

Rich Oil Fields Now in Operation Near Astoria

Right at the Mouth of the Columbia River

That OIL and natural GAS have been discovered in paying quantities across the Columbia River from Astoria at Onieda, Washington, has been important enough to a number of well-known reliable parties; to cause the organization of the Pacific Coast Gas & Oil Co., with a capital stock of $300,000. This company has just placed a number of shares of stock on the market at the low price of $50.00 per share. READ ON--

What the Company Is

The Pacific Coast Gas & Oil Co. is composed of reliable business men of Oregon and Washington whose only purpose is to develop the property to the best of its ability and produce a paying mine of oil and gas that all who have purchased stock may share in its profits. The officers serve without salary and include among them some of the most reputable citizens of the State. To make the company strong on account of its brilliant future it has secured leases on over 6000 acres of land. It has obtained the highest expert authority on the geological formation of the land, employed the strongest expert workmen to operate the drilling apparatus and given such other evidence of good faith to warrant any man making an investment with them.

Alex Sweek, president, Portland.
Clayton S. Barber, sec. and treas.
R. A. Wade, vice-president.
Directors—John Nelson, Onieda, Wash.; Geo. L. Hutchins, Portland; Wm. Anderson, Deep River, Wash.

The plant is now in constant operation. The drilling is being done under the supervision of two expert oil well operators. You can see them at work any day of the week at Onieda right opposite Astoria.

If you have any doubt as to the stability of the company, or in the manner in which it is operating, before you make any investment visit the property any day and satisfy yourself. Oil and gas will be found in paying quantities. After the "strike" it will be too late to buy stock. Do it NOW.

Stock for Sale

For Development Purposes

The per value of the stock is $100 per share, but is now offered at one-half ($50) and it is worth it. The company has already sold a limited amount of stock, equipped the property with the best working machinery in the world and it has plans for a great future. The money secured from the sale of stock will be to push the work. Every dollar will be used to prepare for the best interest of the company. As the drill goes down the stock will surely rise. The price it is now offered at will only be a short time. A good rule is to let opportunity in when it knocks at the door. For an investment there is nothing more tangible, brighter or more surer dividend paying than this stock, particularly at $50 per share. Don't wait until it goes to par, but buy now. It is really a chance that comes seldom. Further particulars at the addresses given below.

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, July 9.—"Store butter" is making its appearance in the city and is quoted at 16 cents a pound. There is no demand whatever for it in Portland and it has to be shipped to San Francisco, where it is made into "process butter" for that market. The boxes arriving from up country come from regions remote from creameries and is first sold to the country stores, where it remains for several days awaiting shipment here. Much of it is melted and with difficulty kept in the boxes in which it is packed by the country storekeeper. Several of the boxes opened this morning, disclosed a conglomeration of rolls and prints, done up in cloth such as was in use before the creameries were started in different parts of the Northwest.

Over Thirty-Five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From a small beginning, its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries. Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

Twenty-Five Cents is the Price of Peace.

The terrible itching and smarting, incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Frank Hart and leading druggists.

STREET FAKIRS.

"No sign: ring bell marked Eustis," said the advertisements of Professor Francis, seer and second-sight reader. I rang, I caught the door handle in time to beat the clicker, I walked up two flights. Professor Francis was waiting for me at the head of the stairs. He was a plump man, with a dark face and the far-looking eyes which mark his craft. He showed me into a room which was furnished, I swear it, from trading-stamps. The new gilt-and-gand chair creaked and sagged with my weight as I sat down. "Business or love reading?" he asked.

"Both," said I.
"Two dollars," I paid.
Professor Francis sat opposite me; appeared ill at ease.

"Did you come from the papers?" he asked presently.
"Did I come for what papers?" said I, and plumed myself on my presence of mind.

"Oh, nothing, I talk foolishness when I'm going into trance," said Professor Francis. Then he fixed his far, sad eye on a porcelain plaque (fifty green stamps) above my head, and proceeded:

"You have a nature delicate as a flower, but stern and unyielding in its great moments, as steel. You attract all about you by your sterling qualities of mind and heart. Take care lest your popularity be your ruin! I see the word 'April' and the figure '8' above your head. That means things are going to change for you about that time. It looks black all about you for your business now, but it will begin to lift on April 8. You will travel about that time. Let me tell you, young man, that you'll never serve yourself by staying in a shut-in position. Such talents as yours need to meet people.

"The one you're now attracted to in love will prove false. You are not really in love with her; You think you are. I get the date 1911, and it comes to me that then you'll meet somewhere in the South a tall dark woman with a slender figure. When you find her, cleave to her—she is your affinity. Yet you'll be married twice; the other is far in the future. When you have met her, go to some first-class medium again, because I see that wonderful things are in store for you."

Professor Francis gave a convulsive jerk, and woke to mundane things.

"That's all!" he said, rising. And he held aside for my passage the bead portieres (two hundred and fifty green stamps).—Exchange.

DOES A VACATION PAY?

What a difference there is in what two people bring home from a vacation! One comes back tired, disgusted bored. He has spent his money and doesn't feel that he has much of anything in return. Another comes back all radiant with the riches which he has drunk in and absorbed during every moment of his vacation. He comes back rejuvenated, refreshed, inspired, a new creature, with a new grip upon life. The cobwebs, the brain ashes have been swept away from his jaded brain. He has been made over anew. Life means more than ever before. His dimmed ideals have been brightened and sharpened, his ambition renewed. Ask him if a vacation pays, and he will ask you, in turn, if it pays the grub to throw off its ugly shape and blossom out into a butterfly; if it pays a rosebud to open up its petals and fling out its fragrance and beauty to the world.

When you go into the country, make up your mind that you are going into God's great gallery of charm and beauty to enjoy yourself and to see what you can get out of it. Resolve that you will come home laden with riches that no money can buy; that you are going to extract from the landscape—from the mountains, the valleys, the fields and meadows—a wealth which does not inhere in the dollar.

Learn to drink in beauty and health at every pore. Try to realize that the flowers, the grass, the trees, the brooks, the hills—the charm and beauty everywhere—are God's smiles; that they are for him only who can appreciate them, who can respond to them, who can appropriate their message. They cannot be bought; they belong only to him who can enjoy them.—Success Magazine.
