eradicated.

Constipation, or irregularity, is very often the cause of sick-headache. Lane's Family Medicine is the great preventive and cure of headache. Druggists sell it for 25 cents.

It is better to cure the little cough than to take chances of consumption. The best cough cure is Kemp's Balsam. Druggists sell it at 25 cents and 50 cents a bottle.
